

Many Organizations Give Bountiful Supplies to Thousands of Deserving

CHEER FOR YOUNG AND OLD

ER

Thousands of deserving poor throughout this city were bountifully supplied with food today by various charitable rganizations.

Baskets filled with choice morsels were handed out by the thousands in all sections of the city. Banquets were given to children. In fact, nearly every one, from the tottering old men of seventy or more years to the infants in arms who really deserved charity, received It.

The Union Benevolent Association, 716 Spruce street, gave out approximately sixty baskets of food to widows with dependents, the aged, and families where there was sickness. The Special Relief Bureau of the Emergency Aid, of which Mrs. John. Wanamaker, 3d. is chairman, provided baskets to ev-4. The Social Service Depart-of the Diagnostic Tepartone of the its list. its list. The Social Service Depart-ment of the Diagnostic Hospital, through the kindness of the gentlemen of the board, ladies' auxiliary, Mrs. Frank T. Decker, and the Charily

Club of Germantown furnished one undred and fifty-five dinners for their hundred and fifty-five dinners for their dispensary families. The thirteen Boys' Clubs within the membership of the Y. M. C. A. of Germantown distributed baskets of good were given to 225 children and young mothers with children in the foster things for the Christmas table to needy mothers with children in the foster home department of the Children's Bu-reau of Phliadelphia by that organizafamilies in the neighborhood. During Christmas week there will be special erents held for the schoolboys in the tion. The children ranged in age from symmasium and swimming pool, also hikes through the surrounding country mere bables to boys and girls in their teens. The Church Mission of Help, 225 and educational trips to large indus-trial establishments. The new additrial establishments. The new addi-tion of this institution will open for inspection on January 1. Part of the New Year's celebration will be the open-the of the new and many set of the mission and gave pres-ents to 109 girls and thirteen children. ing of the new equipment. Nicetown Poor Aided Red Men Give Dinners Another organization that took Red Men Give Dinners Christmas dinners were sent to many homes by the Osage Tribe, Order of Red Men, 761 South Broad street. A party was also given to scores of chil-dren in Osage Hall, John Carcy was chairman of the Kiddles' Party Com-mittee which provided toys for all the children.

The Prison Welfare Society with the Sole assistance of Judge Howard A. Davis, of Court of Common Pleas No. boys and girls, who have grown up in 3, extended Christmas cheer this year the Nicetown Club, distributed baskets as usual to the poor families of men among more than 1500 poor and needy as usual to the poor families of men serving terms in jail. Hundreds of well-filled baskets were distributed today in Room 285. City Hall, to those who presented cards given them by the society's agents. Each basket contained a fine bird and a generous supply and variety of regetables and other eatables ample to sutisfy all demands of at least a half satisfy all demands of at least a half needy families and sent toys to the dozen healthy appetites and when the children of many of these families. family to be fed was known to be The Children's Christmas Cheer As-large, there were extras for each such sociation, of Delaware County, which was organized fourteen years ago, sen The Salvation Army lassies, with the out packages of entables and other money given them on the streets of the presents to needy persons whose names taining a Christmas dinner for eight or nine persons.

The Volunteers of America distri-buted 600 Christmas dinners, serving about three thousand persons. Recipi-ents of these Yuletide baskets, piled high with nourishing foodstuffs, in-clude more than two hundred destitute.

One would not call these youngsters "window shoppers." They are reveling in the real beauty of Christmas displays that make the store fronts so alluring

Poor has given presents to all children World Peace Theme of Bishop's Poem

The spiritual significance of Christmas Day 18 emphasized in a poem composed by the Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Gar-with Bishop Gorland. In early manhood BISHOP GARLAND Dr. Garland was a successful business man, the manager of an iron and steel comand the treasurer of several pany. manufacturing concerns. The poem

God With Us Chermore

'On Christmas Day acc're near to God. 'Tis casy then, to pray,

At Bethlehem hear angels sing. and in succet memory dream again Of dear ones passed away.

Some tell us that the Christ still lires.

That He is ever near ; The that would be a blessed thought As strength renewed we hasten forth

To greet the coming year. But Thou, O Lord, seem'st far when Christmastide is o'er; give us grace that we may know message of Incarnate love-God with us evermore!

