

WE HAVE... COALS... INSTITUTIONS WHICH FACED CLOSING GET BUCKWHEAT FUEL WHERE IT CAN BE USED

SPROUL URGES BITUMINOUS

Public schools of the city which were threatened with forced closing because of the lack of coal have an adequate supply of fuel, Frederick W. Sproul, who is in charge of coal distribution for the schools, announced today.

KING OF MELODRAMA VERY ILL IN DRESDEN

Theodore Kremer, author of "Fatal Wedding" and others, is very ill in Dresden, Germany, according to a cablegram received by New York theatrical producers yesterday.

THREE PERSONS HURT WHEN TRAIN HITS SWITCH ENGINE

Smash at Dickson City Demolishes Two Locomotives. Three persons were injured at Dickson City early today when a Delaware and Hudson passenger train struck a switch engine.

FIND PHOTOS OF WIDOW ON MAN HELD FOR MURDER

Sheriff Declares He Saw Prisoner's Kiss Woman's Pictures. Photographs of Mrs. Zella Morgan, widow of Robin Morgan, drowned last August in Kawaskum River, were found on a man held for murder.

MIKADO'S TROOPS OUT OF KIAOCHOW TOMORROW

Will Not Remain in Control Until Next Wednesday. The Japanese cabinet, meeting in Tokyo, Dec. 12, decided to order the withdrawal of Japanese troops from Kiaochow tomorrow.

STEAMSHIP TOTAL LOSS

Oteric, Aground on California Coast, Being Pounded to Pieces. San Francisco, Dec. 12.—The Irish tramp steamer Oteric, which was on Fish Rock, seventy miles north of here, in a dense fog at night, was being pounded to pieces.

TRENTON WOMAN DIES AT 103

Trenton, Dec. 12.—Mrs. Rosalia Cohen, 103 years of age, and Trenton's oldest resident, died last night at her home.

THEY'RE "PARKED" WHILE MAMMA DEBATES

CLUBWOMEN "PARK" BABIES TO ATTEND WEEKLY MEETINGS

"Garage" for Youngsters Is Latest Scheme of Narberth Organization to Help Out Mothers. Parking permitted after 2:30. And it is this privilege which makes it possible for mothers who are members of the Narberth Women's Community Club to attend the meetings at the Y. M. C. A. which are held every other Tuesday.

The little miss peeping forth from soft pink baby robes, Nancy Crow, four months old, was wheeled in her gray "automobile" to the parking garage. With impetuous, bright eyes she looked about her and reached forth a dimpled hand toward a colored boy who was kneeling in the air, blinking at a flashlight, and anxiously remembered about having her picture taken.

CANDIDATES ELECTED TO PHANTOM OFFICES

Paradox Marks Defeat of New Illinois Constitution. Chicago, Dec. 12.—(By A. P.)—The majority against the Constitution prepared by a convention elected in 1919 to replace that under which Illinois has operated fifty-two years, today was 698,267, with indications the final vote would show rejection by 650,000.

DAVIS ASKS DEPORTATION OF ALIENS WHO RESIST LAW

Secretary Also Advises Enrollment for Education in Americanism. Washington, Dec. 12.—Deportation of aliens who actively resisted the organized government or are disposed to treat lightly the institutions of law and order, was advised yesterday by Secretary Davis in a statement coming with the naturalization law.

TO PAY FOR MINE CAVES

Action Follows Failure of Kohler Law Before Highest Court. Wilkes-Barre, Dec. 12.—Officials of Lehigh Valley and Glen Alden coal companies, two of the largest in the anthracite field, today made known their willingness to reimburse owners for all property damaged by mine caves.

SEEK BEST WARBLED

Pedigreed Songbirds Entered in International Competition. Chicago, Dec. 12.—Seeking the bird with the most beautiful voice in the world, delegates of the International Roller-Breeder Association, meeting here today, will select it from a list of 1500 pedigreed songsters, among which are the champion singers of England, Germany, United States and Canada.

ILL. CONSTITUTION BEATEN

Majority Against New Document May Reach 700,000. Chicago, Dec. 12.—Illinois voters have rejected the proposed new State Constitution by a majority that probably will exceed 700,000.

TYPHUS RAGES IN IRELAND

Entire Families Perish in County Mayo Is Report. London, Dec. 12.—(By A. P.)—An epidemic of typhus of a virulent type is sweeping through the County of Mayo in the northwestern part of the island of Great Britain.

