

SLAYER FREED BY JURY INCLUDING 4 NEGROES
 Killed Judge Anderson After Years of Abuse
 W. Va., Nov. 17.—(By A. S. W.)—Mrs. Alice Anderson, freed from a charge of murder, was receiving congratulations today on the verdict which gave her liberty.
 The Court listened yesterday to her story of years of mistreatment by her husband, who until his death was Judge Anderson.

of the Raleigh Criminal Court. Mrs. Anderson was tried before her husband's successor, Judge Haridan. The jury, which included four Negroes, deliberated only half an hour before announcing its decision as the hour of midnight rang out.
 The trial moved quickly from the time the drawing of the jury began late Tuesday afternoon. Only half a day was required for the State's testimony, and all evidence was completed yesterday afternoon. The case was put in the hands of the jury about 11:30 last night.
 Much of the defense testimony, including that of Mrs. Anderson, had to do with the frequent family quarrels and in rebuttal the State called Sheriff Blankenship to tell of two occasions when he was called to the Judge's home to restore order.

 There were no eye-witnesses to the shooting of Judge Anderson on the night of July 20, but the first people who rushed into the house at the sound of shots said Mrs. Anderson admitted she had fired them in self-defense.

RAH! RAH! RAH!
 A Goal for the Winning Point

The score is deadlocked! They are fighting grappling—tense! Time's flying! Crowds on both sides are going wild—wild with that something bred in humans that seems to call for lust, battle and victory. Then from behind a barrier of men there flies the ball—straight and true it goes between the posts. Victory! Bedlam is loose! He who kicked the ball is a hero on the shoulders of the mob—his team is the Victor!

Victor! Always in this game of life there is one person or thing that stands above all others in achievement—our bread for instance. This generous loaf is rightly named Victor Bread and rightly priced at

Will the Radicals Control the New Congress?

A Republican Congressional majority, so large as to be unwieldy, has been cut to a margin so small that in both Houses Republican legislation will be at the mercy of a handful of insurgents of doubtful party regularity.

While the Republicans sustained losses in the election, the Milwaukee Journal (Ind.) cannot see that the Democrats made any conclusive gains. Indeed, it is forced to conclude that if one looks for the real gains he finds them going to the radicals. The New York Sun notes that "Voters with radical sympathies have lined up with the radical candidates almost as generally as they might have if there had existed a great radical party. It has happened in the East and in the West. The radicalism that has come into evidence in this election exceeds sectional bounds. It has eaten into the very fiber of both the old parties."

Do not fail to read in THE LITERARY DIGEST this week the summary of opinion upon this very interesting development that has come out of the election. There are a host of other important news-features in THE DIGEST this week which will have more than an ordinary appeal. Among them are:
