Santa's Bag Is Brimful—Now Is the Time to See the Gift Things

That Old Soldier Hobbling Along With a Wooden Leg

living on half pay and unable to do hard work, would not exchange the honor he earned in fighting under the American flag were a place offered him in the President's Cabinet.

What is success but to make sacrifices? To gain esteem by doing difficult things and refusing riches and honor offered at the expense of cowardice and discarded principles. Go out of your way to pay respect to the soldiers who brought back scars.

Beautiful Coats of Black Caracul Fur, $225 to $1250

MARACUL in its finer phases is as glossy as satin, and so supple that it has the grace and flexibility of velvet. Many coats of this flat and silky "moire" caracul are num-the Fur Salon. In lower-priced models the fur is thicker and shaggier, but selected and beautifully worked bered in the large collection in

A smart little sacque coat of black caracul is priced $225.

Finer Apron Sets

for Maids

Each set includes an apron, a collar and a pair of cuffs, and all are exceedingly dainty. Sets of organdic with points for frimming, $3.25. Of roos-bar with embroidery, $2.50. Of lawn with fine embroidery, $4.85

Prench organdle with beading,

Fanciful sets with borders, collars and cuffs of lace and black satin belts are priced $15.50.

(Third Floor)

A handsome 50-inch coat reaching to ankles, with collar, cuffs and skirt-bandings of lynx, Retween the two are many models, in short, three-quarter and full lengths, trimmed with fox, squirrel, lynx, fitch, skunk, kolinsky and other furs. The long coats are priced from $475

No fur is more fashionable, and no season has developed more interesting variety in its

A New Table Silver in French Renaissance Style

STERLING silver with A the richest ornamentation is fittingly named Francis I after the French king who did so much for art and letters.

There is a handsome mahogany chest of Francis I silver which contains 168 pieces, everything that the most exacting hostess needs. The chest complete is priced $598. Such a wonderful Christmas gift for a bride-to-be!

But, if that is not possible, a collection of silver might be started this Christmas with a dozen knives, forks or spoons in this beautiful Francis I silver. (Main Floor)

Young Women's Smart Sports Coats of English Fabrics, $48 to $75

Not only English materials, but | made by an internationally famous coat-maker, whose label in the collar is surety of both quality and

He brings over the identical tweeds and soft, colorful home-spuns used in his best London coats, and makes them up in New York over his London models.

Young women could not have anything more "swagger" or cozier to snuggle into at the games, or for any other outdoor occasion. Half a dozen models, all big, loose, easy-fitting, boyish and com-fertable to the last degree. All beautifully tailored. Priced $48, $57.50, $65 and $75. In sizes 14 to 20.

New Books "A Life Unveiled," by a Child of the Drumlins, introduction by John Burroughs; price $2. A nature study of child, girl and young woman written with the power of a novelist.

"Under Four Administrations," by Oscar S. Straus; $4. An inspiring record of public service.

'Indiscretions' of Lady Susan," by Lady Susan Townley; $5. Being the personal recollections of a diplomat's wife who has known the world from Washington to Pekin. (Main Floor) .

Fittings for Her Dressing Table

Young girls especially will like the novel toilet pieces of white-on-amber effect. From $1.25 for a manicure article to $12 for the Shell-on-amber effect is another novelty. From $1.35 for a small article to $14 for the mirror. Just as pretty as either are the all-amber effects, from $1.25 to $12. All the pieces are attractively designed and are sold either sepa-rately or by the set.

(Main Floor)

Nobody but the English Make Such Sewing Baskets That is why we send there every year for baskets to be given at Christmas time.

They are good, strong wicker with colored leather tops, beauti-fully lined and fitted with the necessities for sewing. All the fittings are excellent quality. Prices from $10 to $50. (Main Floor)

Carnelian Ornaments From the Orient

Recently arrived are some charming earrings, little carved oblongs, pure in color, price $42.50. Other earrings run from $18.50 for some of yellow tone to $90 for a wonderfully dark pair with pearls. Pendants run from small ones daintily carved, at $8.50, to unmounted ones at $45.

Girdles of carnelian circles on knotted cords, $125 and $150. A string of beads, clear and well matched, $50.

pieces in velvets and mohairs.

The Right

Overcoats

for Real Boys

Are Right Here

For boys of 3 to 10 years at $22.50 to $32 and for boys of 11 to 18 at $16.50

Fabrics, colors, patterns, styles and tailoring the best we have ever seen, the best to be found anywhere.

