

Baked Guinea Hen Is the Savory Feature of Mrs. Wilson's Menu This Week

This Bird Will Form an Unusually Attractive Treat, and Then There's the Pie With Peaches to Complete an Excellent Dinner

By MRS. M. A. WILSON

Today is the first Friday in the month of December and the seasonable cold weather sharpens the appetite and the family expects mother to arrange a more abundant heat-producing menu.

The late fall harvest products and some of the early vegetable greens that are coming in from the Southern markets give the housewife almost an unlimited variety to select from for the Sunday menu.

Have you noticed the guinea fowl upon the market stalls? If so, you will find this gamey little bird very choice eating indeed.

The guinea hen will serve four ample portions, and can be made to serve five if you try it today in place of other meat.

Suggestive Menu for Three Meals on Sunday

Breakfast: Baked Apples, Cereal and Cream, French Toast With Honey, Coffee.

Dinner: Home-made Pickles, Fruit Cocktail, Brown Gravy, Au Gratin Potatoes, Washed Turnips, Cabbage Salad, Coffee.

Supper: Potato Salad Garnished with Eggs and Bacon, Whole Wheat Bread Cheese Sandwiches, Sliced Tomatoes, Sponge Cake, Tea.

Baked Guinea Hen: Prepare the guinea hen in the usual manner as for chicken and place in the guinea hen a poultry filling.

Cabbage Salad: Shred fine as for slaw one-half head of cabbage. Now chop the shaved cabbage fine and add:

One green pepper, minced fine, Two small onions, minced fine, Three branches of celery, minced fine.

For a dressing, place in small saucepan three-quarters cup of water, Two-thirds cup of vinegar, Three level tablespoons of corn-starch.

One and one-half teaspoons of mustard, One teaspoon of salt, Three-quarters teaspoon of white pepper.

Yolk of one egg, Beat hard to blend and bring to boiling point. Cook for five minutes, then add:

Three tablespoons of butter, One teaspoon of mustard seed, One-half teaspoon of celery seed.

Blend in well and pour while hot over the cabbage.

Hawaiian Peach Pie: Place in iron skillet

Many Suits and Frocks Depend Solely Upon Lines

By CORINNE LOVE: The side issues are certain—the main ones nowadays. Thus in this three-piece suit of heavy green rep we find the only break in the line of loose jacket and plain skirt achieved by drawing the folds of the former in at the waist.

It is to be noted that many of the most fashionable women nowadays seem to prefer suits and three-piece costumes which often eschew any such lavish material as we find on more popular. These garments depend on interesting and novel applications of folds or tucks to distinguish them. Puffed cords, both in this province and on wraps, are arranged in a sawtooth pattern which binds the wrap, suit or frock.

One and one-half cups of brown sugar, Two tablespoons of butter, Two tablespoons of water.

Cook to sirup. Now cover the bottom of the skillet, leaving the sugar sirup in the skillet with well-drained canned peaches. Now place in mixing bowl:

One cup of sugar, Yolks of three eggs, Cream well and add One-half cup of cold water, One and one-half cups of flour, Three level teaspoons of baking powder.

Sift the flour and baking powder together twice. Beat to smooth fine batter, then cut and fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the three eggs. Pour one-half of the sponge cake batter over the prepared peaches in the skillet and bake in slow oven for thirty-five minutes.

Turn the balance of the sponge cake in small well-greased and floured pan and bake for twenty minutes in slow oven. Use this cake for the supper.

When the Hawaiian pie is baked in Boston it is placed in the pie and turn at once from the skillet. This pie is served in the usual pie cuts with the plain sirup from the peach jar poured over when ready to serve to form a sauce.

MRS. WILSON'S ANSWERS: My Dear Mrs. Wilson—Kindly publish a menu for a New England Sunday night supper.

AGNES M. B.: Suggestive Dishes for New England

Baked Beans, Fried Potatoes, Apple Sauce, Creamed Finnan Haddie on Toast, Cold Slices of Cooked Corn Beef, Cold Cuts of Roast Beef or Pork, Stewed Fruit, Tea.

My Dear Mrs. Wilson—Please give recipe for making cole slaw and creamed cabbage.

How large a recipe do you require? All requests for recipes and cooking information must be accompanied by name and address. This is not for publication, but as evidence of good faith.

My dear Mrs. Wilson—Will you kindly give recipe how to make custard?

It will not pay you to attempt to preserve the marmos at home. They are treated by special process before preserving in the syrup; then, too, the variety of custards is the real factor. Those grown in the southern part of Europe are especially adapted for this work. Special utensils and long tedious process is needed to bring this fruit to perfection.

