American College Girls Are as Smart in Appearance as They Are in Studies

Indeed, I have sometimes wondered it isn't considered an asset, a real hallmark of the highbrow, as it were,

Eve often heard a pretty, smartl, dressed girl labeled "frivolous," while

The Reckless Age

By HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR

of the pounder set who thinks men were made for her amusement. She engages herself to Charley Tyne without loving him, and when be-cause of her flictuition with Mason Loon, a writer, Charley breaks the canagement, Aline turns her attentions to Long. Here the uncapected happens, for Altae finds becoulf ite-ofter this, Mr. Foster meets with financial verywes, and it becomes peressitey to sell the Long Island on the 5:42 every night. Mr. Foster

Phyllis wanted to give an afternson

"I don't want to meet them," she said ungraciously. "What would be the use? We would have nothing in-

A vindictive little light gleamed suddealy in Phyllis' eyes. Now that Aline

Aline fixed her sister with level exes

"Good enough!" Aline exclaimed mockingly. "Oh. yes, they're good enough; in fact they're probably much enough: In fact they're probably much too good."

"If you mean that they're prodes, you're very much mistaken." Phyllis defended. "All the girls smoke cigar ettes, and we're all just as modern as the crowd you used to know."

"I have no doubt of that, Aline returned with maddening indifference, enough for you.

none of it.

common.

ing her attention merely because

Aline Foster is a spoiled member

By MAY CHRISTIE

I MET three American college girls making hats for the other students. the other day, and, being a college She was proud of it. (An English girl myself (we call it 'university'), would have been intensely embarrassed girl myself (we call it "university"), was much intrigued
to hear them talk.
The first thing the other students' stockings.

And the third, if I remember right. that quite aston-ished me was the

And the third, if I remember right, waited on table and washed dishes.

They were ladies, all of them, in the best meaning of that much-abused word. Vital, keen and clever.

They were pretty, too, and charmingly dressed. Indeed I never dreamed ingly dressed. Indeed I never dreamed in the state of the st other students. Here, apparently, it merely redounds interest in their looks, to her credit that she has not the neces sary brains and grit and go-aheaded-ness to pay her own way instead of being a financial burden on her parents, or, as an alternative, dispensing alto— I've often heard a preity, smart gether with a "higher education." dressed girl labeled "frivolous." while The American girl is proud, then, of a dowdy frump is held up as the right beholden to none. That's as it should be other hand, is chie and doesn't seem A result of this is that when she to lose her feminine charm in the slight-enters college she doesn't 'sheek.' as est just because she's clever. She be-we so often did, erataming wildly at the comes even more attractive to the men-last desperate moment for exams, and That's because she's got the right perforgetting everything after the event: specific to the spaying her own ters for her own situation. training, and all the world knows the For brains and higher education what one pays for one off one containly aren't everything in this world. Indeed they don't go very far in life with-Hence she gets more out of college out the human quality of charm and that appeal of femininity which is every

The first girl "worked her way" by woman's birthright.

THIS DAY AND YOU By Ralph Waldo Trine Author of "In Tune With the Infinite."

The Drawing Power of Mind

There is in connection with thought . law that we are now beginning to understand, that may be termed "the drawing power of taind." We are continually attracting to us, from both the seen and unseen sides of life, influences and conditions corresponding with the types of thought we hard has bitually allow to take from in our minds, and that we consequently most babitually live with.

"Birds of a feather flock ingether" is a very old statement. But birds of house.

ypes of thought. If we are hopeful, we inspire hope—we radiate hope and encouragement and strength, so to speak.

If we have a feeling of friendship and good-will and he produces—love—we income the common placeness of it all.

Phyllis wanted to give a great strength of the common placeness of it all. spire these same qualities in others, and Phyllis wanted to give an afternoon the same types of warming and life-bridge for her younger sister. She was giving thought-forces come back in turn enger to lutroduce Aline to her own to us from them. It is, therefore, scienspecial friends, but Aline would have tifically true that as a man gives he Copyright, 1912, by Public Ledger Company