"Come back, live in our lives,

Many other children of the city are Christ.

near.

colored bulbs.

The

munity

Kringle

committee, promises a treat for the the committee, promises a treat for the big boys and girls as well as the little ones. The Elks will give 1000 books, the kind boys love, to the future young the kind boys love, to the future young men of the city. These will be donated at the library of the Big Brothers' club-house, at 25 South Van Pelt street.

Notice has come from Ridley Park that churches there will fittingly cele-In Kensington Migs Elizabeth D, in their lap they want to eat next. brate In Kensington Migs Edizabeth D, in their they drey which have just Eggleston is directing rehearsals for a pageant. "A Masque of the First Christmas," that will be presented the afternoon before Christmas by the Girl Reserves of the Kensington branch of the Young Women's Christian Associa-the Young Women's Christian Associa-the Young Women's Christian Associaan annual one "Peace Benediction by a Chorus of Angels." Suitable music and costumes have been selected.

In places where conditions and schedules permit, the real celebrations have been postponed to Christmas day and among these will be a dinner for 250 men at the Galilee Mission, 821 Vine street. The dinner will begin at 11 o'clock and will follow a service to be held in the chapel of the home. The Western Community House will have a "Community Tree and Garden." Baskets donated will be given to the needy. The various classes and clubs planning parties, and carol sing-iag, at which time candy, games and oys will be distributed. No more faithful worker for the dissemination of Christmas joy seems to exist than "Daddy" Cohen who each year gathers up as many youngsters as he can handle and hies them off to a restaurant that he has hired for the day. On Christmas day this year, Daddy Cohen will collect his little band of expectant boys and girls at the Reading Terminal and march them to Wal-nut street for their feed.

Navy Men to be Hosts

Fifty orphaned children will be made

HOSPITALS DISCARD DOES ESTHETIC DANCE TO DESCRIBE XMAS TREE STANDS CHRISTMAS DIETS Man With Holly in His Buttonhole Starts His Same Little

Eat and Be Merry, With No Thought of Morrow, Is Slogan

PATIENTS TO GET GIFTS

EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA; SATURDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1922

Christmas-all the pictures that flit through the mind at the mention of that -carols, turkey, stockings, Santa laus, Christmas trees, plum pudding-

There is no such thing as a diet on Christmas Day—it is only eat and be merry, with no thought of the morrow. The hospitals are buying enough turkeys to make the world wonder if the folks, age slipped out and he leaned to pick in there are spoofing about their ail-it up, thus releasing two other pack-to make the world wonder if the folks. The hospitals are buying enough turkeys to make the world wonder if the folks, age slipped out and he leaned to pick in there are spoofing about their ail-in there are spoofing about their all-in there are spoofing about their all there are about the about their all there are about the about thei Santa Claus must scratch his ages which a small boy picked up for head in bewilderment at the huge fam-ily when he slides down the chimneys of a hospital and sees hundreds of "Y He began again.

of a hospital and sees hundreds of stockings flapping empty from the beds. Waiting to be filled. Stockings flapping empty from the beds.

Gigantic trees, with twinkling lights, tinsel, shiny balls and groterque orna-ments of all sorts gladden the wards. and Santa in person, with his pack on that slips in-" he paused for breath. his back, will give out gifts to large and small—to the children doomed to spend the big day in bed and to the prosaic grown-upa—what could make for a mean-they don't always work but you ayer Christmas? use flatirons-

"Dizzy from joy," is exactly the way the 300 children who were entertained with a suspended expression drew a by the nurses of the State Tuberculosis little nearer.

Dispensary at the Medico-Chirurgical Hospital, 1722 Cherry street, this "Think I know what you mean. he set his bundles on the neighbor." sidewalk. "It's not one of those new fangled kind. It's one of those oldnorning, felt.

