—NOW IT'S A STRAIGHT ROAD TO CHRISTMAS, with each little perplexity smiled away by the wonderful gift things at Wanamaker's

IF THERE is anything "hupplish," "hum-drum" or "hugger-mug" in the housekeeping of this

Inn of Hospitality and Merchandise

It is contrary to our wishes and will be corrected, if pointed out. Our intention is to be humanistic, without intrusiveness. The people of Philadelphia and its environs and visitors from all parts are just as free to walk into and over our spacious and beautiful building, without solicitations to purchase, as they are free to walk over the pavements on the four streets surrounding it.

Paris Sends Exquisite Dresses for School Girls to Wear

The charm lies in the dainty materials, the finest French voile, dotted Swiss, crepe and chambray, and the odd and delightful fashion of the making.

Every stitch is hand done, and such stitches! Many are hand drawn, hand fagoted or hand embroidered. They have appliqued blocks or bands of another color or perhaps quaint little white ruffles or borders of embroidery. And the colors are lovely, too—all the softest pastel tints—citron, coral, banana, geranium, mauve, ciel, tile blue and white.

There are dresses for girls from 6 to 16 years at surprisingly moderate prices, $5.50 to $32.50.

(Second Floor)

Women's Afternoon Dresses in Delightful Browns, at $65 to $125

Bronze, castor, a dark Paris brown, cocoa and rose taupe are a few of the browns shown in these charming silk frocks, whose weaves—crepe-backed satins, Canton crepes and novelty crepes—are as interesting as the colors.

As usual with such fine things, there are hardly more than one or two of any particular style, but each was designed with some particular type of wearer in mind.

One straight line frock is heavily braided with soutache; another straight model depends on a real Venise collar and a closely beaded girdle for interest; a wrap-around coat model is edged with fur, and in another all the gold ornamentation is spent upon the sleeves.

Some of the dresses have sheer sleeves, and some have the upper parts beaded. Prices $65 to $125.

(First Floor)

For the Woman Who Wears All Black There Are Things of Interest

The Little Salon is showing black street and afternoon frocks made of silk crepes and Poiret twills, at $25 to $105. They are in sizes for both women and girls.

Black dinner and evening gowns of silk crepes, faille,orgette and chiffon, some of them beaded. Prices $40 to $110.

(Main Gallery)

Also here are various black accessories—handbags of black duvetyne, moire and faille, in the new shapes—$5.75 to $30.

Black bead necklaces, tassel effects, $2 to $14.

Also bracelets, crosses and brooches at a variety of prices.

The Prettiest New Lingerie for Girls Is Ready for Gift Boxes

It is made of silk—combinations and bloomers of striped sateen, messaline and crepe de chine in the daintiest pink shades.

Sizes are 4 to 16 years and prices start at $3.75 for sateen garments; silk ones, $7.50 to $10.50.

(Third Floor)

Nightgowns of crepe de chine or sateen, flesh or white, are in 6 to 16 year sizes, and priced $3 to $8.50.

Princess slips of satin, China silk and crepe de chine, in 4 to 18 year sizes; prices $2.75 to $10.

Billie Burkes and pajamas, 8 to 16 years, $7.50 to $12.

2000 Waists, and All of Them to Go at Special Prices

Any of these will be boxed if desired. At $1 to $4.50. Dimity Peter Pans, hand-drawn voiles, striped dimities with drawn-work, and dimities with hand-embroidered linen collars.

At $2.85 to $8.50. Voile waists, trimmed with real filet and Irish lace; crepe de chine, hand-drawn and embroidered.

At $7.50 to $12.75. Jacket blouses with long sleeves, slip-on blouses of a woven novelty cloth, duvetyne jackets, printed crepes and satins.

Every Woman Welcomes a Beautiful Handbag

Those of mocha duvetyne are especially appropriate for gifts because they are so fashionable this winter and lovely.

So many new shapes are here, one could hardly stop to count them! Some are large and square, others are melon or pouch shapes. Some have plain frames, others the brilliant marquisite mountings and fancy clasps.

But one and all are made of the best materials, not only the outside but the silk linings and sterling silver mountings as well and, for that reason alone, they are most satisfactory Christmas gifts. Various priced from $5 to $18.

(Main Floor)

Would You Have the Finest of Handkerchiefs?

Then ask to be shown the French hand-spun handkerchiefs for women.

Never, perhaps, have you imagined that linen could be so fine and sheer or that human fingers could do such exquisite drawn work or such embroidery. A number have cut hems and these, too, are all hand done. They are priced $5 to $35 each.

NOTE—December's birthstone is the turquoise and for those born in this month, turquoise colored ribbon should be used to tie up handkerchiefs intended for birthday gifts.

For Christmas gift handkerchiefs it may be red, green or any one of twelve different colored ribbons, just as you prefer.

(Main Floor)

IF YOU delight in personal ornaments from the Orient save a few minutes for one of the Chestnut Street windows.

In it there are beautiful instances of crystal, amber, carnelian, topaz and tourmaline jewelry and a particularly fine necklace—jade beads and jade pendant of pure emerald green on a black knotted cord, priced $550.

Women Looking for Fur-Trimmed Black Coats Should See the $100 Ones

Two of the prettiest styles that could be found in a long day's search have just arrived. Both models are in a soft, warm bolivia coating of the highest lustre. One is bloused in the back and has a low waist line with a straight corded band and the cuffs are corded. The black fox collar is large and of beautiful quality.

The other style has the new straight, flat back with rows of stitching and wide sleeves to the waist. The collar is also extremely large and of fine black fox.