Adventures With a Purse

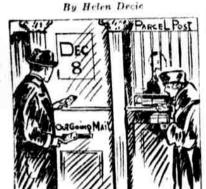

ON CHRISTMAS EVE have you . warmed by the friendly grow of candles was no longer on another plane. Phylics burning in the windows: They are was no longer in awe of her. After uch cheery symbols, and did you know had no more money to spend on clockthat the burning of bayberry candles that she berself did, in fact not as is said to be good back? Tapering, much. Aline bad no longer the lovely fragrant bayberry candles to be lighted before you go to hed, and left burning inchow background of the big Long suitable, through the night until the candle burns island house; and her friends, even it frequently nown and with a feeble fletter goes out. That, according to an old English besure if you do let the emules burn all never heard of the place, will not set fire to anything, or they will bring you had back indeed. The bayberry candles can be purchased for

Eve seen such cuddly shoes for ba-bies that I wanted to buy a pair, and for no reason at all because there is a people. Why can't you make an your la-baby in the family. They are made of mind to be contented and happy, in-baby in the family and lined with fleey. white that looks like augern. In the up? front are two bends that look like thing. A black eyes, and two cars of the ma-terial stick up in the from. The slip-pers took just like friendly binnies and the children would love a pair of them.

For maines of shops address Woman's Port-Editor, or phone Walnut 3000 or Main 1601 between the hours of 9 and 5.

WHAT'S WHAT

returned with imiddening indifference.
"I know you all have splendid times together, but for Heaven's siks leave me out. If I don't want to meet them, why can't you let it go at that?"
"Because I'm trying to make you look at the thing sensibly. Because you might as well realize that you're living here, and that there's nothing to do about it, you might as well areas. Tear after year repetition of the word consideration." which, in action is the trump card of courtesy, has brought a most agreeable change in public manners during the Christmas holiday season. Because of consideration for others, purchasers try to do their Christmas shopping early, carly in the day and early in the month, so that the titre by mobs of last-moment shoppers on thristmas Eve, as was the case years (1975). Season of the consideration of the constant of the cons

Christmas Eve, as was the case years

Yet there is one institution where Christmas consideration has not yet found its way—the postoffice. On Christmas Eve, or Christmas Day, or even on the day after, postmen everywhere are staggering under burdens of packages and letters, most of which could have the test open every day. Why
the test open every day why
to the mill lower distance, holiday parcels that will surprise even you."

She spoke with such assurance that Phyllis suddenly realized her mistage.
She had shown too plainly her secret satisfaction at her sister's downfall, and she was frightened for fear of what Aline might do.

Tomorrow—The Larr of Adventure

Please Tell Me What to Do

Letters to Cunthia's column must be written on one side of the paper only, and must be signed with the writer's same and address. The wane will not be published if the writer does not wish it. Unsigned letters and letters written on both sides of the paper will not be answered. Writers who wish personal answers that can be given in the column will please look there, as personal letters are only written when absolutely necessary.

"Jack" Writes to "La Palge" working near way through" college!
Now that isn't possible in England.
And if it were a girl would instantly "lose caste, though I'm ashamed to quote that snoblish, narrowalinded phrase. She would be thought the less of by the other students.

"Jack" Writes to "La Paige" Dear Cynthia—I've never written to your wonderful column before, but will you print this to "La Paige"? Well, old pal, why be so mai at all girls by the specimens we have on the other side. Our college girls, especially the Girton ones, are, alas! inclined to be careless in the matter of their personal and she stood me up three times. Was in the same hoat about two years ago. This is how it was: I met this girl and like all fools fell in love. Time went on and she stood me up three times. Was I mad? I guess not. I went around with another girl. Now people say I treated the first girl mean as she still loves me.

So, "La Paige" Stek: maybe you'll find a girl that's true. Remember a exempts them from taking the slightest

So, "La Paige," stick: maybe you, find a girl that's true. Remember race cannot be won if you drop out. Cynthia, I'd like to say somethin about "Sparrow," Somebody ought take that bird in the back lot and put out of its misery. "JACK."

Family Wants Her to Go With Him dowdy frump is held up as the right tample!

The American college girl, on the there hand, is chie and doesn't seem to lose her feminine charm in the slight to because she's clever. She held the mental of the seem was the seem to be seen more attractive to the mental of the seem was the seem to be seen more attractive to the mental of the seem was the se spective and the wits to gauge the my people and the whole family approve ion. They want me to so around him. So what do you think, Cyn-7 Will I begin to love him later? For brains and higher education

ONE IN LOVE. Berhaps you will learn to care, but if you do not, there is no reason why you should not be friends with him. Better not keep steady company: that's always a mistake, but if you learn to dways a mistake, but if you learn to care, then become engaged to him if he Knocker Tries to Justify His Stand Dear Cynthia-Kindly spare me a lityour valuable space, Cynthia.