(Third Floor)

Certain Men Like

Sheer Handkerchiefs

With them a favorite is a nice Irish linen handkerchief with a tape border and hand-embroidered initial at $1 each, or $11 a dozen.

It is particularly good for Christ-mas giving on account of its finer than usual quality.

(Main Floor)

The Openwork Clock

Denotes the Stocking

of the Moment

another thing with her more fluttering attires, or for the street,

But it need not be a high-priced stocking, for it is in a new group at $1.75, as well as in the finer kinds. Silk in the chiffon weight with the open French clocks.

In black, white and shoe colors,

Made serviceable with liste tops and (West Alsle)

Madame will hardly adhere to to $35.

either.

with good springs, cord and webbing.

25 per cent less.

(Main Floor)

Quiet Dignity Gives That Mannish Air to the New Dinner Coat

T IS a London Shop creation embodying the best in several of London's most fashionable coats, refined and improved here and there where American tastes differ. Nowhere else will such a coat be found.

It is smart, almost animated with the swing and youth of the lines. Yet it is without furbelows, without extremities. A coat that speaks for the best, the cultured side of In plain black or the indistinct herringbone with silk-faced lapels and silk lined.

The coat and trousers are priced $65.

Vests that fashion prefers for the dinner attire-black silk, plain or fancy, $10 to $20.

Women's

French Suede and Duplex Lisle

Gloves at Small Cost

The little price of $1 and $1.15 a pair for Winter-weight duplex lisle gloves that are always half as much again.

Imported, and not only the fine foreign chamois finish, but the prettiest shades of ecru, gray, beaver, being fawn and white.

beaver, beige, fawn and white, The gloves at $1 are two-clasp; at $1.15, the strap-wrist style with five-inch tops. Both half pique

Even better are the French lamb sueds gloves at $1.45—worth a third more.

Two clasp, full pique sewn, and in black, ecru, beaver, gray and beige. (West Alsle)

New "Spanish" Mantillas From China

They are big and square with long silk fringe. They fold diagonally and are worn with one end thrown over the shoulder in Spanish fashion.

Every particle of the embroidery is hand done, black on white silk, black on jade silk, all white, or white done in colors.

Priced $37.50 to $100. (Main Floor)

Women's Prettiest $100 Coats Are

Beaver Trimmed

narrow belt.

A Chickering Piano 92 Years Old

Has Just Come to the Piano Salons'

T IS numbered 858, and was sold by the house of Chickering, in Boston, in 1830—nearly a century ago.

It is an upright of black ebonized wood, much decorated with gilt metal work, in a style amusing to this generation.

famous old Chickering piano with which Jenny Lind made her triumphal progress through the United States.

straight and strong, and there's music of a sort to be got out of its old ivories and strings yet.

Chickering

in every modern form of upright, small and large grand, now grouped in the Piano Salons!

From fine upright Chickerings at $875, and "baby" grand Chickerings at $1225 up to the Chickering-Ampico grand at $3500-this last the very topmost achievement of piano development-every modern type of this world-famous piano will be found on our floors.

We are proud to be the sole Philadelphia distributors of Chickering pianos, which are equaled by few and surpassed by none.

It is an older type by twenty years than even the Decrepit? Far from it. It still stands up

What a far cry from this curious old instrument

Bianos

(Egyptian Hall, Second Floor)

Box After Box of Cape Colony Wool-Blankets Coming In-$10

But never a box too many for | best and most lasting construc-

Never have any blankets won such a wide popularity so quickly before.

to the new

And they have won it on merit. Woven warp and filling of long. strong, serviceable Cape Colony wool on the 50-50 principle, the One weighs almost as much as a pair of ordinary blankets, but costs much less.

Sold in Philadelphia at Wanamaker's only, size 72x84 inches, in a choice of plain colors as well as in plaids, all handsomely bound. $10 is the lowest for which they are sold anywhere. (Sixth Floor) cially for knives of stainless steel are simple of operation, $6.

and $2. Each has four attachenion is chopped! These choppers keep the onion under a glass bell during the chopping. 75c, sizes, 28c to $4.25. Soto of individual molds with fluted edges, 60e for twelve, Mayonnales mixing bowls eway with the risk of fallure. The oil and vinegar are mixed with the ogg drop by drop. $1.65 to $2.95.

