

RELIGIOUS VIEWS CAUSE
DISMISSAL OF PROFESSOR

Dr. Slaten Removed From Faculty of William Jewell College
Liberty, Mo., Dec. 12.—(By A. P.)—Dr. A. Wakefield Slaten has been dismissed from the faculty of William Jewell College here, according to John S. Majors, president of the board of college trustees, after a request of the trustees that he resign was refused.
Disapproval by the more conservative element in the Baptist Church of some of Dr. Slaten's views, adduced in his discourses in biblical history and religious education, was assigned as the reason for dismissal, which will be effective Friday.

Dr. Slaten said last night conservatives of the church had threatened to withdraw support of a $400,000 campaign for funds for the college unless he was dismissed.
Dr. Slaten is author of a book, "What Jesus Taught." He recently was said to have expressed the belief that "the deepest religious attitude is entirely compatible with a world view in harmony with present knowledge."
Wolves Near Gates of Rome
Rome, Dec. 13.—(By A. P.)—Five persons were frozen to death in Rome Monday night and similar cases are reported from other cities. The Apennines are covered with snow. Wolves, because of the lack of food, have descended to the plains and are seen almost at the gates of the capital.
