

HERETIC-BAITERS SCORED BY PASTOR

Wear One-seventh of New Jersey in Sunday Schools, Convention Told

700 DELEGATES AT PITMAN

Special Dispatch to Evening Public Ledger
Pitman, N. J., Nov. 15.—It's an invitation of the devil—this idea of having people thrown out of the church and declared arch-heretics if they do not believe just as we do. Let's be so busy fighting the devil that we will not have time to fight each other.

Thus the Rev. Robert Hugh Morris, of the Haddonfield Presbyterian church, urged "a unity of spirit among Christians even where a conformity of ideas is not possible." In addressing delegates representing all Protestant denominations in the State at the opening of the sixty-fourth annual convention of the New Jersey Sunday School Association here yesterday.

A rousing service was held in the big auditorium of the Methodist Episcopal Church last night, starting off with a spirited song service by a mixed choir of 100 voices, led by Prof. J. Lincoln Cornell. Addresses were made by Henry Reed Bowen, superintendent of young people's work in New Jersey, on "Preparing for the Game," and by R. A. Waite, Chicago, international superintendent of the young people's division, on "Down the Field."

Growth and advancement of the Sunday schools of New Jersey was touched upon by the Rev. Joseph E. Apple, general secretary, when he spoke on "The Past, Present and Future of the State." He showed that about one-seventh of the present population of New Jersey is enrolled in Sunday schools, or 443,132 members, taught by an army of more than 40,000 officers and teachers in 2412 different Sunday schools.

Did the church people of New Jersey fall down at the election last week when the "wets" swept the State? This is a question that stirred the interest of delegates. They are expected to take action on a resolution hitting at the election result.

This resolution has been referred to the Executive Committee for action before being turned back to the general convention. It was framed by the Rev. Francis E. Purcell, pastor of the Emmanuel Methodist Episcopal Church, Pennsylvania.

The convention settled down to the routine of divisional conference and general reports. The annual election of officers is being held this afternoon. A question box at the convention has brought out the fact that nearly 75 per cent of the Sunday schools now hold their sessions in the mornings, either before or after the regular church services.

Harry S. Jackson, former State president, is presiding at this afternoon's session. The Finance Committee report is to be presented by J. Edward Tompkins, chairman, and the report on the summer school by Edward W. Cooper, president of the board of directors. F. H. Beckwith, of Hinn, N. Y., president of the board of directors of the National Sunday School Association, will deliver the principal address of the afternoon.

Delegates are present from every county in the State, and the registration was put close to 700. "Forward Together" is the general convention theme.

Today's sessions will be given over largely to divisional conferences. Dr. Francis H. Green, headmaster of Pennsylvania Seminary, will speak at the general session in the evening.

BRITISH GENERAL WEDS

Takes New Yorker's Divorced Wife. Was Named Co-respondent

London, Nov. 15.—Brigadier General Guy Livingstone, who was cited as co-respondent when Archibald Houwerie Primrose, of New York, divorced his wife about a year ago, married Mrs. Diva Amelia Primrose, the woman in the case, yesterday.

General Livingstone is well known in the United States, for, after serving at the head of the Personnel Division, in the Air Ministry of England, during part of the war he was loaned to the United States Government to advise on the organization of the United States air service.

General Livingstone, too, has been divorced within the last year. He is on the retired list. Mrs. Primrose has been living at a London hotel for some months.

Why Corns?

Just say Blue-jay to your druggist

The simplest way to end a corn is Blue-jay. A touch stops the pain instantly. Then the corn loosens and comes out. Made in a colorless clear liquid (one drop does it) and in thin plasters. The action is the same.

ITALY FEARS BLOCKADE

Gibraltar Report Strengthens Demand for Freedom of Dardanelles

Rome, Nov. 15.—Reports that the British are making Gibraltar a formidable aviation base is causing some concern in Italy. As Italy depends upon its shipping to bring in most of its important imports, the country is in case of war is already virtually at the mercy of England which controls the only two outlets of the Mediterranean.

The addition of aviation to Gibraltar's arsenal and the probability that the other British naval bases in the Mediterranean—Malta, Cyprus and Egypt—will be similarly strengthened makes Italy the more determined that the Dardanelles, at least, be kept free of British control.

It is believed in some quarters that if the Turks are not allowed to dominate the straits the British will, as any plan of demilitarization and international control would, in time of war, when treaties are scraps of paper, simply make it easier for the strongest naval and air power in the Mediterranean to seize control of them.

2 DROWNED IN MOTORCAR

Four Others Escape When Closed Automobile Plunges Into River

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Nov. 15.—Mr. and Mrs. O. Schutrick, of Springtown, Ulster County, were drowned in the Hudson River at Poughkeepsie, yesterday night, when their closed car plunged from a dock. William S. P. Davidson, of New York City, looks the windows of the car and swam to shore with two young women, passengers with him in the tumbrel. Eugene Meyer, of New York, sixth occupant of the machine, was rescued by a dock policeman.

The car was parked near the edge of the dock, witnesses said, and Schutrick, the driver, apparently shifted to reverse through error when he attempted to start the car. The dock was in darkness, it was said, and it was several minutes before the plight of the party was learned. Mrs. Schutrick rose to the surface and cried for help, but sank, while rescue workers were aiding the others.

NO MAN AT THE THROTTLE

Express Travels More Than a Mile Without Engineer

St. Paul, Nov. 15.—More than 100 passengers on a Chicago Great Western express train speeding toward St. Paul Sunday night, yesterday learned they rode for more than a mile and a half without engineer or fireman in the locomotive.

When twenty-seven miles east of St. Paul an exploding steam pipe blew out part of the firebox and filled the cab with steam. The fireman was blown off the engine and the engineer, Fred T. Oliver, of St. Paul, after closing the throttle, crawled out on the ground. He failed to close the throttle tight, and the train traveled considerable distance before stopping from lack of steam.
