EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, WEDNERDAY, NOVEMBER 22

low Sanity and Kindness Help Please Tell Me When the Other Girl Comes on the Scene

By WINNIFRED HARPER COOLEY

By MRS. M. A. WILSON Comright. 1993. by Mrs. M. A. Wilson. A.

By WINNIFRED HARPER COOLEY
TRIAM had a terrible shock a few months ago.
The had been so
Any one half so any balf below.
The was homeir any one half so any one half so any one half so any one half so any balf below thread so any sole and below thread sole there any half below thread sole the half below.
The was half below thread sole the the sole the balf below thread the filted person histen to read any sole and the filted person histen to read by which the sole and the filted person histen to read any sole and the filted person histen to read by which do you te

The many ways, he was a stranger to be, and their and their actived for them even to consider the their active was not of long duration, but she trusted her jalagener. They were very, very happy.

Taffy and Popcorn Balls Are All Mouth-Melting

Three indicapoons of butter.

One tablespoon of rinegal. Cook to 262 degrees Fahrenheit.

By CYNTHIA

What to Do

Huge combs make up for the simplicity of hairdressing this season.

One of tortoise shell stands out at the side of the head. Another, of ivory,

> carved. is tall enough

to be seen above

the crown of the head.

Advice to Nita-Natel, 2d
Advice to Nita-Natel, 2d
Mer vanity too much. The sector di uarrele, and uarrele, but is much with him that she agreed that they have the other is not the blac." the other is much with him that she agreed that they have the other is not the blac." the other is much with him that she agreed that they have the other is not the blac. They were very, very happy.
They not the blac." the other is the other is not the other is not the other is not the blac. The

HEZEKIAH.

Mrs. Wilson Knows of Delicious Kinds Asks Sparrow What Excuse He Has

Dear Cynthia—Aithough I have been a constant reader of your column for some time. I have never written in answer to any of your correspondenta, though they have afforded me much In Addition to New Kinds of Fudge. Delicately Flavored Paste. . though they amusement.

though they have afforded me much amusement. So dear Cynthia, kindly let me make my debut by answering "Sparrow." A raally think the best policy is to completely ignore any one showing the lack of principle and manihess which "Sparrow" displays. But he is probably one of those modern "wits" who are try-ing to get the proverbial "goat" of all who may chance to read your column. But, on the other hand, if he is seriously speaking, he had better stick to his slogan, burrowed from a man-(Columbus) who would be ashamed to storp to the tricks he employs, and "keep right on sating." but out of the country. Hecating has no room for his type of man.

HOME-MADE candy is ever popular, in whichever community one may happen to be, and so lately I have been in thering candy recipes. Each recipe has been tried out, and if you encefully callow directions to your hands well with salad oil and take handfuls of the noncorn baking pan about one inch thick, and pat down well; then pour over the sirup, and when cold cut with the bistype of man. ably the little "pal" he speaks of has been led by him to believe cuit cutter that has been rubbed libthat he Therefore her desire to cures for

Bir to blend the gelatin in the fruit fuices and let stand for fifteen minutes. Now place the saucepan with the sugar the salt in the butter will help keep the eandy in the pan.

.Te

Can You Tell?

By R. J. and A. W. Bedmer

When the First Police Were Appointed

LOVE NOTS BY KAY KEAN

The Browing of Trouble

Trouble is the rock upon which ma-

Trouble is the rock upon which matrimony splits.
A woman's idea of trouble is something to run attor; a man's is something to run attor; a man's is something to run attor; a man's are defective.
A woman's troubles are collective is a man's are defective.
A woman makes a little thing into a big thing.
Trouble is omnipresent. If you look for it you are sure to find it, yet, when in the velvet hat.
Alas, rouble is lite marriage! Note that sure is the solution of the solution of the solution.
Alas, rouble is lite marriage! Note the solution of the solution of the solution.
Alas, rouble is lite marriage! Note the solution of the solution of the solution.
Alas, rouble is lite marriage! Note the solution.
Alas, rou

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—I am a girl of nineteen, and, like most all girls, have bobbed hair, but now as this fad seems to have been abolished. I am guite undecided as to what to do. My hair is not long enough to put up, and still not short chough to wear bobbed. Will you kindly tell me whether I should bob it again, as I have heard that bobbed hair is coming back and am undecided?

WAVY HAIR. Bobbed hair is going out of style to the extent that older girls are not having their long hair bobbed now. But girls who already have it bobbed are continuing to wear it that way. Why don't you let your hair grow long enough to be pulled back into a knot? Try it that way for a while, and then if you don't like it have it trimmed short again. The style is what is be-coming to you now, not what everybody elso is wearing.

Charley Tyne, not because she loves him, but because they seem so well suited to each other. But Alme in-sists upon being free, and, secure in her ability to hold Charley, she en-courages a firitation between Mason Long, a writer, and herself. When Charley breaks the engagement and is seen about with Mabel Collins after-ward, Aline's pride suffers a terrible blow, but she tries hard to play the game.