My dear Mrs. Wilson—Will you kindly give recipe how to make custard?

Use rotary egg-beater and whip for five minutes. Rub custard with butter liberally and fill with the custard. Set the custards in baking pan and fill the pan about two-thirds full of warm water. Bake in slow oven until when tasted the custard is baked.

To test the custard insert carefully a silver knife, and if no custard adheres to the knife the custard is baked. My usual recipe requires about forty minutes in slow oven to bake custards. The correct temperature is 300 degrees Fahr. Too much heat makes custards watery.

My dear Mrs. Wilson—Will you kindly tell me how to preserve chestnuts, called marrons. I have tried many times but they are always hard.

"SONGBIRD" SLAIN; MAN WOUNDED

Body of Evelyn M. Rainbow Found in Her Home—Boarder Badly Injured

"BROKE HEART," NOTE SAYS

Paterson, N. J., Dec. 8.—Responding to an anonymous telephone call early today, Paterson police found the body of Miss Evelyn Mabel Rainbow, a concert singer, on the floor in the basement of her house.

She had been shot twice through the heart. Nearby lay Harry Harter, who formerly boarded at the Rainbow home, dangerously wounded. He had been shot in the right temple and under the heart. Harter was removed to a Paterson hospital in a dying condition.

A note, evidently written after he had shot and killed Miss Rainbow, was found near Harter's body. It read: "Good-by. Give my watch and ring to David, my son. I am asking his forgiveness for the deed which I have done. I am taking the one with me who broke my heart and drove me to this." It was signed H. Harter.

A second note, addressed to Harter's wife, read: "I am asking forgiveness for this I can do nothing way out. Take care of father. Good-by. Good-by."

The police said that Harter, who is middle-aged, had separated from his wife several months ago. Miss Rainbow had conducted a music studio at her home since returning from a concert tour in Europe nine months ago.

SAYS HECTIC LIFE MAKES SOCIETY GIRLS OLD AT 20

Woman Doctor Finds Them Worn Out and Nerve-Tired

London, Dec. 8.—"Worn out at twenty" was the phrase applied to the modern society girl by Dr. Agnes Savill, eminent woman doctor, in a striking lecture before the London Institute of Hygiene.

"The society girl nowadays dispenses with a chaperon," she said, "and her mind is becoming poisoned by the hectic life that she leads, her cigarettes, whistles and sodas, and unwholesome meals. When she marries her standard of relationship with her husband and children will not be a high one."

"I have seen some of these girls. After a few years of society life they age by ten years, and already at the age of twenty they are as worn out and nerve-tired as if they were forty."

"I think the cocktail habit among young girls is a serious danger. It is lamentable a girl of twenty cannot take a meal without first having a cocktail."

Dr. Savill blames parents for what she describes as "this physical degeneration," asserting only they can remedy it.

WILSON IS "WONDERFUL PATIENT," HIS WIFE SAYS

Declares ex-President Better Than at Any Time of Illness

Baltimore, Dec. 8.—Mrs. Woodrow Wilson was the guest of women Democrats of Maryland, who gathered yesterday to celebrate the recent Democratic victory.

Mrs. Wilson said that former President Wilson, while not so far on the road to health as recent newspaper reports had indicated, was much better than he had been at any time since his recent illness.

"Mr. Wilson," she said, "is the most wonderful patient imaginable. He also has the greatest store of patience which it is possible to have, and he does exactly what he is told."

"He depends a great deal on his cane, but this dependence is noticeably less than it was several months ago. During the last summer he has made greater improvement than at any other time since his illness."

"A tonic which Doctor Grayson has prescribed for him is part of his daily regimen. He is absolutely faithful to it, and he has an excellent appetite."

Cherbourg, Dec. 8.—Joseph P. Tumulty, before embarking on the majestic yesterday with his seventeen-year-old daughter Mary, who was the victim of a grave automobile accident at Munich, said:

"Woodrow Wilson will henceforth play an important role in politics. The failure of the various international conferences and the difficulties met, notably at Lausanne, have made him regret more than ever that the League of Nations had not been taken seriously."

"He now is talking with greater conviction to this four-year-old project."

Work of Jewish Charities: Jacob Billikop, executive director of the Federation of Jewish Charities, will occupy the pulpit at Temple Beth Shalom, Broad and Courtland streets, tonight. He will describe the work of the fifty-three constituent agencies of the Federation in the relief of distress in Philadelphia throughout the year and of the plans of the Federation for 1923.
