

CITY OFFICIALS WERE WILLING PURCHASERS. Miss Margaretta McNeal is pictured making a sale of the little Red Cross Christmas seals to Director Cortelyou at City Hall

CAPTAIN LOUISE FESSENDEN starred in yesterday's game, scoring all three goals for the Boston hockeyists

LIVELY ACTION WAS THE OUTSTANDING FEATURE of the hockey game at St. Martins yesterday, when the Richmond, Va., girls surprised the Boston field hockey team by holding them to a 3-to-3 tie in the regulation two halves. The rival teams play it off today in two fifteen-minute periods

FORERUNNERS OF YULETIDE CHEER. Carloads of Christmas trees arrived yesterday, bringing with them the fragrance of the north woods. This was the first large shipment of the greens to reach Philadelphia this year

CAPTAIN FRANCIS CRENSHAW led the Richmond field hockey team yesterday at St. Martins

GREETED BY WIFE AT PRISON GATE. William Bross Lloyd, millionaire radical, released after serving eight days

SCENE AT CORNERSTONE LAYING of new building for Presbyterian Hospital at Powelton and Saunders avenues yesterday. Henry N. Paul, who presided, shown on extreme left

BAVE RUTH PAUSES at work to fondle tame rabbit. The Bambino works hard on his farm

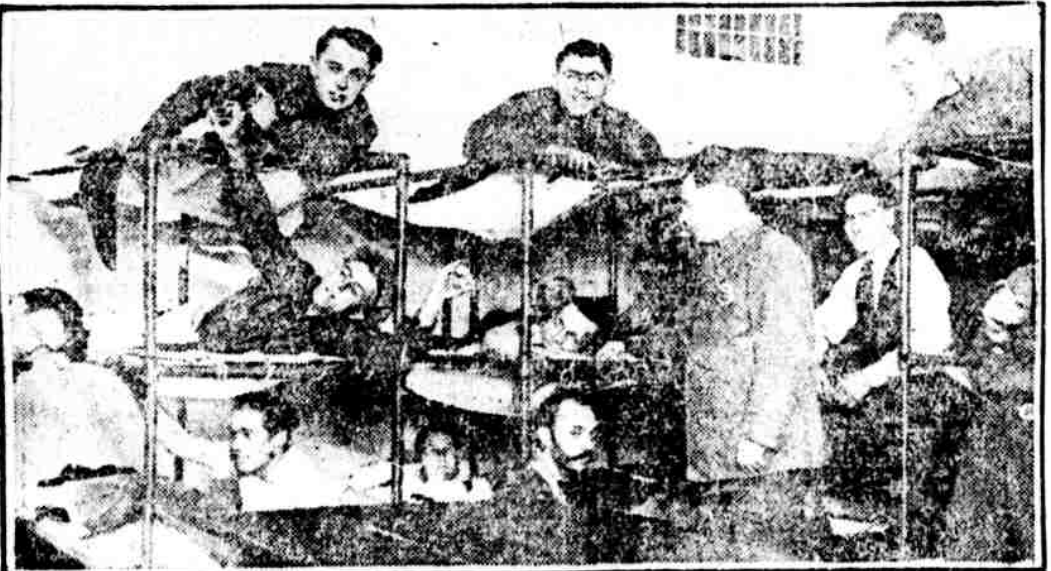

GETTING READY FOR CHRISTMAS. Toy-makers are working overtime this season. On the left, A. B. Rice, a 93-year-old inmate of the Old Men's Home at Thirty-ninth and Powelton avenue, is busy carving wooden horses destined to enliven the holidays for many youngsters. Miss Ida Kelly is shown on the right painting toy rabbits at a factory here

MISS LILLIAN GATLIN, aviatrix of trans-continental fame, makes friends with Laddie Boy, the President's pet

REACHING THEIR DESTINATION the O'Malley sisters, hikers from Atlantic City, are welcomed by Thomas J. Pancoast, president of the Chamber of Commerce at Miami Beach

MANIA TO GET THERE IN A HURRY got them into trouble. Above is pictured a scene in the interior of a Los Angeles jail, showing some of the spinners doing penance for the dangerous habit of stepping too hard on the gas.

