THIEF APOLOGIZES WHEN HE IS CAUGHT

Politely Tells Would-Be Victim Not to Use Gun at

WAS JIMMYING WINDOW

A polite burglar, who was unarmed and sorry to cause any disturbance, was captured early this morning at the point of a revolver as he was about to rob the home of Edward Quinlan, 136 South

Quinlan heard a noise at the rear of the house on the first floor. He found a well-dressed young man cooling jimmying a rear window as he casually smoked a eigarette.

Quinlan quickly obtained a revolver and approaching the burglar from the rear, ordered him to throw up his bunds. There was a linrsh tone of estimated in Quinlan's voice which grated uneasily on the ears of the would-be intruder. "No necessity for getting excited shout it," he said. "You caught me and there's nothing cise for me to do." He dropped the many with which he was working.

Quinlan picked it up, and then, keeping the man covered, marched him to the front of the house.

As the hurgiar seemed quiet, Quin-lan ordered him to walk near a tele-phone. Quinlan then called the Third and De Lancey streets station while the otranger looked on.
"I don't like to cause any commotion," he said. "I'm serry you had to get out of bed, but I suppose if you hadn't I probably would have taken station.

"I was hungry." he said, "and I wanted money or samething with which I could get food.

He gave his name as John Henry.
