Letters to the Editor

Question Judge Voices Protest To Editor of the Evening Public Ledger. Sir—Will you do me—and about 6000 other long-suffering election officers—a favor?

It was perfectly evident why the delay. All the boxes were compelled to go through the neck of a bottle down into the basement, where a few men received them and, taking them from the two election officers who brought them, dragged them into the storage room and recorded the ward and division.

That "Rebuttal" to Judge Brown To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger: Sir—The lovers of rectangular intersections and three-foot-wide alleys are no doubt all rejoicing at the rebuff administered by that solemn tribunal, Common Pleas No. 4, to the presumptuous extravagance of Judge Brown's soaring imagination.

Weather Signals on Railroad Trains To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger: Sir—While in high school I distinctly remember studying that some of the Western cities get their weather forecast by the signals from passing trains.

THE MOVIE FAN'S LETTERBOX

Barthelme fans will be glad to hear that Dick now plans to bring another Hergeheimer story to the screen. It will be "The Bright Shawl," the latest novel from the pen of the author of "Tollable David."

Yes, you do remember "The Chalice of Courage" with William Duncan. Thought it was great in those days; wonder what we'd both think of it now? Frankly, I don't think the beginner has a chance in the ordinary way.

by producers. But, if you were in a position to demand, you'd know more about the game than I do, and wouldn't be asking me these questions? I'd advise you to call on them—if you can.

C. B. Clavin writes: "Being a long delayed opportunity, my 'Peace and Quiet' and 'I Last Night Journeyed' approximately seven miles, waited three-quarters of an hour for the theatre to open, endured a new film and a Max Bennett comedy (I intended to look up the meaning of 'news' and 'comedy' when I got home), and saw 'The Loves of Pharaoh'."
