

ONE OF THE NAVY'S HUSKIES in today's gridiron classic at Franklin Field. Cullen, of Annapolis, is shown kicking the ball at yesterday's practice

CAPTAIN BREIDSTER, of the Army eleven, and Reiter, who plays end, photographed at Army headquarters at Green Hill Farms

ROOTING FOR THE NAVY. Miss Virginia Hypple is an ardent football fan

THE ARMY MASCOT being put through drill by members of the squad quartered at Green Hill Farms. He is Dan Daly, son of the team's coach

ANXIOUS TO SKIN THE ARMY MULE. Captain Conroy, of the Navy, is shown above trying a placement goal during practice at Franklin Field yesterday

INTERESTED SPECTATORS watching iron workers nonchalantly engaged in their hazardous occupation high up on the girders of new building between Tenth and Eleventh on Chestnut

MISS NINA LUNN, daughter of Mrs. William Wallace White

MISS INGER BRYN, daughter of Norwegian Minister

MISS EMILY DIAL, daughter of Senator and Mrs. N. B. Dial

MISS ELIZABETH T. JONES, daughter of Mrs. J. K. Jones

MISS VIRGINIA SELDEN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Selden

AT THE PRINT CLUB TEA. Among those attending the tea given at the Latimer street home of the Print Club yesterday were Mrs. Jasper Yeates Brinton, the club's president, and Dr. Arthur Bye, curator of paintings at Memorial Hall, pictured on the left. Mrs. Robert von Moschzisker, the hostess, is shown in the center. On the right Miss Margaret Gest and Miss Rebecca McGeorge are looking at English color engravings on exhibition there

NEW P. R. T. BUS took trip over the proposed lines yesterday. Bus was photographed at a stop on the Roosevelt Boulevard

HOLD POWWOW HERE. Wearing their full regalia, Chief Redfox, of the Blackfoot Tribe, and Gladys Ginnindigoon paid a visit to the Mayor yesterday

FAIR "GATE GIRLS." Miss Dorothy Goodwin and Miss Ada Morgan participate in Gloucester's street paving celebration

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

IN SILENT CONTEMPLATION OF THE BEAUTIES OF NATURE, the lone figure of a woman is disclosed in this scene of Fairmount Park near the old pumping station in 1870. Send us your old-Philadelphia photographs

Capt. Julius A. Furer, appointed member American Naval Mission to Brazil

Miss Mary E. Kunberger records 2600 P. & R. R. R. freight cars daily

MRS. SAMUEL P. ROTAN, donor $40,000 swimming pool to Big Brothers' Association

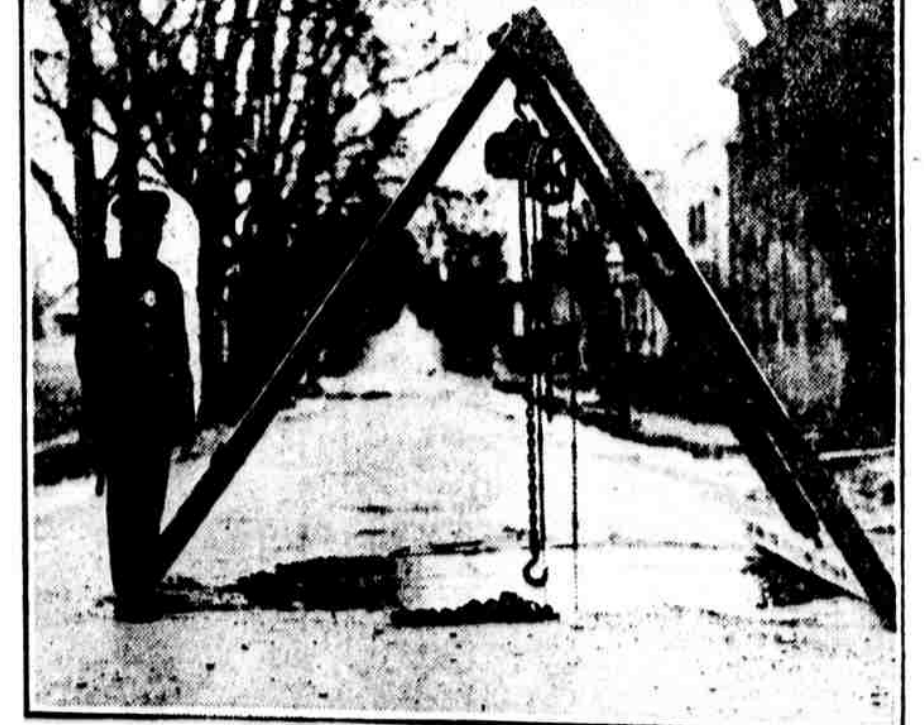

CAPT. L. S. SPOONER, U. of P. R. O. T. C., receiving trophy presented by Maj. Gen. C. F. Farnsworth, at yesterday's review

MISS ABBY ROCK-FELLER, billion-dollar heiress, made recent debut

PENNSYLVANIA'S GOVERNOR-ELECT opened the 1922 Christmas seal sale at the Capitol at Harrisburg. He and Governor Sproul are shown purchasing from the Modern Health Crusaders

TWO INJURED when street caved in under weight of their automobile on Allen lane, Germantown. The street had been weakened by a broken water main

CAP. ADOLPHUS ANDREWS, newly appointed commander President's yacht