PUBLIC LEDGER

Betty Hairbreadth Harry

Boob McNutt

Gasoline Alley

Somebody's Stenog

The Gumps

Appearing in a "Laughable Performance" Sunday, Nov. 26

Appearing in Person—

"The Gumps"—
Andy, Min and Chester in a human interest sketch abounding in scintillating wit and creating a million laughs.

"Beauty and the Sap"—
The amusing skit of Betty and her adoring admirer, Lester de Pester, famed for his faux pas.

"Somebody's Stenog," by Cam O'Flage. Femininity's contribution to the world of business, in some characteristic impersonations of herself.

"Boob McNutt and Pearl"—
The hair-raising adventures of a persistent lover and his maid, beset by foul intrigue.

"The Villain Still Pursued"—
For excitement, for tense, gripping interest, await the "Adventures of Hairbreadth Harry and Beautiful Belinda." Relentless Rudolph is always on the job—a master villain.

"A Bachelor's Babe"—
Skeezix and his guardian, Walt, of Gasoline Alley, again entertain their thousands of friends. A sketch that arouses sympathy as well as laughter.

All These Stars Will Positively Appear in the Six-page Comic Section of the SUNDAY