How can one small child-or a grown fashioned ones something like thisperson for that matter-watch a magi-cian do his fascinating tricks, listen to He accompanied this description with the mysterious powers of a ventrilo-quist, choose which piece of the candy motion that looked something like the beginning of an esthetic dance. "Get him now?" he asked hopefully. play with the toys which have just the Young Women's Christian Associa-tion, 174 West Allegheny avenue. The masque is made up of ten tab-leaux. It opens with a narration of the Christmas story and closes with a the Christmas story and closes with a the Christmas story and closes with a

The children were given toys and candy from the Christmas tree the had erected and decorated. nurses

Two hundred and ten baskets funds for this celebration besides contributing themselves.

In the quadrangle at the Philadelphia General Hospital a large Christmas tree lighted up at night with electric lights will be displayed and the wards will be for the patients.

Polyclinic's Plans for Kids

The Polyclinic Hospital has a prac in their wards. The corridors and wards are to be trimmed with evergreens and wreaths, while the trays, loaded with goodies, will have a special card with the patient's name on it. Patients at the Germantown Hospital will hear carols Christmas morning and receive a gift, as will those confined in Methodist Episcopal Hospital. In the Howard Hospital Santa Claus will oid "Penn yells." and others in tongues that smote strangely on the ear. There was plenty of noise. Wait-ers brought to each guest a plateful of toys and fun makers such as might grace any child's stocking. happy on Christmas Day by the officers and ugen of the newly commissioned flagship of the Atlantic aviation fleet, the U. S. S. Wright, now at the Phila-tere in the children's ward will be distribute gifts to the planemann Hos-pital will have a Christmas tree. The tree in the children's ward will be tree in the children's ward will be with Dr. Penniman sat

Piece Again at City Hall as Tony Listens and Smiles Just aft of the garden of Christmas | Were they losing their minds, his ex-

trees that blooms on the east side of the Tony who sells the Christman trees City Hall, the man with the bolly in the bol started his was only the three hundredth time that morning he had listened to otherwise piece again. "It's one of normal Philadelphians trying to describe that their favorite Christmas tree stands. one those kind have the curled-up iron stunts." he No. 13 car clanged its uneven way ages from his left arm to his right arm and put his the sidewalk. "The the patients in the various hospitals in brown suff case on the sidewalk. "The tion trip for a car ticket. It was enough kind I mean is the kind we get every to drive any conductor to distraction tion trip for a car ticket, It was enough them out. The last sweet ageless strains of the shepherds' watch song brought the whistle solo to an end only to have it begun cheerily again as the car stood line in a long interminable block. The little old lady in the store where though, a kindly faced young man came up to her. "I want one of those sets to set up boutonniere. "I'll tell you the kind I mean—they don't always work but you use flatirons—" Td like that little figure of the Christ The passer-by who had been listening with a suspended expression drew a And please two or three of those little animals to put around the crib." She sighed in a rather satisfied way.

"I've always wanted one of those sets," she said, "but nobody ever thought to give it to me." She flashed a snile at the young man. "So I'm just giving it myself Out into the brilliant 6 o'clock night beginning of an esthetic dance. "Get him now?" he asked hopefully. The gentleman on the outskirts of the crowd grew more pained inch by inch crowds yesterday.

ROBBED OF XMAS FUND

Woman in Shopping Crowd car to return for the list. When she Amid all the bustle of going home had been taken from her handbag.

XMAS TREES GRACE CITY HALL OF

Mayor's Reception Room Elaborately Decorated and Many Celebrations Planned

The spirit of Christmas pervades the corridors and offices of City Hall today. as seldom before. Trees grace offices of the various departments, celebrations have been planned and a number of entertainments have been provided for. To begin with, the reception room of the Mayor has been decorated in an elaborate manner in keeping with the spirit of the occasion. This work was bridge & Clothier.

There has been crected a platform at one end of the room. It is upon this that singers and instrumentalists will give a sacred concert on New Year's Eve. The decorations include several The little old lady in the store where books and statuary are sold did not try to break through the last-minute throng and ask to be waited on. Finally,

There are a number of Christmas trees in offices throughout the building also. The division of housing and sanitation of the Bureau of Health, in also. addition to its tree, will send forth "waits," who will sing through the corridors the old-time Christmas carols This party will comprise twenty-five men and women, employes of the department, led by Inspector William J. Johnson.

