Carberry, center of the Germantown second team, broke his ankle in the first balf of the second-team game, which was won by the Clivedens, 21 to 20.

Southern High won its fourth straight league and seventh straight game of the year in turning back Central High, 41 to 16. The first half was hard fought and, due to the individual efforts of "Chicky" Edwards, the colored star of the Mirrors, ended 14 to 7.

When the champions got started in the last half the game was soon put on ice. Goldblatt gave a splendid exhibition from the 15-foot mark. "Menchy" shot nine straight fouls, bringing his total for the day to fifteen out of eighteen attempts.

koch also tried his hand at foul shooting in the final period, and made good all four tries. In the middle of the second half Dr. O'Brien, the Central coach, removed two of his regulars to save them for later games. The subs. however, were unable to hold Koch and foldblatt, the former getting three more field goals and the latter accounting for two additional two-pointers.

The Central line-up was shifted considerably at the start of the game. Edwards was moved to forward and the vacant guard berth was filled by Kinderman, who has been made eligible. This benched Bill Fischer, who has been playing regularly at forward.

"You know," said Bill this morning, "we old fellows might not look like football players today because of a little more obesity than we should have, but I'll bet that we give those kids out there a battle. It should be a good game, particularly because we will have so many capable substitutes.

"The game will be like old home week. A dozen or more of the men who will play this afternoon have come from distant points and have not been around Franklin Field for years. Letters I have received during the last week show every one to be enthusiastic about the game. It is a wonderful tes-

Gibbons today had to his credit in the boxing records his first clean-cut victory over his fellow-townsman. Billy Miske, in five ring contests. He earned it rather easily last night in ten rounds, getting the unanimous decision of two judges and the referee in the first decision bout permitted since boxing was legalized in Minnesota.

On the strength of that victory his manager asserted Gibbons had established his claim for a contest with Jack Dempsey for the heavyweight championship, and immediately after the bout telegraphed to Tex Rickard at New York requesting consideration of the St. Paul boxer.

Gibbons was unable to put over a knockdown punch, but was the master of Miske from the start. In only one round did Miske show to decided advantage, the sixth, when he caught Temmy with a right-hand swing that partly closed one eye. Miske lost two teeth and was cut about the face.

Gibbons' punches to the stomach and kidneys had Miske in distress more than once, and at the finish Billy was groggy while Tom was fairly fresh.