I do not regard myself as a sage, but I think I can enlighten "Sparrow's' knockers on a few points which may have hitherto escaped their perhaps none have fitherto escaped their pernaps have two deep or observant minds.

Hark ye' Ye knockers and your echoers. Know ye not that in these days of modernity, a pretty, thiffy and in-to-date little flapper really covers and phases a value upon a good-night kiss?

Just inagine the scene; it is their first night out. He takes her home. The most is mild. They stand on the iversity of the probability of the probabili They stand on the ivy-

So many people spoil the appearance frames that are quite mellow background of the big Long Aline had given them a chance, were of many limited too busy with their social affairs to: the glittering gold of llef, will bring you good linck through-out the rest of the year. But he very come to Nutley. Most of them had a frame? For a long time frame makers would not consent to make frames to sait individual pictures, and many artists made their own frames rather And so it was that Phyllis said sudthan have their pictures spoiled by being "It's about time you got over being hung in an unsuitable frame.

a whole, Aline. You might as well hanke It is well to remember that in althe best of things. You're living here, most every case there of demurcation between the picand there's no need of antagonizing ture and the safficed to inclose the picture. The Aline fixed her sixer with his even was that were very hard and bright. "I are to the other, really believe you're enjoying all this. If a plature frame attracts attention Phyllis." she said deliberately. "It is a itself because of its ornateness, it is really believe you're enjoying all this.

Phyllis, she said deliberately. "It does you good to see me brought down a peg, to know that I have to accept things I have always despised."

Phyllis flushed scarlet under Aline's searching gaze, but as usual she took refuge in quibbling, knowing that Aline was far more clever than she was and in an argument always had the best of it.

If a pleture now itself is ornateness, it is does you good to see me brought down a result it is a success. If, without attracting attention to itself, it can entirely in the case of the picture. It is an artistic triumph.

In the case of old pictures it is an old Spanish picture, for instance, looks at its best in a frame of old Spanish design. worst possible motive on everything I do?" she said resentfully. "You make me feet inferior to you, and I -uppose you think my friends aren't good

Tomorrow-"Curtain Fixtures"

The Woman's Exchange

To "Londoner"

You will have to let the publisher in on your secret, for it would not be possible to sign checks with a name not your own. In sending a manuscript, write your nom de plume beneath, the title and then inclose your true name of the property of the propert with your address, stating that you do not desire to have this use I. To "A Sorority Sister" Have a meeting of the girls who wish to start this club and decide upon what you want it to stand for. Then, to

For one to govern his thinking, then, he must not only determine his own life, but determine also those that he attracts to him, his negominances and, softened by the furniture they had eventually, his friends and companions.

Dissatisfaction

The hopeful, confident, successful by the furniture they had for his whisper, think ye not that she would be pipped and that her pride the initials of these words. You will find the Greek alphabet in any encyclopedia and should you need the should you need the should you need the first this club and decide upon what to be pipped and that her pride the initials of these would be pipped and that her pride the initials of these would be pipped and that her pride the initials of these would be pipped and that her pride the initials of these would be pipped and that her pride the initials of these would be pipped and that her pride the initials of these would be pipped and that her pride

The hopeful, confident, successful But the furniture did not help much type of thought not only attracts to us successful people, those whose lives are dominated by the same type or trend of thought. They in turn, become of the house in the town.

Not only are our accomplishments determined by our prevailing types of thought, but our influence upon others is determined by our prevailing types of the come in personal contact with usual contact wit Dear Madam-Are three glasses of nowder or a kind that would turn black when the violet rays of a spectrum were thrown upon it. In 1801 Prof. Ritter, of Jena, while re-

The Wedding Party

To the Editor of Woman's Page : To the Editor of Woman's Page:

Lear Madam — I am seeking some wedding advice, as I am going to be married soon in church. I am going to have two bridesmades, made of honor, best man, flower girl and ring bearer.

The things I am in doubt about are the duties of the maid of honor, best man and fust how the bridal procession is arranged.

