Mr. Morris describes Moyer's health as good, but his morale as bad, "He is emotional," he said. "He cries a great deal. He is melancholy sometimes, but that is to be expected. He is a man who feels deeply. His punishment hurts. He always enjoyed life, and confinement is hard.

in a boiler pit at Southern Boulevard and One Hundred and Fortieth street.

This conclusion was reached by Dr. Carl Kennard, assistant medical examiner of Bronx County, after an autopsy on the body of the slain woman. He told of his findings to the Bronx County Grand Jury yesterday afternoon, and that body promptly indicted Abraham Becker, chauffeur and husband of the dead woman, for murder in the first degree.

Earlier in the day County Judge Louis E. Gibbs held Reuben Norkin, a friend of Becker, near whose welding shop the body was found, in $100,000 as a material witness in the case.