"Yes we do," said Gloves. "We don't have grammar, but we have transla-tion-oh, take your hats off, there goes the curtain!" corrulaT'S just the first," said the

Three Little Girls From, School

Had a Beautiful Time at a Play

They Thrilled Over the Man, Thought the Girl Was "Adar.

I experienced Red and Blue. "The

THE silence of awed delight as the comedy swung into its stride. Charmed giggles as the fun went over the footlights and up to the sec-ond row of the balcony, where three little school girls sat entranced by the sights and sounds on the stage. Rustlings and whisperings occasionally as they shifted about exchanging delighted nudgings and thrills.

Enthusiastic clapping as the curtain Ask Your

THE rustle of paper parting rele

The Reckless Age

By HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR

Aline Poster, a member of the gay

counger set, becomes engaged to Charley Tyne, not because she loves

The Truth Revealed

A LINE'S first waking thought on the

A morning after the Rutherford dance

0

Place in saucepan

medium-size orange.

One and one-half cups of sugar.

Three-quarters cup of water. and stand zside for filteen minutes. Place in small bowl, the fuice of one

Juice of one-half lemon, Two tablespoons and one teaspoon of latin.

Two cups of brown sugar Sis tablespoors of butter. One-quarter teaspoon of crean of tartar. Sis tablespoons of evaporated mild,

Stir to blend and cook until the mix-fore registers 262 degrees Fahrenheit on the candy thermometer, or becomes brittle when tried in cold water. Rub oblong baking pan well with salad off and cover the bottom with shelled wal-buts. Then pour over the strup. Mark in blocks as it cools quickly

Cream Nut Fudge

Place in saucepan Two and one-half cups of sugar One cup of evaporated milk. One-quarter tempoon of crease of Three-quarters cap of sirup. Cook mixture to 252 degrees Fahren-holt, using the candy thermometer, or until it forms a very firm ball when tried in cold water. Remove from the stove and add

Three heaping spoonfuls of march-

Mallow whip, One cup of finely chopped nuts, Two tecepoons of canilla.

Stir just long enough to blend in the marshmallow and then pour in wellelled pan, cool and mark into squares.

Old-Fashioned Peanut Brittle Rub a baking sheet well with snlad of and then cover thickly with shelled casted peanuts. Place in saucepan

Two cups of sugar. One and one-half cups of corn tirup. One tablespoon of tinegar. Three tablespoons of butter.

Blend and bring to boiling point mode to 280 degrees on the candy ther-mometer, or until the test is brittle when tried in cold water. Pour over the nuts in the prepared pan having the dy only sufficiently thick to just sandy only sufficiently berely cover the nuts.

Uncooked Cream Fudge

Place in the mixing bowl White of one eyg. Four tablespoons of coid water. Sis tablespoons of butter. One tenepoon of canille. One-half cup of cocos.

Begin and beat slowly, adding just conficient XXXX sugar to make a stiff dough that can be handled like biscuit dough, turn on a pastry board that has been dusted with the confectioners' sugar and pat out into an oblong about one inch thick. Cut with knife into carmel or fudge-shape pieces. Place on wax paper and the candy is ready to une. Nuts, raisins and candied fruits may be minced fine and candied fruits fare you shape it on the molding board. To make a creamy white further o make a creamy white fudge just nit the cocca and follow the instruc-ons carefully and you will have a de-Belous candy that is well worth trying.

Popcorn Balls

Rub a deep baking pan well with ad all and place a layer of popped he pan about two menes thick. saucepan

and half

steady reader of your column, and hope you will print these few lines to "spar-row" as I do not agree with him. "Sparrow," you say that you never have a hard time to get a kiss from any gri. Well, I have this to say to you; I am a young fellow, and am engaged to a girl and went while her for a year before T became engaged to her, and was at her became engaged to her, and week, and hever yiss side to get a size from her. This girl is what I would call come. week and here 'as the to get a kine from her. This girl is what I would call roung, and has a very critics mind at at kissing, and I am trankful today that she would rever above me to kiss hor until I was engaged to her. My opinion of a kiss this is bailes sho told me some things which she believes about a kiss is, it is a bond which a fellow or girl should never have until they become engaged, unces it is on a part, which is different. Now, "Sparrow" if you will take my advice, get a girl who is sensible and has a feeling that a kiss is a bond, and take her mivice about it. You may not like this, if you are used to getting a kies whenever you care to have one, but in time you will

a) by getting a kies whenever is have one, but in time your is to have a feeling that a straight get from a girl you really different from one you get from one you get from one you get from one you, but try is and ear what you, but try is and ear what you think about the bat I wight that I would be the to and the straight get the bat I would be the to and the straight get the bat I would be the to and the straight get the st d noticeman but thieves and marauda peai ers could easily follow their pursuits without fear of detection, for they had wish that I could man hiv to avoid the watchman with his I wish that I could meet i you some things that I make you charge but you take one girl out and r one gome other takin and -night kies you will recer may be wrong, but i think inntert.

