

URGING STRICT ADHERENCE TO ALL DRY LAWS, President Harding is pictured above delivering his annual message to Congress. The Chief Executive touched on a score of subjects in his address, proposing extension of farm credits, suggesting abolition of Rail Labor Board and advocating Federal control of child labor.

PRIZE WINNING TABBY. Miss Emma Birkner and Sunny Lad, who captured first prize at the New York cat show.

TALKING THINGS OVER. Harry Mohr, brother-in-law of "Honest John Brunen," at door of cell with his lawyer, Walter S. Keown.

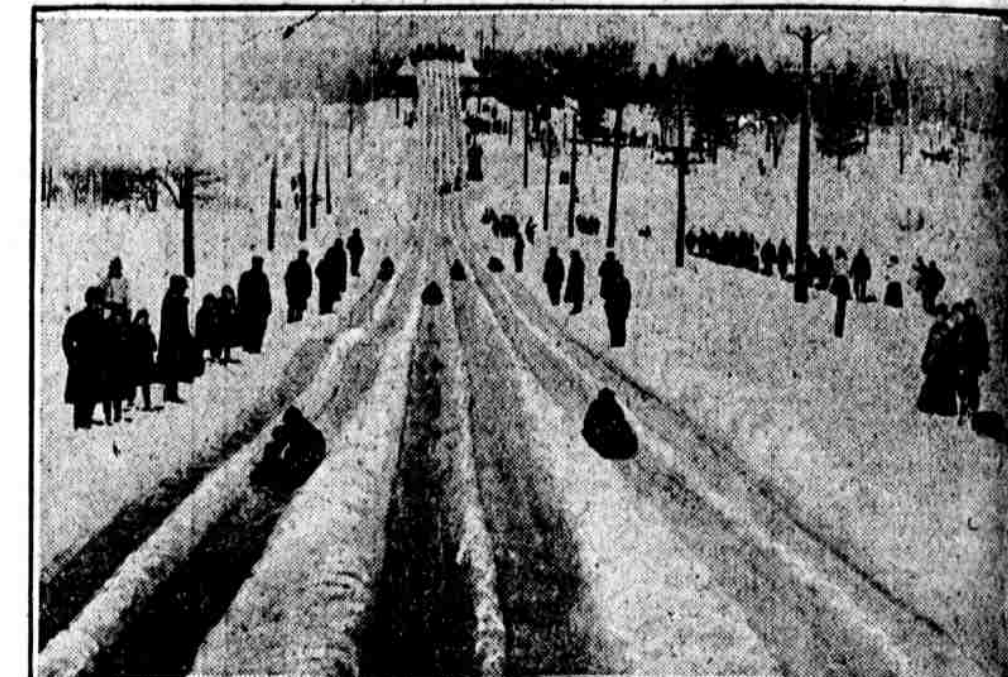

SCENE OF BRUNEN MURDER TRIAL which opened today. The interior of the courtroom at Mt. Holly, N. J., where Mrs. Doris Brunen and Harry Mohr, wife and brother-in-law of John Brunen, slain showman, are on trial for murder.

INDEPENDENCE SQUARE WEARING ITS FIRST BLANKET OF SNOW this season. Yesterday's incipient flurry, while bringing the first real taste of winter, proved a disappointment to the kiddies, its short duration dashing their visions of hobsleds and snowballs, sleigh-bells and slides.

MUD MEANT NOTHING IN THEIR YOUNG LIVES. Above is pictured a bit of action, when Morrell Mills, known as the "tapestry lads," undefeated in West Philadelphia section of the Allied Soccer League, played Centennial of the Allied First Division, yesterday, and won 2 to 0, both goals being scored by "Hook" Flynn, sensational front liner.

IN STRIKING CONTRAST TO YESTERDAY'S LIGHT FALL OF SNOW in this city, the above is a picture of the real thing, showing the Park slide in Montreal, Canada, where Jack Frost is no four-flusher. An out-door sport with lots of thrills.

VIGOROUS AND ALERT AS EVER, Clemenceau, the war Premier of France, is pictured above riding with Mayor Moore in his car en route to Independence Hall.

GENE SARAZEN present club used to win championship to President.

LIMBS TREES TO KEEP FIT. Miss Dorothy Knapp, recent winner of title of America's nearest perfectly timed girl, is a lover of out-door life, long hikes and tree climbing being numbered among her hobbies. The camera caught Miss Knapp quite unperturbed and comfortable on her dizzy perch, high in the branches of a great tree.

M.L.E. MARGUERITE MASSART, 22, first Belgian woman obtaining engineering honors.

AMONG THOSE HELPING sale of disabled soldiers' work at Women's Overseas Shop, 628 Market street, are Miss Margaret N. Robins, Mrs. Oswald Chew, Dr. Alice Tallant.

THE SOLID AND UNENDING STREAM OF AUTOMOBILE TRAFFIC of today is absent in this picture of Market street, looking east from Thirteenth, as it appeared in 1902. Contributed by Newell Studios, 255 South Sixth. Send us your old-Philadelphia photographs.

GIRL SCOUTS WIN HONORS AT COURT OF AWARDS. Mrs. David Stern, Chairman of Court, is pictured on the left presenting Dorothy Pearlman with twelve badges. Dorothy, a member of Troop 89, received the highest number of individual awards. On the right, Mrs. James Newlin, Chairman of the local council, is presenting Ethel Campbell, Captain of Troop 187, with banner given as prize for best troop.

MANY TOOK ADVANTAGE OF THE FINE WEATHER on Saturday to do their Yuletide shopping early. Above is a view of the noon rush of shoppers caught by the camera at Eleventh and Market streets, attesting the rapid approach of Christmas.

SIR GEORGE BARRELL, of British Admiralty, sails for Europe.

DR. WILLARD B. SMALL to head College of Education at U. of M.

SENATOR DAVID A. REED, of Pennsylvania, receives Distinguished Service Medal.

PRINCESS ANASTASIA, American wife of Prince Christopher of Greece, to visit U. S.

ANOTHER "MOST PERFECT" GIRL. Miss Marguerite Martin, 15, wins recent National contest.

NAVY DEVELOPS HUGE CAMERA FOR AIR WORK. Chief Aerial Photographer, J. M. F. Haas, is shown with new invention for making photographs for observation, mapping and other purposes.

BARONESS K. MANCHEUR, daughter of Belgian Ambassador to Court of St. James.

MISS EVE CLAPP WHITE, Tennessee debutante, is visiting in Washington.

ADMIRAL BRISTOL, American High Commissioner, and General Harington, British Commander in Near East, photographed as Admiral left for Peace Conference.

REV. DR. WILLIAM L. DE VRIES, Chancellor of Washington Cathedral of St. Peter and Paul.