Nuts for Christmas and Thanksgiving cookies can be grated in slover little graters that sell at soc and 650.

The Toy Store Extra had the news some hours ago. There's the Delaware, calmly flowing underneath, and the ferries plying from shore to shore! It's a splendid bridge.

Even the background and the approaches on both sides are complete and the bridge is lit up, too.

Almost every one will be interested in seeing it, yet it is only one of the interesting points of this year's Toy Store that is so full of toys that are honestly well worth buying, as well as seeing.

It pays to buy toys that last, toys that will give pleasure long after Christmas, toys that are the best to be had. (Seventh Floor)

For three-piece suits, comprising davenport, winged chair the oil, and a piece of burning and armchair, prices start at $175 and range up to $775. rag the wick. Single pieces in wonderful variety at $30 to $75.

Fruit Cakes if you want them really good by Christmas.
Pans of tin have removable bottoms that come out when the

Time to Bake

Upholstered Furniture in Fine Assortment

at 25 Per Cent Less a large choice of three-piece suits, mostly the overstuffed type, in tapestry coverings, with a smaller selection of suits and

A special disposal of several hundred pieces, including

All of it has been taken from the regular stock and marked

All pieces have hair stuffing and are soundly constructed

There is an especially good choice of suits in tapestry at the moderate prices that meet the needs of so many homes.

(Fifth Floor)

cake is turned out. Nine, ten and eleven inch sizes at $1.30, $1.40 and $1.50, respectively.

(Fourth Floor)

Chinese Coral Pendants

Inexpensive and pretty, may be seen in the Oriental Store at $1.50 and $2.50, the first price for little drops and the second for the drops with kingfisher designs of butterflies, bats and so on above them.
(Main Floor)

The little lamp hung from a nail or chairback, or sometimes from a wooden ratchet. One of the old wood ratchet "chandeliers"-from the late Governor Pennypacker's collection -is shown with the lamps. Roman oil lamps of brass,

The Light of

Other Days

must have been a melancholy thing, to judge by some funny little "betty-lamps" or "fat-

They were the first form of lamp used in America. Fat was lamps" now in Antiques.

with clinking paraphernalia of snuffers, cleaners, etc., suspended from the slender standards, are priced $25.

Interesting old Colonial and Russian brass candlesticks also suggest themselves for gifts; and some quaint "Paul Revere" lanterns.

(Fifth Floor)

Men Have Found Scotch Grain Oxfords to Be the Safest Kind ruggedness of the highlands seems to be in the leather from Scot-

It is bigger than weather, bigger than the knocks and bumps of day-in-day-out wear. Therefore it is very much of an

Some of the sturdiness and event when well-made shoes of such leather can be had for $9 the Dair.

Oxfords of the blucher type, following the lines of the brogue, but perfectly plain except for a few tiny perforations on the tips. In tan only.

Silk and Wool Neckties Have Joined the Dollar Group

Pretty ties in neat, clean-cut stripes something about the size of hairlines-but that's neither here nor there; silk and wool ties are new, they are fashionable and men want them.

Of course, there are any number of other kinds that are fashionable, too, at the same price.

1000 Pieces of Gold-Encrusted Glass Inviting You to the

Gracious Warmth of the Chimney Corner

The Chimney Corner is a delightful place where are gathered all the charming things that make a fireplace the heart of the house.

Here are shining andirons of brass and dull ones of black iron -scores of different sizes and styles to harmonize with differ-English settee fenders, up-holstered with leather, lend an old-world charm. Among other interesting things are:

-pierced Colonial brass fenders:
-pierced black fenders with shining brass tops;
-black coal hods rimmed with bright brass;
-wood boxes covered with brass in raised designs;
-brass tousting forks and May Flower fire lighters;
-driftwood powder to give color to the flames;
-old-fushioned canvas or straw
wood carriers.

wood carriers

Then there are such useful things as electric or gas logs, coal grates, hearth brushes and fire sets, bellows, log rollers and log burners. All sound and moderately priced.

(Fourth Floor)

Just Opened, $3 a Piece A brilliant new collection of probably the most popular pieces in the whole sparkling realm of glassware. Made of fine crystal with a wide encrusted gold band.

The price, $3 a piece, is much less than regular.