in not just a thing i then forgotten about that you had a duil time at chuse the girl you had taken introduce the Kirl you had taken ind not allow you to make by a while there were other people around it, you just tell that girl for me that y, and she will never be sorry. There it be plenty of fellows for her to pick on when she is ready. "Sparrow." I thought I loved this girl fore she ever let me kiss her. But before she ever let me kiss her. But now I would do anything for her, he-cause I know down in my least that if love her, because she has taught he the meaning of a real kiss, which I hope you will have some day when you wish to be married. This is rather long. I it i would write

MARCIA has a test at the back step of her apartment, so the trades. people will not trach in so much dust from the outside, but it is just like Mrs. Next Door's and they have quite a time to identify them when they are handing together in the sard getting aired. So I told Marsha that for three dollars she could buy a rubber mat, heavy and durable, with her name mat, heavy and durable, with her manne on it in rubber letters. These mathers are made to order tool can have any name on them for hour an hourd winh, be it for home or the store.

If you want to be truly distinctive and go to the shop selling a scar and have the only one in Philadelphin and go to the shop selling a scar and have to come fushion either to match. All the way from Russian this has come fashioned of tag.
The ends of the scart are hand-painted with black tighted the duvely, soft the bar the scart are hand-painted with black tighted the duvely, soft the bar the scart are hand-painted to the scart are hand-painted the scart are hand-painted to the scart are hand-paint to the bar the proper summer to the scart are hand-paint to the scart are hand-painted to the scart are hand-paint to the scart are hand paint to This material, so popular in Paris, is charming as an interesting little suit with a cape across the back that is there to stay, no matter what the season or what the style. And it is so much a part of the back of the cost that it won't be out of style in case capes really do carry out their dreadful threat and leave. The fur is arranged in eriginal fashion around the edge of the jacket that had swept over her when Mason Long's srms had closed about her, she before we had policemen, every cit-lized was supposed to act promptly as a constable upon witnessing a crime. Accient or disaster. All citizens were supposed to take their regular to were tomo From?

accluent or disaster. All citizens were succluent or disaster. All citizens were watch duty. In those carly days, be-fore the police force protected the peo-the by day and night, the citizens de-the by day and night of the citizens de-the day and night of the citizens de-the by day and night of the citizens de-the day and day and the citizens de-the day and d ple he day and night, the citizens de-veloued the idea of hiring some one to do their watching for them, and that is how the private watchman came into heiny. He was paid by contributions from those whom he was supposed to pratect. He made his rounds at night arrying a lancern and a rattle, and at pecular intervals called out the time, polowed by a description of the wanner and other items of news of news of news and her more than just casually. At the thought Aline was suddenly coninterest, which he learned or observed in his rounds. He was really a kind

Tomorrow --- Where Does Macaroni

the thought Aline was suddenly con-scious of her burning checks and fast beating heart, and in order to escape from her own emotions she leaped suddenly out of bed. But she couldn't escape her thoughts, They followed her into her bath and were still with her when she wrapped heraelf in a wadded slik dressing gown and sat down before her dressing table Mason Long! whispered her heart.

Save the China A piece of rubber hose, about one and mee-inlf inches long placed over the nozzie of the water faucets in the kitchen sink will prevent dishes from breaking or chipping from a chance bump against a faucet.—Dellneator. suddenly occurred to her a remark inade by one of the girls when several of them had lunched together in town not long ego. They had been talking about love, and suddenly one of them had said lightly: "Here's a rest. If you had one hour

"Here's a test. If you had one hour to live, with what man would you choose to spend it?"

choose to spend it?" At the time it had not meant much to Aline. She had laughed with the rest and stored it away in her sub-conscious mind, but now the entire conversation had come back to her, and quite suddenly she caught her breath. "If I love him, I love him enough for that!" she thought, and was amazed to find herself trembling. Abruptly she turned away from her reflection in the mirror as though afraid to meet her own eyes. This sudden revelation was strangely terrifying and, because she had always scoffed at emobecause she had always scoffed at emobecause she had hiwlys scoled at end-tion as something weak, she was not prepared to meet this tumultuous thing that had so suddenly taken possession of her. She found herself in the grip of something stronger than her own will, something big enough to level pride, and she was afraid. "Play with fire, but don't burn yourself," had been her slogan, but of what use to remember that now when it was too late?

Tomorrow-Aline's Mistake

Women's Work

Miss Annie Jowett, business mannger of a large Chicago cafeteria, is in charge of the campaign undertaken by the National Restaurant Association to direct the attention of trained and edu-cated women to the restaurant busi-ness as a profitable and otherwise de-sirable profession.

WHAT'S WHAT By Helen Decie even more to you. "HAPPY PELLOW. Adventures With a Purse