OBESITY DAMAGES $1000

Woman Receives Award by Jury Due to Railroad Accident. Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 12.—(By A. P.)—For all of the increase in weight from 100 to 375 pounds, which she gained as the result of a railroad accident, Mrs. Lorene Caldwell was awarded $1000 damages against the Chicago and Alton Railroad by a jury in Federal court here yesterday.

RELIEF WORKER DEAD

George Williams Pneumonia Victim in Near East. Constantinople, Dec. 12.—A wireless dispatch from the American Consulate at Samouni, in the Near East, announced the death of George Williams, one of the relief organization directors.

TURKEY DECLINES MINORITY CONTROL

Definitely Refuses to Provide Land as National Home for Armenians. Lausanne, Dec. 12.—Turkey refused today's session of the Near East Conference to accept a special part of Turkey as a national home for the Armenians.

ISMET WARNED BY CURZON

Lord Curzon warned Ismet that there would be no sympathy anywhere in the world for Turkey if the conference broke down on the question of the minorities in Turkey. Besides declaring Turkey would not set aside an inch of Turkish soil for an Armenian national home, he said she would not accept the regulation of the rights of minorities by an international commission in Constantinople or elsewhere.

MOSCOW CONFERENCE COLLAPSE REPORTED

Russia Refuses to Sign Non-Aggression Pact at Outset. London, Dec. 12.—The Moscow Disarmament Conference has failed to reach an agreement and has broken up, says a Reuters dispatch from Helmsford, England. Moscow, Dec. 12.—(By A. P.)—A joint declaration signed by Poland, Latvia, Estonia and Finland demanding the signing of a non-aggression pact by the United States, was today rejected by the United States.

MINE OPERATOR CONVICTED

Hays Wins Suit Against Arbogast and Coal Policemen. Ebersburg, Pa., Dec. 12.—I. J. Arbogast, president of the United Coal Miners' Association, at Vintondale, and four coal and iron policemen, charged with forcibly preventing Arthur Garfield Hays and John Butler, of New York City, from holding a meeting at Vintondale last spring, were convicted of assault by a jury last night.

STINNES PREPARED TO WITHDRAW AID

Berlin, Dec. 12.—Hugo Stinnes, through a special article in his newspaper, the Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, warned Premier Poincare that occupation of the Ruhr will terminate the Stinnes-Lubbers agreement for delivery of building material to the devastated areas of France.

TUMULTY URGES AID ABROAD

Warns of Danger to U. S. if Europe Is Not Stabilized. New York, Dec. 12.—America, in the journey of progress, has reached a cross-road and must follow either the path that leads to peace, or the other, which is war, Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to President Wilson, declared yesterday upon his return from Europe.

GIRL REFUSES JUDGESHIP

Kansas Young Woman Says She Was Elected Through Joke. Nickerson, Kan., Dec. 12.—Clubwomen jokingly wrote her name on the ballot, thus causing her to win in the recent election, Miss Clara Arnold, when asked to qualify for the office of Justice of Peace and Police Judge.

BLACK AND TANS EMIGRATE

Sydney, N. S. W., Dec. 12.—Forty members of the Black and Tans, the former Royal Irish Constabulary auxiliary force, have arrived here with their families to settle on farms. They were given pensions and assisted in settling overseas.

Artist Bridegroom

Philadelphia artist who married Mrs. Marion Foss in New York yesterday. He divorced his first wife, who was Sara L. Homans, in November, 1921.

PHILADELPHIA ARTIST WEDDED IN NEW YORK

New Bride of W. H. K. Yarrow Is Mrs. Marion Foss. William H. K. Yarrow, of 1565 Locust street, and Mrs. Marion Foss, of the home of Henry Fairfield Osborn, Jr., in New York.

DEATHS OF A DAY

Edwin J. Price, a resident of the United States Naval Home, died yesterday afternoon. He was seventy-six years old and had lived in the home two years.

CHILE INVITES NATIONS

Brazil Denies It Will Not Be Able to Attend Conference. Santiago, Chile, Dec. 12.—(By A. P.)—The Chilean Government has sent invitations to all the American nations to participate in the Pan-American Conference at Santiago, beginning March 29.

