Nancy Wynne Tells of the Party at the Rabbit Last Night Given for Miss Evelyn Martin by Mr. and Mrs. John White Geary—Miss Schenck Honor Guest

THE party the John White Gearys gave last night for Evelyn Martin at the Rabbit was lots of fun. The guests were asked to go at half-after five, you know, and the girls helped cook the dinner while the men served the "rats" once they were cooked. Then after dinner, there was jazz music by a Negro orchestra and everyone danced. It was great. Those small affairs, there were just about thirty-five guests, but usually much more fun than larger ones.

There was another small party last evening which was very delightful. Mr. Joseph Schenck, Jr., of Wynnewood, gave a dance at the Bellevue-Stratford for his daughter Mary, who came out at a tea early in the season. Mrs. Joseph Schenck, Mary's grandmother, received the guests with her son and daughter. Mary looked sweet in a dress of rose-colored velvet made on plain lines, and Mrs. Schenck chose a handsome gown of black lace and tulle over black satin. There were about one hundred and fifty guests, and supper was served about 12 o'clock.

I HEAR that Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Borette of Concord, Mass., are on their way to Europe. Mr. Borette is a director of music at the Conservatory of Cleveland and Columbus and at Bryn Mawr College also, and while he was staying with the Morrises several of his pupils visited him in the city before his departure. Musical evenings they have been having in consequence. Incidentally, too, Miss Marianne Lowell, of Boston, and Miss Katherine Davis, of Concord, are on their way to Europe to stay with Miss Catherine Morris at the Annex.

HAVE you heard that Miss Marian Tomlin is going to China in the spring? She is going for five years, I understand, and will be at the Board of Missions there. I have not heard in what city she will be. You know, Marian was in the city for a few days here for several years. She is one of the Savoy Company enthusiasts and every one will miss her very much. I am glad to hear that she is going. She will put on this year. I suppose it's time for "Patience" or "The Pirates." Last year they gave "Jolante" and will you ever forget those "Pirates" and "Mikado" before that. I always like those last two best.

FATHER and mother are very particular about the manners of the children at the table. They are never allowed to get up and go out of the room without specially asking to be excused, and never are they allowed to speak while food remains in their mouths. The other day Charlie, who had received a wonderful engine and motor, suddenly rose from his chair, without a word and started to leave the room. His father called him, "Charlie, what do you say if I find you talking and wish to leave the table?" "Can't," said Charlie. "Mou's full."
