

GEORGES CLEMENCEAU ARRIVES IN AMERICA. France's great statesman and war hero in New York, shown above with George Wickersham, Frank L. Polk and Otto Kahn

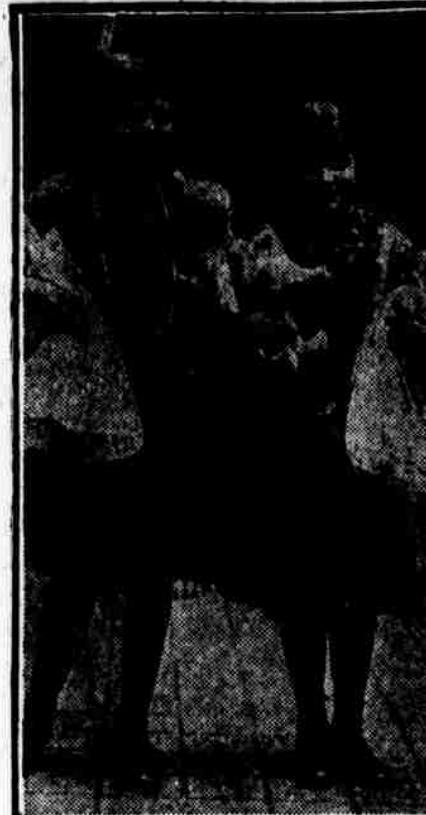

PRINCETON TIGERS TRIUMPH OVER YALE IN ANNUAL FOOTBALL CLASSIC. Crowd of more than 50,000 spectators witnessed the thrilling game at Princeton. The camera caught Ken Smith, of Princeton, kicking the field goal in the third period for the only points scored during the contest. This completed the football season for Coach Roper's team with a record of no defeat.

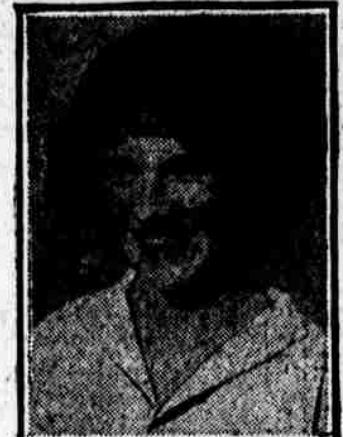

WATCHING HUBBY play football. Mrs. Alfred McCoy, wife of Penn State's right end, at Franklin Field

FAIR FARMERETTE BEING INITIATED by members of the Lambda Mu Gamma Sorority within shadow of Independence Hall. Miss Eleanor Lowther, the "victim," is shown on right

PHILADELPHIA girls send toys to Indians. Two little donors from the Church of the Covenant will gladden hearts of Uncle Sam's proteges

WILLIAM PENN HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNAE DRAMATICS. Ethel and Shirley Tevell, talented twins, appearing in cast of "Just a Minute, Please," at Academy of Music Tuesday and Wednesday

DR. H. ALEX. MATTHEWS talking of change in college course in Editorial Page

JUDGE ALSCHULER, of Chicago, new appointee on Federal Coal Commission

ADMIRAL MOFFET'S four-year-old daughter recruits for Red Cross

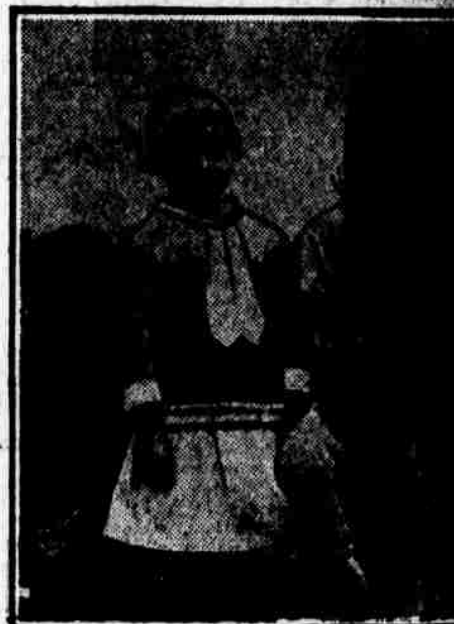

AN EXCITING MOMENT during the gridiron battle between Radnor and Lower Merion High Schools at Wayne. Lower Merion won its first victory over Radnor since 1918, scoring 3 to 0 in the closely contested clash between these Main Line rivals

A BIT OF ACTION during the Lafayette-Haverford soccer game. Lafayette won with a score of 2 to 1

INNOCENTS ABROAD CARED FOR BY THE NEAR EAST RELIEF. These little girls were found wandering the streets of Karakil in rags. On the right the children appear comfortably clad through the charitable work of the organization

AUG. T. SEYMOUR, of Ohio, recently made Assistant United States Attorney General

A REAL FOOTBALL HOUND. This mascot of the Washington Central High School soccer team can play the game

MRS. MINA VAN WINKLE, Washington Police Dept., to visit Europe

MISS IKOKO SENO, noted Japanese song writer, coming to United States

THESE KIDDIES WOULD LIKE TO DO THEIR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING EARLY. Their eyes are riveted on the doll display in a show window in the busy shopping district

MISS HELENE HAMILTON, daughter of Bishop Hamilton, announces engagement

NOBEL PRIZE WINNERS. Prof. Fredrick Soddy, of Oxford, and Dr. William Francon Aston, recipients of Chemistry awards

MISS HENRIETTA EDWINA MILLET wins Alpha Phi Beta Masque prize

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

AUTOMOBILES WERE UNKNOWN WHEN THIS PICTURE WAS MADE. This is how Chestnut street appeared in 1863 looking east from Sixteenth street. Contributed by R. Newell & Son, 222 Chestnut street. Please send us your old Philadelphia photographs

PHILADELPHIA BOY SCOUTS TAKE HONORS FROM RIVAL CITY TROOPS. More than seven hundred boys participated in interesting contests staged at City Hall Plaza, showing varied activities of their organizations. On the left a group of scouts is engaged in a wood-chopping contest. The difficult art of making fire by friction is pictured on the right. The event was witnessed by a large number of appreciative spectators.

JACKIE COOGAN STAYS in French capital