Sable Furs—Russian and Hudson's Bay Are Favorites Now

The Russian skins are extremely soft, dark and all natural, and the prices of one-skin boas run from $175 to $385; while those of the two-skin boas are $250 to $750.

Many women who own Russian sables buy others of Hudson's Bay to serve as understudies when they travel. Some are tipped, but as a rule they are natural, and really fine.

One-skin boas, $45 to $225; two-skin, $115 to $450.

(Second Floor)

New French Metal Brocades of Gorgeous Beauty, $15 a Yard

So exquisite in color, so rich in effect, and so soft and adaptable for many uses that even a yard or less makes a lovely gift.

Sumptuous bags, brilliant vests and panels and hats are made of them, as well as regal gowns and wraps.

(First Floor)

In the new importation are glorious designs in white-and-silver, white-and-gold, black-and-silver, black-and-gold, turquoise, jade, flame, candy, geranium, sapphire and many other lovely colors combined with gold or silver.

One yard wide, and moderate at $15.

English "Redleaf" Lined Gloves for Men and Women

They are the nicest lined gloves you could choose for yourself, or to give as a present for any one. Made in England exclusively for Wanamaker's, and including some kinds hard to find elsewhere.

Women's include fleece-lined cape at $3.50; wool-lined buck suede at $4.50; fleece-lined strap-wrist cape with fur-lined cuffs at $5; wool-lined buck suede gauntlets and slip-ons, fur-trimmed, at $7.50 and $8; fur-lined and fur-topped strap-wrist buck suedes at $10; and full squirrel-lined buck suedes, at $16.50 a pair.

(Main Floor)

Men's include wool-lined cape, at $5; rabbit-lined buck suede, at $7.50; wool or rabbit lined strap-wrist cape, at $9.50; and full squirrel-lined buck suede, at $16.50 a pair.

Some unlined "Redleaf" gloves for both men and women also.

The Language Without Words

MUSIC is the language of all those emotions which affect the human heart too deeply for expression in words.

Love, Joy, Gratitude, Rapture, Aspiration, the profound depths of an unfathomable Sorrow, and the serene confidence of renewed Hope—all these have had their expression in the compositions of the great musicians.

And when we listen to them again they seem to reflect and give expression to our own deeper feelings.

To the light-hearted, Music means only the dance, the gay song, the "jazz." Even here, in its lighter phases, it expresses more than could be expressed in words.

More and more the world turns to Music as a means of expression, a method of happiness, a source of satisfaction.

The AMPICO

more than any other single instrument, provides music of a diversity to satisfy all these needs. Its thousands of recordings range from the latest Broadway favorite, the "jazziest" dance, to the simple old ballads that stir men's hearts, and the immortal classics of Beethoven, Chopin and the masters.

To those who do not yet know it the Ampico is a great treat in store. The number of those who do—to their satisfaction and delight—is increasing daily.

Boys' Suits and Overcoats That Carry the Stamp of Quality

The boy should wear a suit and an overcoat of quality. There is no excuse for the other kind.

Wanamaker boys' suits and overcoats have always been noted for dependable quality, but they were never better than this season, and the prices are materially lower than in several seasons.

(Third Floor)

There is a wonderfully fine showing of overcoats at $16.50 to $32 in three to ten year sizes; and at $16.50 to $35 in 11 to 18 year sizes.

Norfolk suits in every desirable style, shade and pattern, mostly with two pair of trousers, $12, $13.50, $15, $16.50 and up to $28.

Every Time She Entertains She'll Thank You for a Tea Wagon

Of solid mahogany, with removable glass tray on top.

Lower shelf has moulding around the edge to prevent dishes from falling off.

Large rubber-tired wood wheels, small metal wheels rubber-tired.

Top measures 17x27 inches.

The price, $26, is considerably less than a tea wagon of this quality generally sells for.

One of thousands of delightful gift pieces in the great furniture displays.

A Gift for the Golfer—Silver King Golf Balls

Every man on the links knows them and every man who knows them likes no other kind. A dozen or so for Christmas means round after round of pleasure.

For the first time in months there is a good supply of Silver King balls here, so now is the time to choose.

The selection includes the blue line, red line, yellow line and green line Silver Kings, all with the recess or m s i marking and all priced $12 the doz n.

Speaking of Christmas Gifts for the Man Who Means the Most—

A wife's first thought is for his comfort and those happy, intimate hours together just lolling before the fire while outside the wind is howling its wildest notes and snow is pelting the window panes.

There's Nothing More Naturally Home-Like Than a House Coat

It might be a double-faced cloth one, with the plaid that marks the inside also showing on the lapels and pockets and cuffs. Such a coat can be in any one of a dozen colors and is here between $5 and $20.

To some men a velvet house coat edged with gay braid in some contrasting color would be more in keeping. $25 and $30. Even more luxurious are the coats of silk matelasse, finely figured in self colors; the lining and lapel facing and pockets and cuffs being black satin. Priced $27.50.

Of Course, Any Comfortable Evening Is Spent in Slippers

And who would imagine there could be so many kinds? Felt ones in more shapes and colors than men ever dreamed of. First in favor are the little slip-on kind, then the high-low style with turned down tops in a contrasting color. Then the Everett, with the tongued fronts. Prices, $1.90 to $3.25.

Just as varied and even richer are the leather ones. Newest of all is the bootie with a plush top, or gold-band trimming, or just leather of a different color. Then the Romeos, the Faust, a new comfortable shape, the Everett and the Brighton are equally in favor.

The leather might be any color—tan, black patent leather, red, blue, white and many more. Priced $1.50 to $10.