There are candy boxes, sandwich trays, cheese and cracker dishes, vases, jugs, salad bowls, compotes, fruit bowls; splendid gifts at worth-while savings.

Also about 500 new pieces of silver-encrusted glass with an additional light cutting in silver-gray finish and comprising the same items as the gold-encrusted group, but priced $3.75

(Pourth Floor)

Imported Porcelain

and Pottery Lamps From England, China, Japan and France; in blue, exblood, coral, green, yellow, brick red, mirror black, powder blue. They are equipped with one and two lights; mounted in burnished brass, and priced $8 to $75. Shades that could well be used with them, $5.50 to $140.

Thermometers

might almost be regarded as coal savers when properly used -one in each room from cellar

Ever so many kinds in the Optical Goods Store, 50c to $10. (Mala Gallery)

the woman who likes her dresses to be as useful as possibleblack, brown and navy. (First Floor)

the faceted beads with roundels of ERE are some of the different models one may choose f heavy self-braiding. One with corsage beaded and Another having a matelasse conf estening clant-wise with a duve-In skirt.

Sixth is a heavy fancy crops iade up in tailored fashion, They are in the three colors which are held in fast favor by

Women's Afternoon Dresses, Special at $38.50

One of creps de chine with its Beguiling New Hats forsage of matelasse and its girdle

One with the bending kept protty lesely to electes and girdle.

Fifth is a dress altogether of the atelasse trimmed with fur.

are hats and caps a trifle more sedate but none the less new throat, or it may be worn open. Opinion is about evenly divided as to which of the two styles is the more beautiful. One has the wide armhole with large cuffs.

Made of the softest and warmest bolivia coating, with a deep silky pile. The beaver collar is large and fastens up snugly to the

One Pair of High Shoes Every Woman Needs A well-made conservative shoe in smooth black or tan calfskin, high-laced, welt-soled, medium-toed, with long wing tip and military heel, cannot be excelled for $12 a

She may cling to oxfords and spats for normal weather, but days are bound to come when it will be much more comfortable to slip rubhers on over a smart pair of high

White and Black Jewelry—Inexpensive Imitation rock crystal necklaces, mitation jet, priced $3.50 to $10. They are much liked with black (Main Floor) for Small Children FRENCH as they look, all were made here. But many are copies of Paris hats.

For tiny baby girls and boys from one to three are little onnet and poke shapes, some with ruffles and roses, others with bands of fur or fur tails. Usually in pale pink, blue or white. From $3.50 to $10.50. For children from two to six and pretty. Chinchilla, velvet, velour or broadcloth and the plainly tailored styles that boys like, $1.50 to $10.50. (Third Ficer)

Both styles are in navy, Malay brown or black. English Velveteen

The lines are gracefully full from the shoulder down and there is a flaring with hollow panels at each side and the prettiest bell-shaped

Special, $3.75 a Yard A good chiffon weight for dresses, blouses or two-piece cos-

Both color and pile are fast and the shades unusually pretty-tobacco, navy and Napoleon blue, bronze, copper, beaver, gobbler red, guhmetal, mahogany, elephant and pansy. 86 inches wide.

A finer quality English black vel-vetcen, 86 inches wide, $4.50 a yard. (First Floor) Silk Chemises and Paisley Slips

The costume slips are of Paisley printed creps de chine, tallored, and priced $8.75.

Envelope chemises of pink radium, tailored, at $5; of crepebacked satin, orchid, pink and peach, $6.85; of radium with scallops and Irish picot, $7.50. Step-in combinations of crepe-backed satin, orchid and pink, $8. Step-ins of crepe de chine, pink, with hand embroidery and real filet, $12.

(Third Floor)

Favorite Models in Frolaset Corsets

Many women prefer this popular front-laced corset, because of its solid support for the back, and the ease with which the lacing is ad-For clonder and average figures to a topless model of pink figured batists, at 55.

An extremely low-topped model of pink bruche with long straight lines, $8.50, A dainty waistline model, slightly higher across shoulders, $10. For the tall, long-walsted figure is a pink brocks model with long straight hips, gored with elastic below front incing, price $15.

Short Cuts in the Kitchen Mnife sharpeners designed cape-

Wanamaker food choppers, make the mines meat, $1.50, $1.75

No cause for tears whom the next sally molds, of all shapes and

Potate ricers that work like (Fourth Floor)

The Philadelphia-Camden Bridge Is Completed