

TRIBUTE TO MEMORY OF JOHN WANAMAKER at Independence Hall. For first time in city's history flags were half-staffed on municipal buildings in honor of private citizen

BIRTHPLACE OF JOHN WANAMAKER. This is the house in which the great merchant was born, situated in "the neck" near Landreth's seed farm

ABANDONS BRIDE AND THRONE FOR FIRST LOVE. Crown Prince Carol of Rumania, who for the second time threw away his chance to the Rumanian throne by deserting his wife, is pictured on the left. In the center is the Princess Carol, formerly Princess Helene of Greece and her baby. Mile. Zizi Lombaine, the morganatic wife of Prince Carol, to whom he has returned, is pictured on the right

FOURTEEN-YEAR-OLD MASTER OF HOUNDS. Miss Cicely Troyte Bullock is probably world's youngest master of hounds, attaining great success recently leading the Seals House Beagles in England

TO TRIP THE LIGHT FANTASTIC TOE. Louis Crescenta and Ellen Tanzola of George W. Childs Public School, Seventeenth and Tasker streets, in their dance for the Annual Childs School Frolic, to be held Saturday night

SCENE OF HAVOC WROUGHT BY EARTHQUAKE IN CHILE. All that remains of building used as American consulate at Coquimbo, reduced to ruins following the great quake and tidal wave which swept the coast

MRS. MURIEL MacSWINEY, widow of Irish Republican leader who died in prison, arrives in city. Photographed at station with Miss Kathleen Boland and Miss Linda Kerns

GOVERNOR-GENERAL TIMOTHY HEALY OF IRELAND is pictured above chatting amiably with a Free State trooper in the garden of his Dublin home

LITTLE SANTA CLAUS. Mildred Keller, eight-year-old girl scout, made all these dolls for charity

JACK FROST IS KING IN SWITZERLAND, and here are two of his "subjects" making the most of his "rule" at Murren. Sledding is now popular among the younger set at that resort

GENE SARAZEN, National open golf champion, gives a lesson to little Jannet Grim, diminutive golf fan

APPEAR IN "MESSAGE OF THE STAR" allegory at the Bellevue-Stratford. Miss Lillian Miedel as "Mercy," and Miss Edna Christie Collins, member of cast

COL. WILLIAM H. HASKELL, Director American relief, arrives from Russia

DUKE OF ABERCORN, appointed Governor General of North Ireland

WHO SAID THE BASEBALL SEASON WAS OVER? The camera caught a "Big League" game on Thirty-third street below Walnut at a critical moment, with three "men" on bases and a pinch-hitter at the bat

DR. BALTASAR BRUM, President of Uruguay, challenges political rival

IGNACIO CALDERON, Bolivia's veteran diplomat, announces intention to retire

FLORENCE WALTON, noted dancer, to wed Leon Leitrim, dancing partner

MRS. M. BRETTE at cake counter of Mothers' Club Bazaar

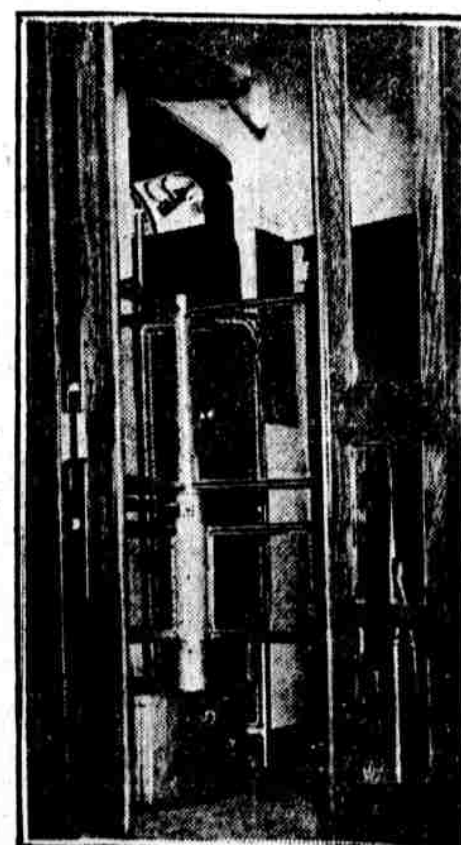

KING CHRISTIAN OF DENMARK greeting children at "All-Holland" festival, picturesque affair celebrating 400th anniversary of colony

USING CORNERSTONE AS PLATFORM, William Jennings Bryan addressed largest Masonic gathering in Florida at cornerstone laying of Scottish Rite Cathedral

HEAVY SNOWSTORMS CHARACTERIZED THE WINTER OF 1896. An old-time trolley is shown running between canyon-like snow drifts in this picture of Old York road at Duncannon avenue, taken during that winter. Contributed by H. Palmer, 1709 Mount Vernon street. Please send us your old-Philadelphia photographs

PAY-AS-YOU-LEAVE TROLLEY introduced in New York. Time cut in two by pneumatic turnstile door, shown on left, and change-box, pictured on right, which makes change automatically. Door flashes "Full" sign when car's capacity has been reached. Then you drop nickel, or you can't get out

