Lowers Colors of Colwyn Gridders in Annual Came, 18 to 0

HIDDEN-BALL TRICK USED

The Delco football eleven won its greatest triumph of the season yesterday when the Darbyites lowered the colors of the Colwyn Club in their annual Delaware County title clash at Hilldale Ball Park, 18 to 0.

The proteges of Woody Bonsall outplayed those of Dr. Kerr and scored a touchdown is every period but the second. They played wonderful football and are ready to take on the Darby Rams tomorrow afternoon and add them to their list of victims.

Delco has played eleven games this season and won all but one. That was with Lancaster, which was lost 6 to 2, although Delco outplayed its opponents. Two of yesterday's touchdowns were made on the hidden-ball trick, while the othes was on an end run by Humphries after the ball was brought to the 8-yard line on six successive first downs.

Magnolia A. A., of Frankford, which beld Melrose, of Atlantic City, to a tie last Bunday, invaded Holmesburg and was turned back by George Johnson's boys, 27 to 0. The big burg eleven was at its best and completely outplayed its opponents from down Frankford way.

Howard Berry, Leo Lynch and Vic Emanuel were very much in evidence and Berry displayed all his old-time form when he was in the limelight at Penn. Holmesburg made eleven first downs to two for Magnolia, but the losers deserve great credit for the fine showing they made.

Seven thousand fans crowded the Strawbridge & Clothier Field to watch Victrix and Hobart battle in their annual gridiron struggle. Both teams had come through the senson with flying records, but Victrix proved best on this occasion and won out, 6 to 0. Victrix scored the winning touchdown in the second period. Linaugh, who
