

MAKES SNAPPY APPEARANCE. The marine float in Frankford Armistice celebration, carrying a central piece reproducing in heroic size the Globe, Eagle and Anchor, familiar device of the Marine Corps, worn on cap and collar of the uniform

VOICE AMAZES CRITICS. Marion Talley, fifteen-year-old songbird from Kansas City, Mo., whose recent tryout evoked shower of congratulations

BREAKING 'EM IN. Cy Compton, former chief of cowboys with Buffalo Bill, can tame the wildest of rearing bronchos

VIEW OF NEW ART MUSEUM at end of Parkway, pictured in distance, showing progress being made. This picture of the new home for Philadelphia art collections was made from the West River Drive near Spring Garden Street Bridge

SCHOOL CHILDREN JOIN IN CELEBRATING ARMISTICE DAY. Pupils of the Lawton School, pictured above, singing "Hats Off as the Flag Goes By" at patriotic exercises held in connection with the Frankford jubilee

OUT OF TODAY'S GAME. Captain Holleran, of Pitt, unable to play because of broken arm

MARIA TUBAU, noted Spanish comedienne, stops to look us over while en route to Spain after two years' engagement in Mexico

AUCTIONING OFF the livestock at the farm of the late Senator Vare. With the exception of Senator Vare's favorite horse, which will not be sold but will remain in family, all other prize-winning livestock was disposed of

BENJAMIN CHEW, one of the contestants at recent shoot held on estate of Truxton Hare, Radnor

VISCOUNT BIRKENHEAD, created Earl on Lloyd George's honor list

JULES VERNE'S "Captain Nemo" becomes a reality. This marvelous apparatus used to enter Lusitania

BLACK PANTHER OIL PROMOTERS HELD. Reuben Douglas, M. W. Friedel and Harry Lindley, shown above, who, it is charged, induced many to invest in oil stock. They were arraigned before Magistrate Coward at City Hall

PHILADELPHIA BOWLERS defeat Brooklyn champs. Bill Knox and Charlie Trucks won recent match

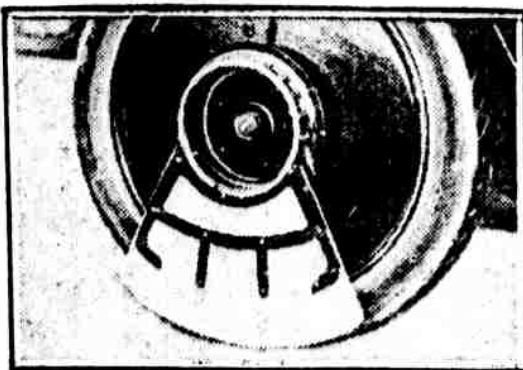

WALTER ELBRIDGE managing director of the Frankford popularity contest

TITLED VISITORS. Princess Moko Otani, of Japan, and her brother, Prince Okamoto Otani, recent arrivals from Nippon

MRS. ELSA HUMES, reported plaintiff in $500,000 alienation suit

MUD SPLASH GUARDS are the latest innovation to be shown at recent show in London. Attached as pictured above

HON. JOHN FORTESCUE, barred as West Point speaker

BEFORE THE DAYS OF AUTOMOBILES. The southwest corner of Broad and Chestnut streets as it appeared in 1895. The Land Title Building now occupies this site. Send us your old Philadelphia photographs

JACK FROST HAS NO TERRORS for this line-up of pretty misses, ready to enjoy their first plunge of the season at St. Petersburg, Florida. It is only a short distance from wintry blasts to tropical sunshine

MRS. G. C. EVANS, Joint Chairman Red Cross Roll Call

GARDEN CLUB OF AMERICA MEETS. Mrs. Louis Hertle, Mrs. Henry Chilton and Lady Geddes, wife of British Ambassador

LAYING CORNERSTONE of East Falls Bank and Trust Company. Left to right, Cashier Allen W. Kerst, President John Hohenadel, Director Ernest E. Carwardine and Officer McCrudden

MAKES HAIR CURL. Electric equipment displayed at a hairdressers' exhibition in London