

THEATRES UNDER THE DIRECTION OF STANLEY COMPANY OF AMERICA

STANTON

INDEFINITE ENGAGEMENT BEGINNING MONDAY

MARION DAVIES

"The sweetest love story ever told," they have always called the romance of Princess Mary Tudor and Charles Brandon. Every girl would be a Princess, yet Mary not only gave up that right, but a throne, too, for Love. This beautiful historical episode as related by Charles Major has been made into the most gorgeous, costly and appealing photoplay ever conceived. The costumes alone represent the expenditures for an ordinary picture.

Never has there been such a cast as supports Marion Davies; never such elaborate settings as those devised by the celebrated Joseph Urban; never such direction as that of Robert G. Vignola. "When Knighthood Was in Flower" is, in fact, the super-picture; the greatest of them all.

WHEN KNIGHTHOOD WAS IN FLOWER

NOW IN ITS THIRD MONTH OF A RECORD-BREAKING ENGAGEMENT AT THE CRITERION THEATRE, NEW YORK CITY.

During that time there has not been a vacant seat at any performance, and thousands have been turned away daily. Newspapers and the public declare it the greatest film play ever created.
