Things You'll Love to Make

Cross-Stitching and Fringe Make an Effective New Cushion.

Here is a cushion that is new and attractive: Make a square cushion of silk, velvet or canvas. If of silk or velvet, use silk or wool for the trimming; if of canvas, wool or mercerized cotton will do. Applique to the center a rose-shaped piece of material of a lighter color than that of the cushion. Stitch the rose with cross-stitches of different shades. Sew a band of cross-stitched material to one narrow flat side of the cushion. Finish the edge with fringe. If canvas or monk's cloth is used for the cushion, the same material can be fringed for the trimming band. This makes a handsome Christmas gift.

A Bathrobe Is Among the Nicest $5 Gifts for Women

Practical, warm, pretty. Any woman who needs a bathrobe will be delighted to receive one for Christmas.

Made of a famous kind of bathrobe blanketing, which is especially soft and nappy. The neck is collarless, and satin ribbon trims the neck and front all the way to the hem.

Satin-trimmed pockets and sleeves and a silk cord girdle. Rose, pink, blue, gray and purple.

(Down Stairs Store, Central)

"Jeweled" Combs $1 to $4

$3.50

Fan-like ornaments that give one's evening coiffure a decidedly festive air.

Set with gleaming imitation sapphires, rubies, emeralds or topazes. Attractively boxed for Christmas giving.

(Down Stairs Store, Central)

Sterling Silver, Enameled or Gold-Filled Pencils, 35c to $1.50

Hung around the neck on a narrow black ribbon, they'll make attractive little ornaments and yet will be most convenient for jotting down the things one always wants to remember.

Sterling silver or gold-filled pencils, 35c to $1.50, according to size. Enameled ones, $1 and $1.50.

(Down Stairs Store, Central)

Double-Faced Velour Portieres, $14.50 to $23.50

Practical gifts that are decorative, too, and so well made that one can be proud to give them. Double French edges, of course, since many people like two-tone color combinations, and bound hems that will stand any amount of wear. 23, 36, 45 and 50 inches wide, according to price.

(Down Stairs Store Portiere Shop, Market)

Girls' Rubberized Silk Raincapes $6.75

Just can't imagine a girl who wouldn't be immensely pleased to receive one of these very good-looking hooded raincapes among her gifts. Bright stripes and plaids on blue and brown grounds. Billie Burke hoods have half linings. Sizes 8 to 14 years.

(Down Stairs Store, Market)

Sale of Women's All-Wool Stockings, 85c

More than two thousand pair at this extraordinary price. Plenty of all sizes from 8½ to 10 to start with, in gray, camel's-hair and heather brown. Made with the fashionable sports rib and in the weight most women prefer. They are "seconds," but such good ones that flaws are hard to find. First time we can remember offering all-wool sports hose at anything near this price.

(Down Stairs Store, Central)

Sale of Men's Pure Silk Mufflers, "Seconds," at $3.50

Soft, lustrous, pure-silk scarfs at less than the usual price for fiber. "Seconds," but the flaws consist mostly of a dropped thread or an irregularity in the weave; occasionally there is a mended place. Wide choice of college stripes and distinctive white and black, black and white and gray and black effects for dress.

(Down Stairs Store, Central)

Sale of Men's Clocked Silk Half Hose, 85c

The fancy silk half-hose that most men want. These are pure silk, too, in good shades of gray, navy, cordovan, as well as black. Woven especially for Wanamaker's, and the best-looking ones we have seen in a long time at this extremely low price. First quality. Their mercerized tops and soles will make them wear better.

Christmas Shipment Unpacked! Men's Blanket Bathrobes at $5

A few men say they are not gay enough, but that is their chief merit in most men's eyes. They are warm, long, plenty full bathrobes that really don't look too obviously like Christmas gifts. Instead, they tone in with the brown leather of the man's own chair—or the brown or deep green of his curtains.

They're quite the best $5 bathrobes we have seen in a long time.

As they sell out quickly, may we suggest that you order his size pretty promptly?
