He won the [illegible] Schaffer, [illegible] choice for the [illegible]

Dick Seeds is the [illegible] to those who [illegible] on the soccer [illegible] make them [illegible] picious beginning [illegible] tion of [illegible] started to make a name for himself.

His one hobby [illegible] soccer. His [illegible] moments have been spent on the [illegible] lot kicking a soccer ball. He [illegible] the games, his [illegible] are an inborn [illegible] Richard Seeds.

Father Was Star Player

The senior Seeds was a star [illegible] player in his day. He was a member of the old Lemon [illegible] combination [illegible] on that team when it made the St. Louis [illegible]

Mr. Seed [illegible] interest in his son and [illegible] fundamentals of [illegible] years young Seeds [illegible] Division School [illegible] each season. On [illegible] and weeks he was [illegible] forward passes and [illegible] that caused [illegible]

For three years [illegible] the [illegible] Schools League. From [illegible] 1918 Dick had a [illegible] which [illegible] and [illegible] its outstanding star, [illegible] Seeds. It had taken [illegible] years to [illegible] him, but it [illegible] the long wait because he became [illegible] rank.

In the [illegible] season Dick won the [illegible] the Interscholastic [illegible] School League [illegible] each year for the [illegible]

When Seeds [illegible] high school [illegible] did not take him [illegible] berth on the [illegible] soccer team. Needless to say he made the team without difficulty and was [illegible] a regular.

In 1921 he was promoted to the varsity squad. There was a [illegible] promising young player by the name of Schwartz in the center forward position at the time and to maintain [illegible] Seeds participating in every game [illegible] two [illegible] changed places [illegible] other game.

Inside right and [illegible] were the passing [illegible] stars. However, [illegible] season the Frankford coach [illegible] convinced that Seeds deserved the center forward [illegible] 1922 season found him at that berth.

Had Banner Year

The last year was a banner one. A championship for the team was one of its crowning features. So [illegible] much to bring about the [illegible] scored twenty-six goals during the season and three more goals in the league games.

Against Germantown [illegible] Southern High Seeds [illegible] splitting past the goalkeepers of these schools eight times and got one past the central tender.

Seeds is only a sophomore. This is due to the fact that he left school for a half year in 1921. This, therefore, gives him two more years to play on the Frankford soccer team. Seeds is seventeen years old.

When the school soccer season has ended Seeds will continue his activities with the Division Junior team, which plays in the fourth division of the Allied League. This team [illegible] times playing each Saturday [illegible] middle of March.

Seeds' [illegible] is [illegible] tiful kicking. He [illegible] almost any shot from the 25-yard line. His kicks are low and generally [illegible] As the Frankford coach put it, "He puts them [illegible] and doesn't kick it."