L. R.

First in the wedding procession come the ushers, then the bridesmalds, followed by the flower girl, the ring bearer, the maid of honor and, last of all, the bride with her father. The bridegroom, with the best man, cuters from the vestry room and waits for the bride at The heat and waits for the bride at The heat. room and ware to feel the best to fit the chancel steps. The best eps the ring until it is called for ceremony. When the bride and com go up to the after the maid com go up to the after the wars for

The Family that serves

Victor Raisin Bread

at each meal is appreciative of palatable food and exacting as to healthful diet. It's crammed with delicious raisins!

In all our Stores

CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR MEN

Madras Shirts

Patterns-numerous and tasteful. Material-each the best in its class. The Cut-full and correct, with

Silk Neckwear Wool Reefers High in quality, beautiful in pattern, low in price. 50c & $1 to $3 $2 2.50, 3, 4, $5

Pure Linen Handkerchiefs Initialed Of beautiful texture and workmanship, a wonderful gift. Box of Six-Three Dollars

Marshall E. Smith & Bro. 35

The blouse

is the thing

this season,

and when you can knit one

 $\gamma_{ourself}$

in two shades

of wool with such charming result as this

it seems well worth the trouble of making the sweater.

The openwork stitch

is used.

Can You Tell?

By R. J. and A. W. Bodmer

Who Discovered Heat Rays

the colored band which is seen when hottest rays were those such as the yel-low ones, which give the most light, and in the year 1800 Sir William Herschel yellow part, but to his surprise did not stop there. When the thermometer peating the experiment, found that the black patches appeared slightly on those parts of the paper where the violet rays fell, and very strongly beyond these rays, when the spectrum was dark, proving that invisible rays existed at the violet end of the spectrum also.

Tomorrow-How did the Zodiac Receive Its Name?

Give Invalids a Chance

Kmas Gifts and Cards

SHUT-IN EXCHANGE

205 S. 16TH ST. EET

-DIAMOND-

JEWELRY

Nathan Simon

1531 CHESTNUT ST. Both Stores

Purchased on my

Confidential

Credit Plan

Gives immediate possession with small weekly or monthly payments, and cash advantages.

Fear not the vivid vamp!

'Tis true that men and moths are attracted by the bright lights. But know you also that what a man plays with that does he soon tire of.

If the vamp persists in being too vivid, a man is going to be a lot more afraid of her than it is ever necessary for his wife to be.

for his wife to be.

For every man is a coward at heart when it comes to women. Invariably a man will fall for the shy little thing with the scared-to-death eyes sooner than the melodramatic siren who demands a worm-like attitude.

It often happens in life's married drama that when a wife believes her husband is flirting with the star . his eyes have found something much more satisfying in the chorus, Copyright, 1922, by Public Ledger Company

Telling Which One

Alicia is going to give a card-party, and, being a careful person, she has started looking for prizes already, and making some, although the date she is planning on is still some time away. If pianning on is still some time away. If it's true that looking forward to things is more than half the fun, then she's having hers, because she even has the smallest of details all arranged. One of these is the numbering of the tables. She's been to so many parties where the general ery is:

the general cry is:
"What table is this meant to be?"
"Where is table four?" that she has made some little squares of tan cardboard each with border of gold paint, and a fast-black number of it. So no one will have a chance to get confused when one of these is placed or Incidentally her tallies will match the small signs, only, instead of the plump number, there will be a sim little silhouette on each one.

Things You'll Love to Make

An Interesting Tea Gown

This tovely gown is very simple, Use pedia and should you need the encyclopedia and should you need the encyclopedia you can consult one at the Free Library, Thirteenth and Lecust streets.

Drinking Milk

To the Editor of Woman's Pages. the center front from the bottom to point "A." Gather the bottom edges point "A." Gather the bottom edges and bind together. Attach a long tassel to the gathered point. Slit the front just above "A" at each side of the center front. Run a belt through these slits and fasten a long tassel of to the front of the belt. FLORA.

The "Food Drink" for All Ages. Quick Lunch at Home, Office and Fountains. Ask for HORLICK'S. Avoid Imitations & Substitutes are two of the necessary things for an old-fashioned Christmas You can't count on the snow every year, but you'll be sure to get the spirit of old-time

Super Fruit TASTYKAKE $1.00 a pound in 1 and 3 pound blue enameled tins.

Peggy Couldn't Quite Understand Whether Jane Was a Baby or Not

She Had Always Been One, but Then She Grew Into a Little Girl and Yet She Had to Be Treated Like a Baby!

