

THE ENTHUSIASTIC WELCOME accorded Georges Clemenceau upon his arrival in New York presented a scene similar to the one on Armistice Day four years ago. The automobile bearing France's great statesman was showered by confetti and tape from office building windows

IRELAND IS STILL IN A TURMOIL. Above is pictured Irish Free State troops with captured member of the Insurgents taken during recent attack against Regulars while parading in front of Wellington Barracks, Dublin

THE TIGER AND THE ROSE. Unusual picture of Georges Clemenceau enjoying perfume of American Beauty rose preferred by admirer upon war hero's arrival

OUT FOR THE ALL-PHILADELPHIA TEAM. The camera caught some action during the trial matches at St. Martins yesterday between members of the All-Club

SCRIMMAGE AT ST. MARTINS during elimination game between girls of the All-School team. There are some excellent players among them, but they will have to hold a speedy pace to displace stars who fought against the British invaders last fall to qualify for All-Philadelphia team

SPRUNGING UP SMOKESTACK OF S. S. MAJESTIC. Painters putting new coat on giant liner which went into drydock at Boston recently for overhauling

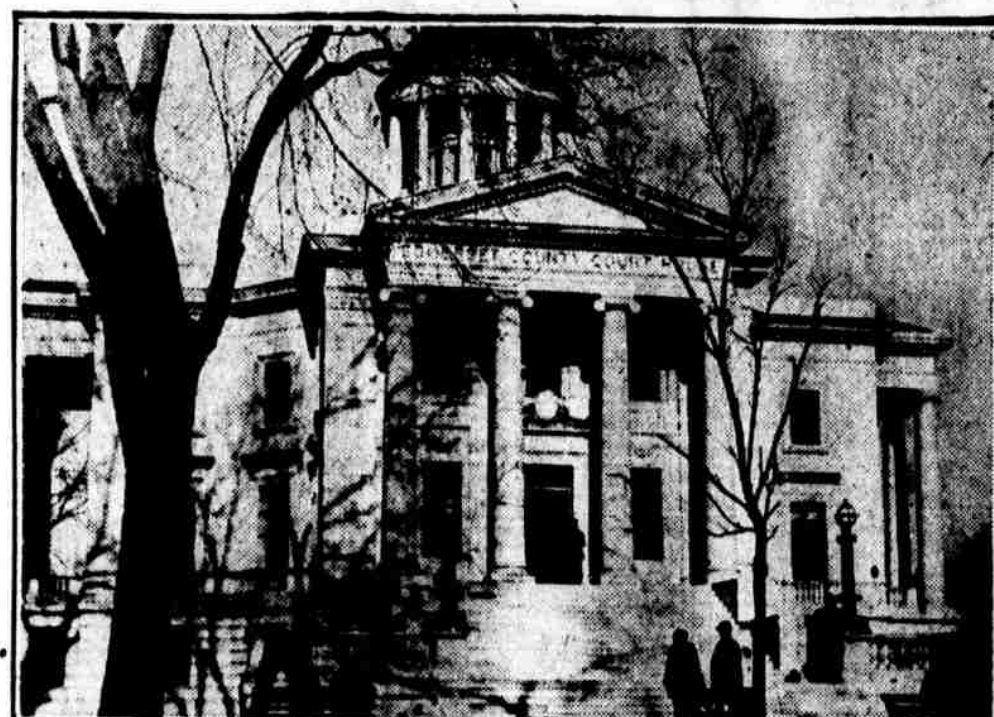

MRS. HENRY CLEWS, JR., former Philadelphian, arrives from Europe to spend the holidays in America

MISS FANNY COX WEIGHTMAN, honor guest at Ritz-Carlton tea

THE OPENING OF WHAT IS LIKELY to be one of the most celebrated cases in New Jersey criminal jurisprudence began with secrecy and simplicity when the Grand Jury met to investigate the Hall-Mills murder mystery yesterday in Somerville Courthouse, pictured above, a small but beautiful example of classical architecture. District Attorney A. M. Beckman and Special Prosecutor Wilbur A. Mott, in charge of the case, are shown on the left and right, respectively

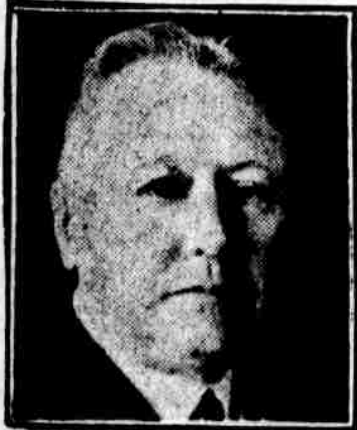

EDWARD MANNING, 79 years old, hiked 86 miles to see sons

MME. CLAUDIA MUZIO, operatic soprano prima donna arrived from abroad

REAR ADMIRAL JOSEPH STRAUSS, to head new Navy Department Wage Board

DR. J. R. McDILL, recently appointed General Medical Consultant to Director of U. S. Veterans' Bureau

Col. Albert C. Dalton, assistant to Quartermaster General
John W. Davis, possible presidential choice Supreme Court

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

THE HEART OF THE FINANCIAL AND BANKING DISTRICT IN 1886. A view of Chestnut street looking west from Fourth as it appeared in the days of horse cars. Please send us your old Philadelphia photographs

DELEGATES to Central American States Conference. Senor Don Francisco Sanchez Latour and Senor Don Marcial Prem

AIDS CHARITY BAZAAR. Miss Eleanor Wurtz is one of the workers at Ritz-Carlton Bazaar to benefit Russian refugees

AMONG THOSE WORKING at charity bazaar in aid of Russian refugees are Mrs. Francis Biddle and Miss Katherine Hutchinson

A HAPPY GROUP OF LITTLE DANCERS. Kiddies of Star Garden Recreation Center are receiving instruction in folk dancing

AT POLICE SURGEONS' CONVENTION. Daniel Denovan, of New York, and Dr. H. Owens, of Philadelphia, were among those present