

MANY AND VARIED gowns seen at the Fashion Show. Mrs. Walter Waring Hopkinson and Mrs. John B. Thayer are shown above attired in some of the beautiful productions of the modistes' art displayed at the Broad Street Theatre

SOCIETY FOLK DON GWNS in aid of Charlotte Cushman Club benefit at the Fashion Show held at the Broad Street Theatre. Above are pictured Miss Ellen Douglas Lloyd and Mrs. Persifer Frazier, 3d, wearing two of the creations exhibited

THESE TWO STRIKING CREATIONS are among the attractions at the Fashion Show. They are worn by Mrs. Philemon Dickinson and Miss Peggy Rosengarten. The show, in aid of the Charlotte Cushman Club opened today

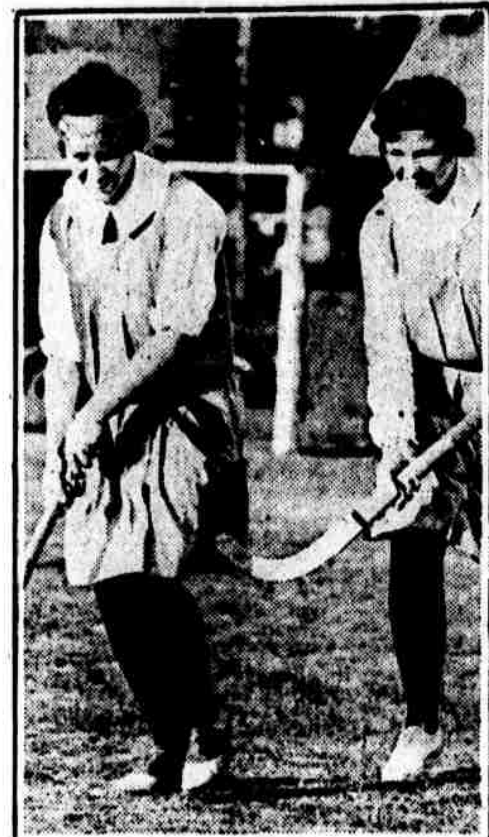

MUSSOLINI, Italian Premier, on his way to Quirinal

WITH FLAG AT HALF STAFF, all Penn honored memory of Andrew Lang, who died from injuries received in football

PRESIDENT HARDING photographed at a Washington funeral

AN EXCITING MOMENT during the hockey league race which ended in a tie when the Philadelphia Yellows defeated the Reds 9 to 2 at St. Martins yesterday, necessitating a play-off game to decide the championship team

CAPTAINS Philadelphia Yellows. Miss Lily Cheston plays center forward

PLAY SNAPPY GAME. Miss Susan Goodman and Miss Emma Norris, right inside and right wing of the Yellows

MISS VIRGINIA CARPENTER, one of Philadelphia Yellows' fast hockeyists

Baron Berni De Wullerstorff-Urbair, of Austrian National Union League

LUCKY EUROPE. These Southern beauties have gone abroad for tour. The girls from left to right are Margaret Colbert, Atlanta; Winnie Belle Davis and Mary Mack, Thomasville, Ga.; Margaret Elder and Telside Pratt, of Atlanta

M. M. NEELY, U. S. Senator from West Virginia

FRANK L. GREEN elected U. S. Senator from Vermont

SEEN AT THE PICKERING HUNT. The annual race meet at Phoenixville was well attended. The camera caught Mr. Lawrence Bodine assisting Mrs. Bodine with her wraps, shown on left. Mrs. E. W. Marshall and Miss Frances Le Boutillier, in center, were interested spectators. On the right is Mr. A. W. Porter serving luncheon to visiting farmers

"DRY" SHOWER YESTERDAY. Mrs. John W. Hawkins, W. C. T. U. delegate from Birmingham, Ala., dropped temperance circulars on city from airplane

LISTENING to cheering admirers outside, Ex-President and Mrs. Wilson at their window, Armistice Day

FAIR DANCERS TO AID ITALIAN HOSPITAL. The Misses Amelia and Sylvia Digaetano who will appear in entertainment and dance at New Century Drawing Rooms next week

SMALL SHOPS OCCUPIED THE SITE OF THE FIRST MINT at 37 North Seventh street in 1900. Send us your old Philadelphia photographs

MRS. M. J. PHILPOT, Iowa delegate to W. C. T. U. convention in progress

DELIGHTED WINNERS. They are, Catharine McCormick, daughter of Senator McCormick; Eva Walker, Lilian Banger and Sydney Neal, members of the Junior Riding and Hunt Club, Chicago

LOVERS OF FLOWERS were attracted by the many beautiful blooms displayed at Horticulture Hall. Little Jean Anderson, of Glenside, is shown on the right admiring the posies. Xavier Schmit, head gardener of the Flower Show, is pictured on the left, examining his fragrant charges with tender solicitude