

BAIZLEY TO HEAD SHOOTERS' PARADE

Former Councilman Selected as Grand Marshal for New Year's Day March

SILVER CROWN IN VAN

Positions of the various clubs that will march in the mums' parade on New Year's Day were allotted last night at a meeting of Council's Committee on Celebrations in Room 406, City Hall.

Councilman David J. Frankensfeld, chairman of the committee, and Alezia J. Linsburner, representing the municipality, announced the following order of appearance and the number of men in line of the shooters' organizations:

FANCY DIVISION
Silver Crown, 500 men, three bands; Lobsters, 600, three bands; Charles Klein, 1100, four bands.

COMM
East Side, of Camden, 600 men, two bands; League Island, 850, three bands; Daniel O'Connell, 1200, four bands; Camden Clowns, 1500, three bands; Pumpernickel, of Scranton, 600; Ole Bull, 550, one band; Frank Collins, 500, three bands; B' Ribb, 100, one band; Liberty Club, 200, four bands.

STRING BANDS
Trio, Darby, 80 men; Progressive, 50; Ferrel, 125; Hegeman, 80; Quaker City, 80; South Philadelphia, 65; North Philadelphia, 70; Reach, 75; Aquia, 75.

Councilman Linsburner announced $20,000 had been appropriated for the coming parade, the largest sum in history, he said. John H. Baizley, former Councilman and for many years active in the mums' parade, was chosen grand marshal. H. Bart McHugh again was delegated to make general arrangements.

Many representatives of clubs attended the meeting. Several made addresses, in which they said the prizes awarded to the marchers do not begin to compensate them for their outlay.

ASSURED OF LODGING

Stranded Youths Held in Ball to Get Shelter
Dominic Davito and Dominic Lazare, of Camden, were held in $400 ball in this city for court yesterday, department store detectives having said they caught them stealing.

The young men told Magistrate Renshaw at City Hall, that they had been out of luck and had no money. "I will send you to a place where, at least, you will get something to eat and find a spot to lay your head," said the magistrate.
