Shore Y. M. C. A. Convention Hears Report Advising Independence

EMPHASIZE BOYS' WORK

Atlantic City, Nov. 16.—While recommending ."adequate relationship," the commission on approach to the church urged absolute independence of ecclesiastical control in association work, in presenting its report today to the forty first triennial convention of the Young Men's Christian Associations of North America.

This was necessary, it was maintained, in order to carry out association work effectually. What is asked of the churches is that they heartly respond to requests of the association for counsel in determining objectives and in enlisting financial support.

In the work for boys, the report continues, the task of reaching the unchurched boys and educating them in Christian citizenship should be especially emphasized. There was a recommendation of a plan for association membership by church groups of boys as a solution of duplicated effort between churches and associations. By this means, it was declared, church feaders would keep direct connection with their own boys, and have the advantages of the Y. M. C. A. equipment which could hardly be carried on by churches.

ment which could hardly be carried on by churches.

A dramati c picture of present-day conditions in Saloniki, now thronged with Greek refugees, was made public yesterday at the convention.

The report was in the form of a letter from U. L. Amoss, director of the American Y. M. C. A. in Saloniki, who is acting as executive officer of the Anglo-American Relief Committee, and is also temporarily representing the American Red Cross and the Near East Relief.

In his letter, Mr. Amoss said:

"Dozens of children are being born every day under conditions that can only be described as appalling. No general epidemic has been signaled yet, With the coming of the rainy season, now here, and the consequent colder weather, respiratory diseases become weather, respiratory diseases become prominent.

"Drugs of all kinds are urgently needed. The ordinary public hospitals of the city are full. In the camps, impromptu hospitals have been founded on very modest lines, which cannot deal with even a small fraction of the sickness. Nurses and doctors are few. Practically all refugees are crawling with vermin."

F. Wayland Ayer, of Philadelphia, as chairman of the board of trustees of the association retirement fund, reported that the establishment of this $4,000,000 endowment fund, efforts for which began eleven years ago, has gone into effect. This provides a pension for the employed officers after the age of sixty. It is believed that this fund will raise the standard of the secretaryship, stabilize it as a profession and help to insure the preponderance of young men in the work in accordance with the name and aim of the organization.

CHURCH MERGER REJECTED BY UNITED EVANGELICALS

Will Continue as Separate Organization and Start Paper

Bethlehem, Pa., Nov. 16.—The special session of the East Pennsylvania Conference of the United Evangelical Church ended last night with a unanimous vote against merging with the Evangelical Association. The United the Evangelical Association. The United Evangelical Church will be continued and a church paper started.

The unionists headed by the Rev. Ammon E. Hangen, of Harrisburg, held a long closed session last night, and went over matters concerning the union movement. This special gathering was hurriedly got together and was in session until 11:30. About sixty-five delegates, evenly divided between ministerial and lay members, were present.

A committee was appointed to draw up a statement to be given out for publication later in the week. One of the ministers who attended the unionist session said this morning that the mergerites now have forty-three pastors on their side with every indication of others joining hands in the near future.

of others joining hands in the hear future.

There seems to have been a misunderstanding on the part of the antimergerites as to the purpose of the unionist meeting. It is known that the opponents of the merger were waiting for a report from the unionists as to the atfitude they wanted to assume relative to the report of the committee on state of church. The unionists, however, said they were not considering that report at all, but were discussing matters of immediate importance to the union movement, indicating that the union movement, indicating that compromise questions were not brought

Wanted Money to Aid in Getting Cleaner Government

Boston, Nov. 16.—Charles Ponzi, former promoter, was in the postal reply business, which was said to have netted him millions, because he desired to aid in bringing about clean government; both in Federal and State Administrations, he told J. Weston Allen, Attorney General, on July 26, 1920.

Ponzi's statement to the Attorney

Ponzi's statement to the Attorney General was read in evidence yesterday at his trial in State courts on larceny this trial in State courts on larceny charges. Ponzi also told the Attorney General that he had between $8,000,000 and $10,000,000 and did not care to continue his business.

"I am going to make Boston the largest importing and exporting center in the United States," his statement said. "I need the popularity. If I make 100 per cent, I will keep I per cent and spend 00 per cent in charitable work that will do good to all the people."

MISS ROBERTSON HOPEFUL

"No, I don't knew what I want to do, but the good Lord does, and He will direct me," said she. "I sold my cafe-teria businese, and, of course, it isn't so easy finding a job at sixty-nine, or setting back into the business world; but I have to work, and something suit-able will show up, I'm sure."