There is a gavly decorated tree also in the office of Richard Weglein, presi-dent of Council. The Board of Revision of Taxes has a tree, too. The Receiver of Taxes has a tree also: there is one in the delinquent tax. office and the Bureau of City Property, together with the City Hall cleaners. provided singers to patrol the corridors in bands throughout the afternoon.

Cuticurs Soan shaves with

Merry Christmas to every citizen of Philadelphia

FOREIGN STUDENTS CHEER PENNIMAN taining Christmas dinners will be dis-tributed by the nurses, who collected

Dinner to Men From Far-Off Lands

Cheers rose last night, in the high gay with greens. Radio concerts and beamed halls of the Houston Club at motion-pictures will gladden the season the University of Panasylvania for Dr. QUARANTINED BLIND BOYS the University of Pennsylvania for Dr. Penniman, acting provost of the Uni- TO HAVE MERRY CHRISTMAS versity.

It came from eighty-five Chinese Dozen Youths at Overbrook School tical plan for the children's wards-every child will receive a pair of new students attending the University who Will Enjoy Feast, Tree and Fun stockings filled with toys and a deco- were among the guests from all the rated Christmas tree will shine brightly nations of the world at the annual for the holidays, one of the boys at Christmas dinner of the provost to the the Pennsylvania Institute for the Inforeign students. Forty-five nation- struction of the Blind had to get the alities were represented. The guests from many shores showed pantons must spend the jolly season a vociferously their approval of the the school in Overbrook. But their American Yuletide feast, for at its Christmas will be a merry one, with a close cheer after cheer arose, some good great big tree, stockings-or socks hung old Christmas cheer in the city was the Philadelphia Lodge of Elks, whose headquarters are at 1320 Arch street. Besides entertaining more than 7000 widows with families of one to ten children, families whose earning capaity has been blasted by sickness and families where there has been unem- Besides entertaining more than poor children at the annual party, 600 ployment Miss Julia Z. Robinson, an incurable baskets conveying food supplies for sevinvalid who is a patient at St. Joseph's Hospital, raised most of the money to throughout the city. The distributions purchase the food contained in the were in charge of a committee of more seventy-five baskets distributed by the than 100 Elks, known as the Santa Social Service Department of the hos-Dial. Miss Rohnser the sevent seve pital. Miss Robinson is a singer of ton, past exalted ruler, was chairman anusual ability and appeared at sev-eral recitals for this cause. The Teath and Lehigh Young Men's Christian Association gave out fifty Christmas baskets to needy families Yuletide Spirit in that section of the city. Grips Entire City

Children Get Goodics

Continued from Page One

Hundreds of children were provided with Christmas cheer in the shape of with Christmas cheer in the shape of baskets of food and "goodles" by celebra friends of the Advisory Council of the Department of Public Welfare. The distributions were made under the supervision of Mrs. Henry D. Jump, beed of the council celebrated Christmas Day, true ex-pression of the season consecrated to the spirit of love, sacrifice and benevo-the spirit of love, sacrifice and benevodistributions were made under the supervision of Mrs. Henry D. Jump, head of the council. More than one hundred baskets were distributed to poor families by the Ar-tisans' Dining Club. The Christmas plans of the Artisans also included an entertainment for a group of children gathered together by the Protestant Episcopal City Mission, Third street below Walaut. The Visiting Nurse Society gave away seventy-five dinners to families throughout the city where the wage armers in the families were ill or where the mothers were widows.

he mothers were widows. of a man who was about to sell, his the taons Club of Philadelphia sent many of its members in person to the poor sections of the city and distri-buted baskets of food and toys. Ar-rangements for the distributions were under supervision of a committee conunder supervision of a committee con-sisting of Jean Paul Richter, the Rev.

