

BONAR LAW CLAIMS WORKING MAJORITY

All Britain Voting Today to Elect King George's Fourth Parliament

COMBINE AGAINST LABOR

By Associated Press
London, Nov. 15.—The electorate of Great Britain swarmed to the polls by the millions today in England, Scotland, Wales and Ulster to elect the fourth Parliament of the reign of King George V.

The polls opened at 8 o'clock—an hour earlier than that in some big industrial centers—and by 9 o'clock tonight the new House of Commons will have been selected.

No eleventh-hour development has lessened the uncertainty of the result. The few prophets who venture forecasts tie strings to their predictions. It is, therefore, something of a surprise to the public that Prime Minister Bonar Law in his final speech at Glasgow yesterday discarded his native caution and declared that he had "considerable confidence" that the electors would give him a working majority today on which he can depend.

He made it clear that he would be dissatisfied with anything less than an independent Unionist majority. Experienced observers nowhere express strong confidence in such a result, however.

Gamblers betting on the election results in the London insurance market yesterday had to pay a rate which indicated that a majority of Conservatives and independent Unionists over all other parties was regarded as almost certain, but the odds were 7 to 3 against the expectation that Conservatives would get a majority of eighty or more.

At the last parliamentary elections it was estimated that only about 40 per cent of the electors went to the polls. Opponents of labor fear that unless more energy is displayed today, Laborites will benefit, since their organization is believed to be complete. From the Unionist newspapers goes up the earnest cry: "Whatever you do, don't vote Labor."

Lloyd George, too, is strong in his opposition to the Laborite program. In an overnight message to the electors he urged them to support "candidates who are opposing socialism as laid down in the manifesto of the Labor Party."

"I am looking forward to the return of men of progressive ideas as a bulwark against reaction on the one hand and revolutionary experiments on the other," said the message of the little Welshman who only a few weeks ago was the Prime Minister of Great Britain.

Laxatives Replaced

By the Use of Nujol

Nujol is a lubricant—not medicine or laxative—so cannot grip. When you are constipated, not enough of Nature's lubricating liquid is produced in the bowel to keep the food waste soft and moving. Doctors prescribe Nujol because it acts like this natural lubricant and thus prevents the grip.
