MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
THE ASSOCIATED PRESS is a corporation organized under the laws of the United States of America. It is not a newspaper and does not publish any news or information of any kind. It is a service organization which furnishes news and information to its members, the newspapers and news agencies of the United States and other countries.

WHERE IT HURTS MOST

WHATEVER may be said of the coal shortage and whatever apologies or explanations may be presented in impugning statistics will not obscure the fact that multitudes of the poorer people in this part of the country will have to pay with a very dreary and unhappy Christmas for excesses chargeable against the unions and mine operators who were involved in the coal strike.

LAMBERTON BARS SPATS

SHERIFF LAMBERTON has put his foot down hard on that proposition of State Senator-elect Vane that a lot of local offenders wear spats and some other articles of wearing apparel and parade in Harrisburg in honor of the new Governor on inauguration day. He says that he will discharge any articles of his office who absent himself on that occasion.

INCOME-TAX SENSE

THE last installment of income-tax payments for 1921 is due today. The first payment of the tax on incomes of the current year will not be due until March 15. There is no escaping the heavy surtaxes of the present law on last year's incomes.

equitable system it would have sought investment in private industry.
The Secretary of the Treasury thinks this evil could be cured if Congress were empowered to tax the bonds of the States and municipalities. But the simplest way to cure it is to reduce the Federal taxes to a reasonable figure.

NEW DISARMAMENT PLANS ARE PREMATURE NOW

In Its Commendable Zeal for Further Naval Reforms the House Overlooks Some Delicate and Pressing Problems

THE report, introduced in the Naval Appropriations bill, that President Harding should institute an international program to limit a class of smaller types of war vessels and of aircraft and submarines, is one of the most delicate questions before the Washington Conference of a program. Fears that the reasons for it be worked on the issue, to the consideration of which France was particularly opposed, led to its shelving.

THE RIGHT STRATEGY

THE Ku Klux Klan will prosper under the attacks of the interests and influences which it is organized to combat. Those influences and interests will be wise if they are silent.

A RESURRECTION

FOR a ghost, a shade, a wraith, a phantom, the League of Nations is disappearing, assuming cooperative powers. It is involved in League to settle the world and trade union of racial minorities in the Turkish dominions.

PERSONAL COURAGE OF JOHN WANAMAKER Illustrated by One or Two Little-Known Incidents in His Career
By SARAH D. LOWRIE
A GREAT deal will be said in the papers concerning the business career and management of John Wanamaker, but I am curious to see if, among the countless accounts of his life, one of the most striking of his characteristics, public or private, will be much dwelt upon, and that is, his personal courage.

SHORT CUTS

It will soon be too late to do your Christmas shopping early.
Incidentally, the small boy won't love the SPUG any more this year than last.
Clemenceau by this time has had time to digest the food for thought we gave him.
It appears to be W. J. Burns who is on trial at the Daugherty impeachment proceedings.
For an unofficial observer Ambassador Child uses brave words. Does he carry a stick?
The odds are two to one that you don't really know what your wife wants for Christmas.
