

Two Big Things to See Tomorrow—the Game and the Wanamaker Store

Of the Great Dr. Johnson It Is Written That He Said:

"Keep your friendships constantly in repair."

Where there are faults on both sides, forgive and forget; and with fewness of words or none at all, begin all over again and bury deep the rubbish of the past.

There is much to be gained in frequent conversations with a friend well chosen.

Luxurious Fur-Trimmed Wraps That Most Women Would Fancy

NOT only new in the Coat Salons, but new in fashion as well and lovely.

Imagine loose, wrap-like affairs that fasten over to one side and are made with uneven hem lines, in certain cases. Usually the sleeves are extensions of the wrap itself and reach to the waistline. A new feature is a fur cuff attached to the lining and dropping below the sleeve.

The coatings are wonderfully soft, rich bolivia cloths, cashmere, duvetyne or lovely silk-and-wool fabrics. The fur collars and cuffs are of black fox, kit fox, beaver or dyed squirrel. They are larger than usual. For such beautiful wraps, the prices are moderate, $175 and $185. (First Floor)

Little Hats Are Best Above the Big-Collared Coats

A special collection of such little hats is ready tomorrow, at $10 and thereabouts, in the glittering metal cloths.

Effective little hats in satin, moire and taffeta also, many with fur tails at the side, or otherwise fur-trimmed. (Second Floor) things, and the colors are browns, navy, taupe, rust and black, with the upper parts of the dresses of Persian patterned velveteen or printed or plain silk crepe.

The coats are of various lengths and types—belted, flaring, bloused after the Balkan manner, slightly fitted. And every coat is warmly interlined, so that women who wish can wear such suits all winter long. (First Floor)
