

ARMY FOOTBALL STAR KILLED IN THIS CRASH. Lieutenant Edwin G. Shroder was instantly killed and Lieutenant Andrew March badly injured when this plane went into a nose dive at Logan Field. Both were members of Army Corps football team

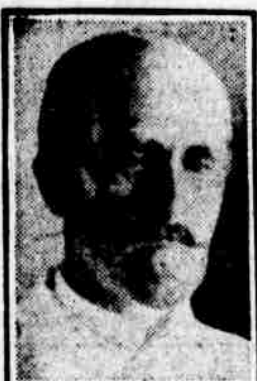

BIRD-WOMAN CARRIES BABY SHOE FOR LUCK. Miss Lillian Gatlin, first woman to make coast-to-coast flight with U. S. Air Mail

"STAGE-DOOR JOHNNIE" DOLL, the latest Parisian fad to reach this country, was brought over by Miss Betty Allen, a recent arrival on S. S. Majestic

DISMANTLING THE WOODEN FLEET of the U. S. Shipping Board at the Virginia Shipyards, Alexandria, Va. Six of the 280 ships are being dismantled at a time, employing 225 men

DR. R. B. MOORE winner of Howard N. Potts medal

MRS. SUSETTE KEAST and painting, "A Village Street," which captured first prize at Plastic Club exhibition

MISS HELEN NATHANSON, of Philadelphia, recently returned from Europe

TRIPPING THE LIGHT FANTASTIC TOE. Members of the Swedish Ballet rehearsing one of their dances for the Court Theatre, London, at the foot of the Peter Pan statue in Kensington Gardens, are believers in outdoor dancing

AT W. C. T. U. CONVENTION. Miss Maria Stenroth, of Finland, and Miss Agnes Slack, honorary secretary of World W. C. T. U., were among those present at yesterday's meeting

MRS. H. E. FARSTOCK, president of local W. C. T. U.

MRS. JAS. B. SCOTT, chairman W. C. T. U. Poster Committee

FRANCIS B. BIDDLE appointed Assistant U. S. Attorney

MRS. SUSETTE KEAST and painting, "A Village Street," which captured first prize at Plastic Club exhibition

MISS HELEN NATHANSON, of Philadelphia, recently returned from Europe

STRIKING COSTUME worn by Miss Heather Thatcher, who is playing London Winter Garden

SAYS "YES" IN SIX DIFFERENT LANGUAGES. "Micky," fourteen-month-old daughter of V. D. Ginsburger, shown above with mother and Chinese nurse, recent arrivals in America

SOPHS DEFEAT FRESHIES in pushball contest at University of Minnesota, thus gaining right to dictate to their younger sisters in matters of dress and deportment

MRS. RICHARD MANSFIELD, widow of world-famous actor, sails for Europe

SAID TO BE OLDEST LIVING TRIPLETS IN U. S. Mrs. Sarah Wilson, Newcastle, Ind.; Miss Mary Williams, Lebanon, Ohio, and Mrs. Jennie Richards, Danville, Ill., are seventy-six years old

SAID TO BE OLDEST LIVING TRIPLETS IN U. S. Mrs. Sarah Wilson, Newcastle, Ind.; Miss Mary Williams, Lebanon, Ohio, and Mrs. Jennie Richards, Danville, Ill., are seventy-six years old

SAID TO BE OLDEST LIVING TRIPLETS IN U. S. Mrs. Sarah Wilson, Newcastle, Ind.; Miss Mary Williams, Lebanon, Ohio, and Mrs. Jennie Richards, Danville, Ill., are seventy-six years old

ADMIRAL PHELPS, commander of American vessels in Chinese waters

URNS TONSORIAL ARTIST TO AID COLLEGE FUND. Miss Dorothy Tobias, Penn State co-ed, and a cash customer

AUSTRIAN TREASURY NOTES USED AS WRAPPING PAPER in a Swiss soap factory because it is cheaper, the novelty appeals to their customers

DEMONSTRATING HIS ABILITY to drive a tractor built by his father, Edsel Ford, son of Henry Ford, equipped on hot with "Doug" Fairbanks at Hollywood

WEARING HER GLASS HEADPIECE. Mile. Macis Napierkowska, the Russian dancer, who created a sensation in Paris recently with her remarkable costumes

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

A VIEW OF CHESTNUT STREET, looking west from Tenth, as it appeared in 1885, showing an antique horse car in stately progress over that thoroughfare. Contributed by E. Newell & Son, 255 South Sixth street. Send us your old Philadelphia photographs

CONGRESSMAN-ELECT ANDY GUMP and his wife, Min, snapped at recent football game at Northwestern University

UTILIZING WIND ITSELF TO DRIVE AGAINST IT is latest wrinkle from France. Propeller mounted on mast supplies sufficient over a light breeze