Robert Alexander Mackie and Samuel . Dodd More than a thousand children in here today to begin the task is here today to begin the task of filling the stockings of a metropolis the various boarding homes conducted by the Children's Aid Society were recipients of presents from the Christ-go without. for those who otherwise would have to mas Committee of that organization. On many of the playgrounds in the The gifts were selected according to the age of the girls and boys receiving them. Specially selected presents were given to more than one hundred older boys and eighty older girls who e about to graduate from the care of where they are dancing about the great the society into positions of self-sup-

1500 Sailors Get Presents

Every one of the troops of the Girl Wayne avenue, opposite Logan street, Scouts of Philadelphia did something the children have a tree and an enterfor some one else this Christmas seatainment; at Starr Carden Center. son. Most of the troops sent out large baskets to at least one family and oth-Seventh and Lombard streets, a tree and a playlet and a distribution of ers filled big "stockings," which were goodies, through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Stotesbury; at Tip distributed to needy ones by various charitable agencies. Still other troops made their gifts through the Co-opera-Top Center an entertainment and gifts. through the courtesy of business men in the neighborhood of Front and Allen tive Club to the Philadelphia Hospital. The Scaman's Church Institute, Secstreets : at Sherwood Center, Fiftyond and Walnut streets, in co-operasixth and Christian streets, a Christtion with other agencies, sent rep-resentatives aboard all ships in the mas play. "Santa's Surprise": at Seger playground, Tenth and Lombard streets, a tree and gifts and Christmas carols barbor and gave away presents to more than 1500 sailors, including substantial comfort bags. At the headquarters of at 9:30 tonight; at Waterview Center, Haines street and McMahon aveinstitute, 200 residents received nue, a play, "Christmas With the Pixies," and at McConch Center, Sev-enteenth and Fitzwater streets, a consifts of tobacco, handkerchiefs, etc., from the Women's Auxiliary. Promi-Rifts nent in the work of this organization are Mrs. Lincoln Ferguson, Mrs. C. C. Zantzinger and Mrs. Edward M. M. cert and gifts for the children from five to twelve years old.

To each of the families of thirty blind men who are employed in the Pennsylvania Working Home for Blind street. Nearly 5000 youngsters poured in and out of the building to receive Men, Thirty-sixth street and Lancaster venue, who live outside with their Seeir gifts and make their bows and amilies, a families, a chicken dinner was given. Every individual connected with the home was presented with suitable gifts, hear the entertainment provided by a

Santa to Fill Stockings

And so Saint Nicholas in the spirit

the U. S. S. Wright, now at the Phila-delphia Navy Yard, A Christmas din-And bid our wavering cease. "hrough us proclaim love's triumph ner with toys, clothing and an enter-tainment will be provided for the young-Use us, O Lord, to conquer strife. And lead the world to peace.'

The men of the crew gave $350 to provide toys and clothing for Christmas last night with its myriad of little gifts for their little guests. A friend from New Jersey sent over a big supply of evergreens and holly for the deco-Y. M. C. A. at Tenth street and rations, and part of the band from the U. S. S. Relief will spend the after-noon aboard the Wright to furnish the Lehigh avenue is giving an entertain-ment today to 275 children and presenting each with a Christmas stockmusical end of the entertainment, ing filled brimful of good things, and out at Drexel Hill the Drexel Hill Com-On Christmas Day, the Salvation Army will entertain 1000 poor children Club has provided a spread for the children that takes in youngsters and distribute presents to every boy far outside the ordinary boundaries of and girl from under two huge Christ-the organization's activities. At the Babies' Memorial Hospital, 1600 children are gathered with their bution. The entertainment will begin at 2 o'clock Chirstmas afternoon, and continue until 4. Visitors will be adtendent, arranged long ago to have a continue toy to give to each of the youngsters mitted, who visit her today.

Animals to Do Stunts being remembered by the employes of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company and 500 tots are having a joyous time today on the fifth floor of the com-pany building, where Joseph M. Cono-ver, president of the Employes' Asso-ciation, is taking the role of old Kriss music, with selections by the Divisional

Many of the children in the audience In the lobby of the Central Y. M. C. will see themselves in the pictures, On Christmas Day the Army A, boys of various ages have been invited to gather in groups for an oldgive a Christmas dinner to nearly 500 fashioned Christmas party, which reaches its climax tonight. In the Thirty-second Ward the Renomeless persons in the big hall of No.

