

MISS BETTY AUSTIN

MISS RACHEL PRICE

MRS. F. SARGENT

MR. J. B. HOLLAND AND MISS MILDRED LONGSTRETH

MRS. MAURICE B. SAUL

MRS. GEORGE McIVER, JR.

MISS BETTY BOYD

SOCIETY AMATEURS APPEAR IN PLAYLET AT THE HOUSEWARMING ATTENDING DEDICATION OF THE PLAYS AND PLAYERS' NEW HOME AT THE LITTLE THEATRE

HITTING THE BULL'S EYE comes easy to these girls of the Central High School, of Washington. The fair members of this rifle team, credited with being among the most accurate marksmen in the country, shown at practice

SOME STIRRING ACTION caught by the camera during the Penn Charter-Germantown Friends soccer game yesterday at Queen Lane. The fast "Friends" team was victorious, winning with the score of 2 to 0

"HOOPING" IT UP IN LONDON. Instead of the traditional barrel hoops, the girls of London are rolling inflated inner tubes of automobile tires. A merry group is pictured above, getting a little exercise from the old-time sport

DR. HENRY SHIPSTEAD, U. S. Senator-elect from Minnesota

MISS SARAH BARRINGER

MRS. W. W. HOPKINSON

MRS. E. DOBSON ALTEMUS

MRS. PERSIFOR FRAZER, 3d

MRS. RANDAL MORGAN

CADET HARRY E. HAWS showing Annapolis schoolship diploma to family. He is one of fourteen graduated

H. G. WELLS noted author slated for British Parliament

MRS. F. SPENCER DURYEA addressed W. C. T. U. Convention

DR. N. RAGUSIN, Argentina, here studying army health methods

SOCIETY FOLK DISPLAY STRIKING CREATIONS IN CHARLOTTE CUSHMAN CLUB BENEFIT, AT FASHION SHOW HELD IN BROAD STREET THEATRE

AT THE NATIONAL HORSE SHOW. Miss Becky Lanier, pictured on the left, with her champion Silvercrest, and Miss Sally Lanier, one of the most accomplished horsewomen of her years. Both snapped at opening of National Horse Show, New York

AT MATINEE MUSICAL CLUB MEETING. Cecil Arden, Metropolitan Opera Co. and Mrs. H. Harrison Mills

WASHINGTON NOTABLES SAIL FOR EUROPE. Miss Ruth Wayne Smith and Mrs. Ida R. M. French, on S.S. Homeric

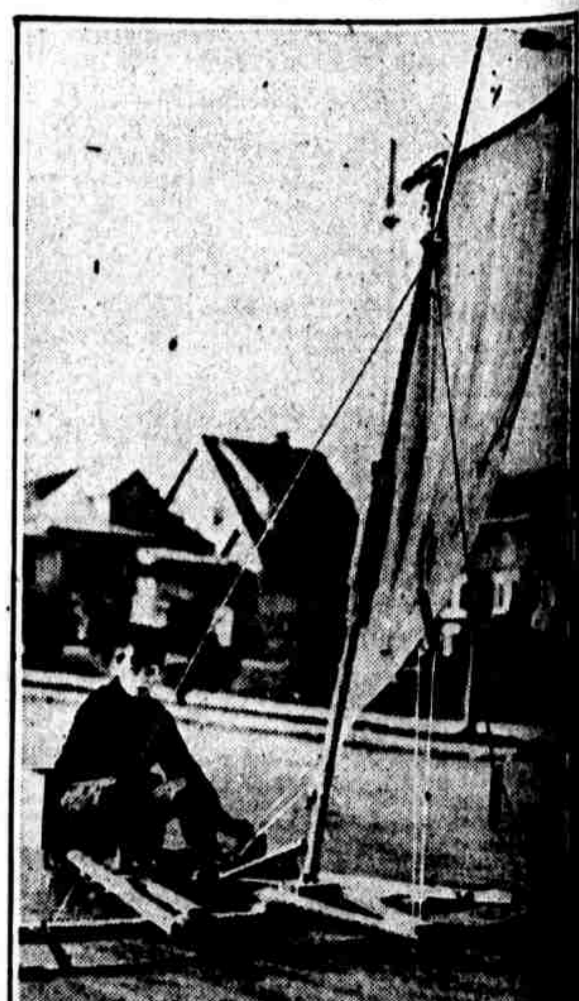

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

BEFORE THE DAYS OF THE NEW ELEVATED. Frankford Avenue at Unity street presented the above appearance in 1892. Contributed by H. Brinton Co., Kensington avenue and M street, Frankford. Send us your old Philadelphia photographs

MUSIC HATH CHARMS, even when coming from weird-looking instrument shown above, known as the "Bumbo Jazz Bass"

BOWLING ALONG AT LIVELY CLIP. Tom Macune, Atlantic City youth, evolved unique land-yacht from roller skates, lumber and sheet