TWO MINERS KILLED

Lackawanna County Leads in Number of Fatalities for November. Scranton, Dec. 12.—Mines claimed two more victims in this vicinity yesterday. Joseph Kavinsky, a miner, was crushed to death beneath a fall of top coal in the Taylor mine of the Glen Alden Company, and Joseph Moloski was caught in a blast in the Erie Colliery at Forest City.

APARTMENTS TO SUIT EVERY PURSE

And meet every requirement. Four quality by contract. Apartment building on page 34.—Adv.

PEARLS, DIAMONDS AND OTHER PRECIOUS STONES

To Perpetuate Christmas Symbolism. NECKLACES, BAR PINS, BROOCHES, BRACELETS, FINGER RINGS, WRIST WATCHES, PENDANT WATCHES, SCARF PINS, CUFF LINKS.

JACOB REED'S SONS

1424-1426 Chestnut St. A very desirable type of Neckties. The extra twisting of the fabric assures good service. Berkeley's tie well into the small, smart-looking knot that is so largely favored. $2.50, $3.00 and $3.50.

MOTORMAN DRIVES ON AFTER KILLING

Denies Knowing His Car Had Decapitated Man at 20th St. and Montgomery Ave. Car Continues On. The wheels of the car severed Crawley's head from his body and crushed his abdomen. The accident occurred at the intersection of 20th and Montgomery streets, and he continued on without stopping.

ARRESTED AFTER CHASE

Fred H. Kleindienst, a P. R. T. motorman, will have a preliminary hearing today on charges growing out of a trolley accident in which his car ran over and killed Charles Crawley, sixty-five years old, 1730 Park avenue, last night. He maintains he did not know the accident occurred.

DIER LOSES COURT FIGHT

Permission to Withdraw Plea of Not Guilty Denied. New York, Dec. 13.—Edward M. Fuller, head of the bankrupt stock-brokerage firm of E. M. Fuller & Co., and E. D. Dier, whose brokerage house also is bankrupt, yesterday lost court rights intended to pave the way to motions to quash indictments charging them with bucketing orders of customers.

Patrol Wagon in Crash

At Broad and Wood a rear of the patrol wagon collided with an automobile driven by Henry Haynes, of West Penn street, Germantown.

Patrol Wagon in Crash

The force of the impact stove in the rear of the patrol wagon. Haynes was arrested by the patrol crew, charged with reckless driving. Crawley had a room at the Park avenue address. His only known relative is a cousin, Mrs. A. P. Valentine, 212 High street, Germantown. She was notified.

Patrol Wagon in Crash

His identity was not known until his pocket bearing his name was found. For years Crawley was employed as a clerk in the Philadelphia freight station at Front and Noble streets.

Patrol Wagon in Crash

His identity was not known until his pocket bearing his name was found. For years Crawley was employed as a clerk in the Philadelphia freight station at Front and Noble streets.

Patrol Wagon in Crash

His identity was not known until his pocket bearing his name was found. For years Crawley was employed as a clerk in the Philadelphia freight station at Front and Noble streets.

Patrol Wagon in Crash

His identity was not known until his pocket bearing his name was found. For years Crawley was employed as a clerk in the Philadelphia freight station at Front and Noble streets.

Patrol Wagon in Crash

His identity was not known until his pocket bearing his name was found. For years Crawley was employed as a clerk in the Philadelphia freight station at Front and Noble streets.

Patrol Wagon in Crash

His identity was not known until his pocket bearing his name was found. For years Crawley was employed as a clerk in the Philadelphia freight station at Front and Noble streets.

Patrol Wagon in Crash

His identity was not known until his pocket bearing his name was found. For years Crawley was employed as a clerk in the Philadelphia freight station at Front and Noble streets.

Patrol Wagon in Crash

His identity was not known until his pocket bearing his name was found. For years Crawley was employed as a clerk in the Philadelphia freight station at Front and Noble streets.

Patrol Wagon in Crash

His identity was not known until his pocket bearing his name was found. For years Crawley was employed as a clerk in the Philadelphia freight station at Front and Noble streets.

Patrol Wagon in Crash

His identity was not known until his pocket bearing his name was found. For years Crawley was employed as a clerk in the Philadelphia freight station at Front and Noble streets.

Patrol Wagon in Crash

His identity was not known until his pocket bearing his name was found. For years Crawley was employed as a clerk in the Philadelphia freight station at Front and Noble streets.