

Mrs. Edgar B. Howard and Mrs. C. Bradford Fraley

Miss Jessie Da Costa

Miss Elizabeth Barringer

Mrs. Gouverneur Cadwalader and Mrs. Victor C. Mather

SEEN AMONG THE SOCIETY SHOPS AT THE BAZAAR BOUTIQUE, CONTINUING TODAY IN AID OF SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE

AIDING THE SEAMEN at the Bazaar Boutique. Miss Betty Boyd and Miss Elizabeth Ross caught by the camera at the Bellevue-Stratford yesterday

MISS PEGGY THAYER presided over one of the numerous booths in the glittering Bazaar Boutique, one of the season's most colorful events

WHY ROW? Margaret and Edwin Berkhout, of Hackensack, N. J., are envied by many of the kiddies when they see them riding about on their water bike

A GOOD SPORT. The baby was taking all the chances when this picture was made, winning first prize in recent action-photograph contest

ADMIRING A CASE OF UNIQUE SILVER UTENSILS at the American Handicraft Exhibition which opened yesterday at Memorial Hall. Philadelphia was well represented

MRS. JOSEPH S. L. WHARTON is one of those who are helping make success of the Bazaar Boutique

SURROUNDED BY HATS, Miss Polly Pancoast is pictured above in her booth at the Bellevue-Stratford doing her share for the Bazaar Boutique

Miss M. Appar displayed much talent in recent charity playlet

Rev. Ross H. Stover receives honorary D. D. degree

Miss Katherine E. Force wed to Major L. Spencer today

A PEEP INTO THE ELECTRICAL BUREAU at City Hall disclosed Chief McLaughlin busily experimenting with a wicked-looking radio outfit, which has recently been installed

"NEVER AGAIN," vows Edythe Sterling, as she bathes dishes in Los Angeles jail. The film actress got five days for speeding

MADE OWN AUTO TAGS. Harry Reichman and his son Penrose were arrested when a policeman spotted camouflaged license tags on their car. The son was released

AMERICAN DELEGATES TO POSTAL CONVENTION IN OTTAWA. W. Irving Glover 3d, Assistant Postmaster General; Hubert Work, Postmaster General, and John H. Edwards, solicitor

FRIENDS' CENTRAL DRAMATICS. Virginia Walker, Albert Griscom and Arthur Howes, members of cast, pictured above

PRINCE ANDREW AND HIS WIFE, permanently exiled from Greece, arrived at Brindisi, Italy, on British cruiser

MISS SARAH MEADE LARGE did her bit yesterday at the Bazaar Boutique

MARGARET LEAHY, English girl with "the perfect film face," has a black cat for luck upon arrival

LONG SKIRTS WERE IN STYLE IN THOSE DAYS. Above is an old-time view of Walnut street looking west from Juniper as it appeared in 1899, showing the old Lippincott mansion. Contributed by the Newell Studios, 255 South Sixth street. Please send us your old Philadelphia photographs

AID NORTHERN HOME FOR FRIENDLESS CHILDREN. Among those who will help at fair to open next Friday at the Bellevue-Stratford are Mrs. E. Willard Moore, Miss Helen V. Tauler, Miss Dorothy Davis and Mrs. E. Morris Urquhart

D. S. C. AWARDED TO MARINE. Secretary Denby is pictured above decorating Captain Robert L. Montague for heroism in action