TT IS a puzzling matter for Peggy. ■ The first time mother's friend came home for a visit, that is the first time Peggy began to know her, she brought her baby with her.

The baby's name was Jane, and she

Of course, it seemed silly to be jealous of just a beeby-but this one seemed to be so popular. It didn't have a thing that Peggy didn't have too, beautiful pink toes, a fat tummy, dimpled hands, a reluctant curl up the back of the head, and fine

But it could creep then, and some-how everybody paid too much attention red cheeks.

DEGGY was worried; her popularity it at all. wasn't threatened, she was just for themselves, as they go along. The as lovely and as loved as ever herself, spats they have now, which usually but it looked as if she would have to share the center of the stage with some ing bad impression on both.

Or the whole thing may clear itself

But, fortunately, the visit wasn't a long one and Jane's mother took her back to her daddy before anything happened.

That was last spring.

Now they're here again.

Now they're here again.

Now they're here again.

Jane walks now, a brisk, busy little trot that carries her into anything she wants to find out about, which is every nursery shelves, to the windows, when they rattle in the wind, and to the phonograph, when it plays to her.

It was carefully explained to Peggy towel until it at least approaches fluffithat Janie was older now, dear, and could walk along the street with her;

wouldn't that be nice?
"I'll teach her to walk!" declared l'eggy, the light of unselfish purpose shining in her big blue eyes.
Then she found that Jane didn't

The baby's name was Jane, and she was a sweet pink thing, all smiles, who lay on a couch and fought joyous battles with the atmosphere.

Peggy was only three then.
So she talked about the "beeby," patted her hands, and gave her "a nice kiss" every time she and Mother went to see the other family.

Then, later on that same year, Jane's mother brought her home again for another visit to her grandmother.

And Peggy didn't quite know what to do.

Of course, it seemed silly to be jealous

The baby's name was Jane, and she taught.

In FACT, Janie didn't have to be taught anything. She was distressingly grown up. And yet when l'eggy placed a facctious hand upon Janie's shoulder, in the course of their play, and shoved playfully, Janie offered no resistance, as she was expected to. She yielded softly to the pressure and plunked fatly down on the floor.

Mother was shocked. Peggy mustant, she said, push little Janie, she was a baby, she was too little for that kind of thing!

And so it's entirely beyond Peggy.

Janie isn't a baby any longer, she's too old to be taught to walk or talk or anything, and yet she's a baby; she anything, and yet she's a baby; she mustn't be pushed or shoved or treated roughly. What is she, then? What's it all

TS IT any wonder when children like

Peggy and Jane are unable to love each other as their mothers do? There's such a little difference in their ages, and yet so much difference that they cannot adjust themselves to It's a problem they have to work out thing.

For Oily Hair

She talks, too. All the time she talks, to you to her mother, to her "beeby," to the "wow-wows" who occupy a section of her heart and her to be fixed decently at all. In a hurry, where the section of her heart and her to be fixed decently at all. In a hurry, where the section of the heart and her to be fixed decently at all. In a hurry, where the section of the heart and her to be fixed decently at all. In a hurry, where the section of the heart and her to be fixed decently at all. In a hurry, where the section of the heart and her talks, to you are in-

A dainti-

$35.

$35 and $39.75 127 S. 13th St. and 1337 Chestnut St.

QUAKER SILKS Agents' 1104 Arch Street

A Real Sensation-! Canton Crepe de Chine

40 inches wide A Real $3.00 Value

A Lower Price than Present Wholesale Cost QUAKER SILKS are known for their wonderful values—but this special leads all others for the actual saving possible. A rich actual saving possible of the actual saving possible of the actual saving possible.

lustrous quality of wonderful, sustaining texture in all wanted shades, as—

White, Pink, Grey, Lark, Mocha, Bobolink, Coca, Henna, Navy Blue, Scal and Black.

Chiffon Taffeta $1.95

36-inch

Broadcloth Silks

32-inch

$3.00 to $3.50 Values A good assortment of change-ile colors and plan colors. For iternoon and evening freeks; so for draperies in the home.

Real $2.50 Value 60 different patterns and col-orings in this group. For men's shirts, women's house dresses and kiddles' rompers.

Christmas Fackages Malled Parcel Post Prepaid

suppose you think I'm anchored here." she said evenly. "Well, don't be ton