

ONE CONFERENCE ON TURKISH PEACE

Problem of Straits Now Merged into General Sessions at Lausanne

MUSSOLINI BACK IN ROME

By Associated Press
Lausanne, Nov. 24.—The plan to hold two distinct conferences on the Near Eastern question, one for re-establishing peace between Turkey and Greece and between the Allies and Turkey, and the second to fix the status of the Straits of the Dardanelles, has been abandoned, it was stated today and the problem of the Straits has been merged into the general conference.
Turkey's spokesman at the Lausanne conference, hearing of the arrival of American missionary representatives here, expressed the hope that American philanthropic and educational institutions would not be needlessly alarmed by the advent of the new regime in Turkey.
The Kemalist agent explained that there was no disposition to drive out Americans, especially those engaged in educational and charitable undertakings.
It was pointed out, however, that Turkey saw no reason why foreign institutions, whether educational or industrial, should be dealt with differently from Turkish institutions and that if Turkey's schools and factories paid taxes, then foreign establishments should also.
The Ankara delegates declared that there should be no special privileges for foreigners in Turkey and insisted that it should be also understood that all schools, whether foreign or Turkish, should teach the Turkish language.
Rome, Nov. 24.—(By A. P.)—Premier Mussolini, back in Rome today from his attendance upon the opening session of the Near East Peace Conference at Lausanne, received a warm greeting on his arrival. At the station he was met by cabinet ministers, senators, deputies and black-shirted Fascists.

He was congratulated on all sides upon what he had accomplished at Lausanne, to which he responded with the statement that whatever successes he had achieved were not his own, but Italy's.
He expressed the deepest grief over the death of Baron Bonino and said the funeral would be conducted at the expense of the State as a tribute to the services the Baron had rendered the country.
