DEMOCRATS AFTER WOLVERTON'S JOB

Indications That Camden County's Able Prosecutor Will Not Be Reappointed

CONVICTED 120 SLAYERS

The election of Judge Sitzer, a Democrat, as Governor of New Jersey, will mean the passing of Charles A. Wolverton as the prosecuting attorney of Camden County, on March 13 next.

Former Judge French, Democrat, is being mentioned as the probable successor to Mr. Wolverton. Judge French, who lives in Camden, was an active worker in behalf of Edwards and Sitzer.

In addition to his five-year term as prosecutor, Mr. Wolverton served more than seven years as assistant prosecutor, under the late Henry S. Seward, William T. Boyle and to William J. Kraft, who succeeded Mr. Boyle when the latter was appointed Judge.

As prosecutor and assistant, Wolverton has handled more than 120 murder cases without an acquittal being returned. Several of the cases attracted country-wide attention.

An Important Case

The trial of Frank James and Raymond Schuch for the murder of David Paul, Camden bank messenger, was one of Wolverton's most important cases. Although James and Schuch boasted of considerable influence, both were found guilty and electrocuted.

The conviction and electrocution of Guilford C. Young for the murder of Harry Garwood, jitney driver, was another of his later successes in the Criminal Court.

In 1919, Mr. Wolverton established a precedent in New Jersey by disposing of thirteen murder cases within three weeks. Eight cases were disposed of in a single day by Judge Murray.

Among these was Mrs. Mary Whitehead, who had killed two of her children in a futile attempt at suicide after her husband had deserted her.

She was found guilty, but sentence was suspended after Mr. Wolverton pleaded for mercy, owing to the extenuating circumstances.

The famous trunk mystery in 1909, in which a Reading, Pa., merchant was killed by his brother-in-law and his body hidden in the woods in Mount Ephraim, N. J., was another case in which Mr. Wolverton distinguished himself, although at that time he had been in the prosecutor's office but a few months.

Father of "Mersey" Bill
Mr. Wolverton was a member of the Legislature in 1915, '16, '17 and '18, and introduced the Wolverton bill, which permits a jury to recommend mercy in a first-degree murder verdict.

In 1911, as Assistant Prosecutor, Wolverton assisted in the prosecution of the election fraud cases in Camden, in which several members of the Camden police force were disqualified for violations of the election laws.

During his five years as prosecutor conducted a number of sweeping raids on saloons and gambling houses in Camden. As the result of a wholesale raid on Camden saloons in 1920, $10,000 was paid in fines in a single day in Criminal Court.

In 1913, Mr. Wolverton was assigned to assist Attorney General Wilson in the political clean-up of Atlantic County; several influential politicians were caught in the dragnet.

During his five years as prosecutor his office has handled more than 12,000 criminal matters with a general record of conviction of between 92 and 95 per cent.

LEWIS NOT FOR BENCH

Lawyer Tells Governor He Is Not Out for Common Pleas Judgeship

Governor Sprout will fill the vacancy in Common Pleas Court No. 2 within the next few days, it was said today. The vacancy was caused by the death of Judge Rogers. The Governor is said to favor Assistant District Attorney James Gay Gordon, Jr., for the place.

A new partner is Charles Sinker, of the firm of Williams & Sinker, Mr. Sinker is one of the younger members of the bar. Edwin O. Lewis, who has the endorsement of Congressman Vaux, has written to the Governor saying he is not an aspirant.

Before leaving the city last night Governor Sprout conferred with Dr. Clyde King, head of the Pinchot fiscal Commission.

THIEVES JUDGES OF SILK

Noiseless Robbers Loot Sixth Street Establishment of $1000 in Goods

Noiseless thieves, who apparently were good judges of merchandise, forced an entrance to the establishment of the United States Training Company, 1410 North Sixth street, late last night and stole a quantity of silk and cloth valued at more than $1000. The same time was robbed last November.

As the robbers took nothing but the most valuable goods, members of the firm believe the job was done by persons familiar with qualities.

Although a watchman was on duty, he did not hear the thieves, it is believed that the stolen goods were taken away in an automobile.

FRANCE AFTER U. S. ART

Government Wants American Institutions to Send Exhibit
A request to America to send an art exhibit to France has been made by the French Government. Officials of art institutions of Philadelphia and several other cities have been asked to cooperate.

This is said to be the first time France has ever made such a request of this country and art patrons say it is a recognition of the progress made by the United States in the field of art.

The message from the French Government has caused considerable enthusiasm among art patrons and students in this city.

An art board, to be headed by President Harding and President Millerand, of France, will make plans for the sending and arrangement of the exhibit. Philadelphia will be represented on the board by Langdon Warner, director of the Pennsylvania Museum, and Huger Elliott, principal of the School of Industrial Art.
