CATHOLIC VS. HAVERHILL

By PAUL PREP

The Public High School League race has dwindled down to a battle between two teams—Frankford High and Germantown High. Therefore, as these two elevens are scheduled to clash Friday afternoon on the Northeast High Field the championship will be decided. The schedule makers, although apparently they did not realize it, booked the teams at the opportune time and inthe teams at the opportune time and in-terest runs high over the outcome of the fray.

of 'Menchy' Goldblatt. Goldie was injured after he had participated in a league game for six minutes against Germantown High.

Central and Northeast are at the bottom of the league. The latter has failed to win a game in four starts, and the Crimson and Gray just managed to score one victory.

Injuries hurt both teams' chances, Dr. O'Brien particularly having his worst year in this respect. He was never sure of his lineup for a game. A merry fight is being waged for the Catholic League crown. St. Joseph Prep leads the league with two victories and looks to be favorite, although Prep lends the lengue with two victories and looks to be favorite, although nothing will be definitely decided until it meets Catholic High in the Turkey Day game on Thanksgiving morning at the Phillies' Ball Park.

Catholic High received a setback Friday when it was held to a deadlock by Villanova Prep. Villanova Prep is still in the fight as the result of the tie, while Salesianum High, the new entry.

An intersectional clash of much im- season.

They have won three games and tied one. The deadlock was played with West Philadelphia High, each team scoring a touchdown and adding the extra point on the placement goals. Central High, Southern High and Northeast High fell before their prowess. This gives them a total of seven points.

Germantown has been defeated. Southern High, going at a hot pace earlier in the season, beat the Clivedens, 27 to 14. Since then West Philadelphia High and Northeast High have beaten Coach Miller's eleven.

West Philadelphia High was defeated by Germantown High, which furnished the surprise of the season. The Speedboys are now playing the best game of any team in the lengue.