MISS ETHEL JOHNSON, active in Red Cross Christmas seal campaign

WINDOW SHOPPING on Market street. Christmas displays fascinated little Margaret Mariner

MAKES WORLD'S RECORD GLIDE. M. Maneyrol, French pilot, stayed up 3 hours and 22 minutes

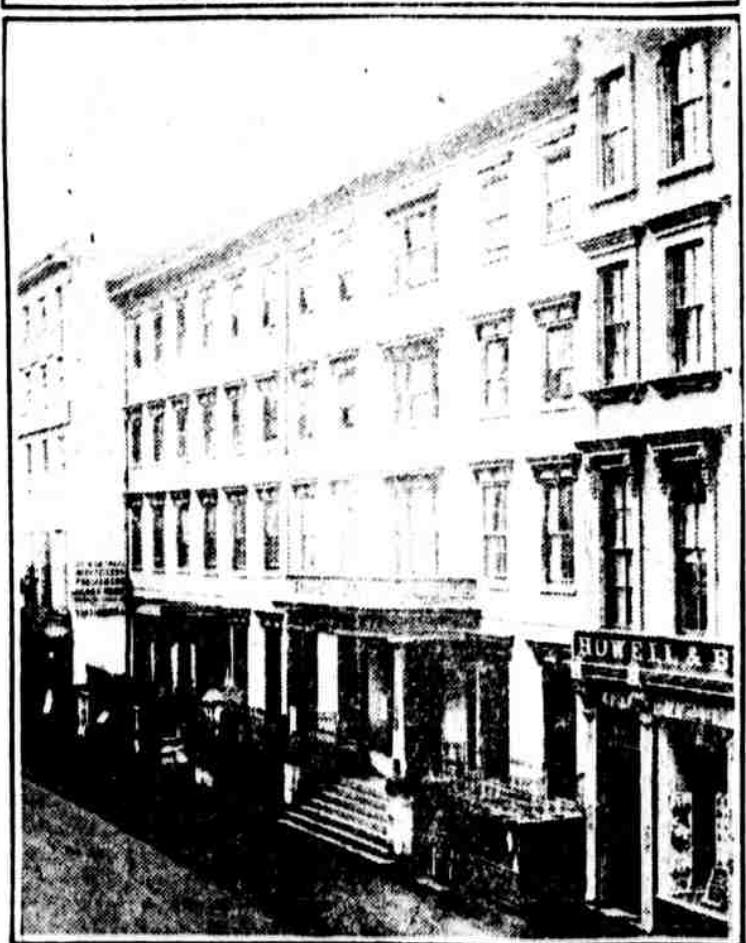

NEW YORK WAS NOT IN THE RUNNING in the second game of the intercity field hockey championship, at the Philadelphia Cricket Club yesterday. The Philadelphia girls ran away with the game, overwhelming their opponents sixteen goals to one. A thrilling moment during the scrimmage is pictured above

C. LOUIS SEYA, Charge d'Affaires of Latvia's new legation

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

THIS ONCE POPULAR STOPPING-OFF PLACE for travelers was later transformed into a variety theatre. The old Jones Hotel on the south side of Chestnut street, west of Sixth, as it appeared in 1879. Please send us your old Philadelphia photographs

COMMANDER PERCIVAL S. ROSSITER to represent Medical Corps on Brazilian mission

FALCON HUNTING, ONCE SPORT OF KINGS, popular in French society. Method of carrying trained falcons to the field is pictured on the left. The leather hood, which acts as a blinder, is being adjusted over the bird's head on the right, preventing it from pursuing prey not selected by sportsman

SIR HALL CAINE created Companion of Honor on British Honors list

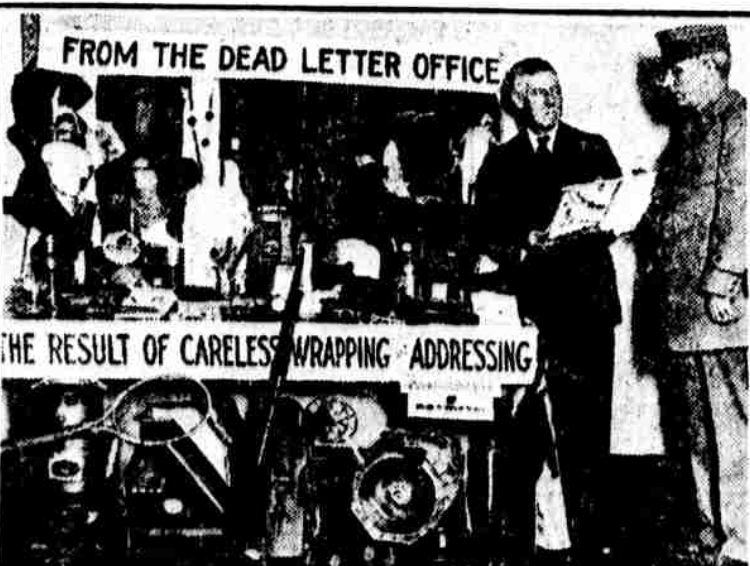

LORD LEVERHULME created a Viscount on recent Honors list

RT. HON. WINSTON SPENCER CHURCHILL, Companion of Honor

SIR ERNEST POLLOCK, created Baronet on Honors list

SHOP EARLY AND MAIL THOROUGHLY is Xmas advice of Postoffice Department. These articles, pictured above, go under the auctioneer's hammer, due to improper packing and addressing

COUNT VON MOLTKE leaves Kaiser after clash with Princess Hermine