2 Corps, at Eighth and Vine streets. A number of the guests will be women. Owls of South Philadelphia, mem-bers of Nest No. 1613, will maintain publican women's organization has placed its second annual Christmas placed its second annual Unristings tree, and no matter how many report there will be a box of endy and perhaps more to bring joy to the little hearts. And even City Hall is having bers of Nest No. 1613, will maintain a wide-open house at 1931 South "Third street on Christmas Day to entertain many of the poor children who live between Market street and the river. its Christmas party, with Sheriff Lam-berton the bost to all the attaches of At the Vare Recreation Center at 2:30 Christmas afternoon the John P. Garland Post, No. 196, American Legion, will place a lighted star upon the force with their wives and their children and their grandchildren.

Orphan Society Program And yet all these activities today gift to the comrades who died in France.

The Prison Welfare Society will be busy Christmas Day taking care of the poor little children whose fathers have poor little enduren woose fatners have found that the way of the transgressor is hard. The society will take care that Christmas trees and other happy things will be available for the youngsters in this class, sters in this class. In Llanerch a great community tree will be erected in front of the Llanerch firehouse and decorated. On Christ-mas Eye the tree will be stripped and mas Eve the tree will be stripped and the things on it will be taken to the Babies' Hospital in Philadelphia. Here they will be distributed. Another tree has been erected by the Sixty-ninth Street Business Associa-tion, and the public has been asked to decornte the tree for the poor, sick, helpless youngsters in the Babies' Hos-pital.

BOOTLEGGING FINES HERE TOTAL $15,000 IN 2 WEEKS

106 Plead Guilty in Federal Court.

One hundred and fourteen bootleggers delphia, that they had heard was slow :

have pleaded guilty or have been con-victed during the last two weeks in the criminal branch of the United States District Court. Of that number, 106 entered pleas of guilty and were assessed fines totaling more than $15,000. The other eight The Philadelpiha Society for the many struction of the bing made happy by the big timployment and Instruction of the bing street in Vernon Park, which burst forth and in the morning gifts and candy is provided for all.

At the Pennsylvania Hospital every patient will receive a gift, and in the afternoon musical entertainments will be given through all the wards.

Jefferson Hospital has many festivi-is planed. Besides gifts, Christmas ties planed. Besides gifts, Christmas trees in all the wards and a turkey called for a toast to the President of dinner, the patients will receive a favor the United States, drunk in fresh eider. on their breakfast tray. Children in Then the orchestra played the "Star the out-patient department will have a Spangled Bauner," followed by "Adeste glittering tree and be entertained by a Fideles. monologist, a magician and an orches-

Taking the occasion of Christmas as tra. If that isn't gayety ! tra. If that isn't gayety! Children at St. Christopher's Hos-pital will be given clothing, toys, fruit every the keynote, Dr. Penniman said : are gathered here representing almost

This first rees. Charles J. Webb, president of the Army's Advisory Board, will probably be present, and superintend the distri-time for all. Dr. Alex Arthur will play Santa Claus at the Children's Homeo-we all can regard His advent on earth pathic Hospital, while 600 youngsters as the most extraordinary event with in the Children's Hospital. Eighteenth the most far-reaching influence that has the occurred in the history of the world. and Bainbridge streets, will guests of the employes of the J. E. "The Christmas spirit is here tonight.

Animals to Do Stunts Trained animals will do stunts for the anusement of the children, and music, with selections by the Divisional Cruelty will be' bountifully remembered there will be a program of Christmas music, with selections by the Divisional there will be a program of Christmas the angels meant when they sang 'Peace on Band. In addition, there will be motion pictures of the Army's work at the Fresh Air Camp at Upland, last sum-tion dent of the Chinese student body, repre-At the Mercy Hospital a chorus of sented his country, and he thanked Dr.

men will sing carols and distribute gifts Penniman for all the good work the to all the patients, while children will university was doing, have the best of things at the North- Mr. Len handed Dr. Pennimgn a yelwestern General, University and the low-striped silk flag of China's republic. West Philadelphin Hospital for Women, and then leaping on the table led his At the Memorial Hospital there will countrymen in a Chinese cheer which gifts and open house all day, and ended with the only distinguishable he Kensington Hospital will celebrate word to the American car-"Penniwith a turkey dinner. man.

