

They Love Her—Then Disappear

THE VANISHING MEN

By RICHARD WASHBURN CHILD U. S. Ambassador to Italy

What Becomes of Her Suitors?

The Daily Movie Magazine

DE ROCHE GETS ACQUAINTED IN HOLLYWOOD

WHO'S WHO IN THE STORY
TRINA SELOOSS, a beautiful...

"I NEVER have a vacation," said Trina Seלווס...

If he had lived another six months he would have been totally blind.

An English college eight. He was more like the had son of an earl than a book-keeper...

Continued on Monday

Little Benny's Note Book

By Lee Pope

The Park Ave. News, Weather-Morning. Sports.—The members of the Dred-naught football team...

Business and Financial.—Fortunes Made in Frogs: You can sell fortunes for their frog legs...

Poem by Skinny Martin Before Meats

Science and Inventions.—In a series of experiments made in Prof. Pads' kitchen...

Blood Notes.—Reddy Merly's reports are found every month...

GETTING BRITAIN'S VIEW

By Herbert N. Parsons

When Santa Claus came to Donville he brought a jolly little visitor with him...

When Santa Claus came to Donville he brought a jolly little visitor with him. This visitor was welcomed by the little Don Dads...

When Santa Claus came to Donville he brought a jolly little visitor with him. This visitor was welcomed by the little Don Dads...

This looks like a "get-together meeting." Evidently the story Walter Hiers is telling is being hugely enjoyed by Conrad Nagel, Richard Dix and De Roche himself...

THE MOVIE FAN'S LETTERBOX

By HENRY M. NEELY

Curiosity writes: "I'm writing this letter to show you the effect you and Bessie G. had on the destiny of a poor girl..."

Duke writes: "The wintry blasts from some of the Valley (sub-title No. 1) and—well, the hot chocolate-lentil season has started..."

Old-Timer writes: "I gather that you are far from your position to tell me if he is willing to make a comeback..."

Another thing I think his wife has shown herself a regular fellow and a real woman for sticking to her husband...

credit for what hard work and application have done for her. Because she is certainly 100 per cent better...

And if you could only hear the phrases about new art in movies, 'the visual beauty,' to be exact you would unite with me in being glad that the arts are being called to the silent drama...

It is not done by the operator in the booth of the theatre. It is done by the camera man when the scene is being photographed...

Here, in just a few lines, is a million thanks to all the Letter-Box family who sent in Christmas and New Year greetings to the old grocer who conducts this column...

Advertisement for the Stanley Company of America, listing various theatres and their current film offerings.

THE DOO DADS—A New Year's Eve Skating Party

By ARCH DALE

When Santa Claus came to Donville he brought a jolly little visitor with him. This visitor was welcomed by the little Don Dads...

When Santa Claus came to Donville he brought a jolly little visitor with him. This visitor was welcomed by the little Don Dads...