Nancy Wynne Speaks of the Opening Performance of the Metropolitan Opera at the Academy—She Tells of Other Events of Importance Today

TODAY is certainly one of the busiest with the opening night of the opera at the Academy, a wedding and a dance, that's quite a lot of things, isn't it?

Miss Frances Wister will entertain for her cousin, Lee Tamm, Jr. and Mrs. Joseph's friends. The debutante will give a party for another debutante, Helen Allen. As the Wetherills are in mourning, Mrs. Wetherill will give a party for her daughter, Elizabeth. Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Knowles will entertain for Nancy Knowles, another bride. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gray will give a party for their daughter, Norma.

There seem to be a great many weddings this week, not the least interesting of which will be that of Miss Kitty Knight and Edward Cassard, which takes place today. The wedding will be a small one and the ceremony will be performed at the home of Miss Knight's mother, Mrs. Bradford Knight, who lives at 2209 Rittenhouse street. With the exception of Miss Mary Knight, who will act as maid of honor for her sister, and Alfred Sergeant, who will be best man, there will be no attendants.

The debutante who will make her bow this afternoon is Katherine Shippen Dunn, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwards S. Dunn, of Chestnut Hill. Mrs. Dunn was Miss Margaret Shippen, a daughter of the late Mr. Edward Shippen, and Katherine is a niece of Mrs. Frederick Beckard, who was Miss Katherine Shippen, and of the late Mrs. George Willing, who was Miss Anna Shippen. She is most attractive, with fair hair and blue eyes, and charming manners.

Elizabeth, who has light brown hair and fair complexion, looked pretty in a dress of white with a pattern with a pearl tulle and with panels which extended below the hem on either side. Her dress also had a popular element, a high collar without sleeves. Mrs. Davis was handsome in a gown of black crepe de chine made plain except for some draping.

Elizabeth, who is a graduate of Miss Jewell's, is very enthusiastic about dogs, especially pointer dogs, and now has nine puppies which, I believe, she raised herself. The Davises live at Wrenwood. Another young member, so she has plenty of room for any number of pets.

It is hard enough to have your birthday party called off, but to be sick on your birthday, too, seems a double tragedy.

Such is the case with Elinor Morice, the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Morice, of Chestnut Hill, whose tenth birthday is today, and for whom a party had been planned this afternoon.

Miss Elinor was vaccinated about two weeks ago and she takes for almost ten days, but now it is "making" with a vengeance, and the poor child is sick in bed with a high temperature so that birthday parties are out of the question.

I hope that she will soon recover and will have her party after all, as I hear her parents are only postponing it.

NANCY WYNNE.