HOLIDAY TRAVELERS THRONG BIG RAILWAY TERMINALS

City Relatives Greet Country Cousins While Whole Families, Bundle-Laden, Scramble for Places in Trains

The Christmas rush was on today toted through the stations. Men with full force in the railroad stations- unhappy expressions try to look unconpeople rushing into Philadelphia and sclous of bulky bundles, while some standing surrounded by bags and packpeople rushing out. ages and children and wife, look abso

Relatives meet relatives for the an- lutely miserable. One man particularly mual visit, emitting a line of gossip seemed in read of sympathy, for, as though it wasn't had enough to be a holy show, the wife took it into he and "You don't say so's" from both head to blame him, in lond tones, because they had missed the train.

Three Jolly Rovers

Three jully good fellows swaggering ed at the gates, hoping they were on through the crowd daln't seem to know that the country had "gone dry." They poked jests at men with their numerthe country cousins and the cousins ous families spread out around them had to squander money on a taxicab These men carry sufficases, hiso, no merry Christmas in that house. The man who announces, surrounded by an eager audience that drank in his every word, when trains come and Country cousins reaching the big city or the first time-complete with bundles when they depart, has his hands full and wicker suitcases, stare around with doling out information to nervous per startled expressions-so this is Phila. sons with scared eyes.

And the newsboys share the holiday Whole Families in Rush Whole familites with but a single with to rate to train but the single baye their fun. One urchin piped out

Whole familites with but a single thought—to catch a train—sweep f through the stations. Tots, whose lii-the legs cannot keep up with the race, swing from parents' hands, while others hang on to flying skirts. And the bundles! No one comes or goes empty-handed—it evidently is not the thing to do. Big packages and liftle packages—some done up in red in ribbons, with a gay sprig of holly— others wrapped in , newspapers—are fat. Would they be surprised if they saw the jolly elf in all his glory? or tree in the children's ward will be trimmed while the youngsters are asleep With Dr. Penniman sat J. Hartley Merrick, acting vice provost; the Rev. had they pictured him gayer in their A. W. Stevenson, director of the Stu- minds than any man, even Chris, could dents' International House: E. W. Ma-delra, assistant to Mr. Merrick, and Arthur Spencer, assistant to Dr. Pen-three days old—and the boys can work niman. The acting provost greeted each it like veterans, so concerts and solos student, passing from table to table to will be their share.

JOHN CLARK SIMS COMPANY, LTD. General Advertising Agents 218 South 16th Street PHILADELPHIA

he radiance of The Polished Girdle Diamond will be more fully appreciated by direct comparison with other diamonds - sold only by this Establishment

GIFTS OF IMPORTANCE

Pearl Necklace

Diamond Bracelet

Diamond BarPin

Diamond Ring

Jeweled Bracelet Watch

Silver Dinner Service

Silver Tea Service

Hall Clock

are but a beginning of the celebration that will be beld on Monday, with tomorrow being spanned with the usual observances of Sunday. Christmas Eve will be celebrated by the children of the Orphan Society of Philadelphia, and every one of the little stockings, bulging with unexpected things, will be hanging is its along when the Sun creens in with thristmas tree today and going home happy and tired, their arms burdened with the good things given them. At the Happy Hollow center in its place when the sun creeps in with Monday's dawn. At the Holy Trinity Episcopal Chapel, Twenty-second and Spruce streets, ra-morrow night the church will be opened after being closed five months for renovation and repairs, and Christmas carol service will begin at 7:30 o'clock. Another Christmas Eve service will be held in the chapel of the Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Home, 3015 Chestnut street. The Inasmuch Mission will be the scene of a Christmas Eve entertain-ment, in charge of Mrs. II, Malpass, president of the Drexel Biddle Social Workers. The women will serve 400 dinners and many entertainers well known on the stage will lend their tal-ents for the delight of the unfortu-nates. Major A. J. Drexel Biddle will have charge of the religious services. At the United States Naval Home,

Twenty-fourth street and Grays Ferry

Children's parties today reign every-where, and one of the biggest is at Osage Hall, the home of the Osage Tribe of Red Men at 764 South Broad ice is to be held Sunday at 10 o'clock, and on the evening of Christmas Day there will be a party for the hospital bly room. At the home of the Elks, on Arch inmates and their friends in the assem-

Eight Others Convicted