EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA; WEDNEGDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1922 IVENING PUBLIC LEDGER

 a part of aocetoty which is not difpose to aecept the "dry" edicts of Congress a a gucept the principee. The prantiese or crooked polltics has been mado so enor crooked politicas has been mado so enormously proftabbe by the appearance of booslemger booteggers that hope of better thing becomes daily more remote.
Enforcement Enforcoment of prohibition cannot be controlled by the Governors, as the Gov ernors themselves must know. The ernors themselves must know. The political element that must must be reformed and eonvineed before the Voisted liw can be made operative All this may be observed in paasing tinue to deceieve ourselves hopes and falser assumptions. RECRUDESCENCE OF OLD BRYAN-POPULIST NOTIONS
