REPUBLICAN MEETING. We are authorized to announce that Gov. Curtin, Hon. James T. Hale, W. W. Brown, J. F. Riddle, Jas. S. Brisbin and others will speak at Centre Hall, on the afternoon of Friday the 2nd of November next.

The Effect. All along we predicted the effect that the election of Co!. Cartin would have upon the people of other States, but we did not count en the effect his election would have at home. We knew that if Col. Curtin had lost Pennsylvania, it might have so influenced the election in Illinois as to defeat Lincoln Haines, in his own State, but now that Curtin has Halfmoon, triumphantly carried Pennsylvania, his election will make ten thousand votes in Illinois for Lincoln. The New York World, a leading paper, says that the result of the election | Marion, in Pennsylvania, has made a hundred thousand votes in New York for Lincoln. We have carried our ticket in this county by a handsome majority, and the result has Rush, disheartened and dismayed our opponents, so that it will be impossible to rally the Demoeratic vote in time for the November election. Men will not go to the polls to be defeated, and defeat in November is now a foregone conclusion. We said to an old democrat the other day-"well we defeated you! "No you didn't," he replied, "for I was not at the election." The truth was, he could not vote any longer with the party, he felt that defea was an inevitable consequence-he did not wish to yote against the party, so he stayed at home and did not go to the polls at all -Hundreds will imitate his example in November and the consequence will be that Lincolo will carry the State by fifty-thousand. Since Col. Curtin's election, we hear of men in all parts of the county that voted for Foster, who are going to vote for Lincoln. They disrelish defeat, and will now come over to the strong side. Straws show which way the wind blows, and judging by these criterions, it is morally certain that Lincoln will get the Harris, floating vote in November, which, in this Howard, country, amounts to over one million, and Huston, this alone secures his election beyond the shadow of a doubt. Now is the time to work, Republicans. Repe in the doubtful. Lock Patton, around, you will find plenty of your neighbors who are tired of democracy and disposed to change-talk to them-ge with them to the polls and see that they vote for Lincoln and Hamlin.

WALL PAPER .- Nothing probably in the catalogue of items with which we heautify car homes, contributes more towards giving an inviting, cheerfull appearance than that with which we decorate our walls: And so important has this item become that the manufacture and sale of wall-paper, has grown to be a business of immense magnitude and commands the capital, enterprise and good taste of our best business men, and most skillful Artists. In connection with Bellefinte, this buisness the name of Howell has become almost synonymous. By their leberality to Artists and good taste in the selection of im- Benner, portant goods. Messrs. Give them a trial. See their card in another column.

THE PRINCE AND THE CITIZEN, -A Buston paper, hearing of the extriondinary solicitude shown by a western railway company for ty of the Prince of Wales, in a spe-

Walker, I think, defines the word to mean a trifler, a medler, an intruder. In what sense is impertinent to be understood, when it relates to the writer of the article? The article referred to may be found in the CENTRE DENOCRAT of Sept. 28th. In that article Col. S. Barnhart is asked if he could not have written Two will see. Thousand instead of tu sousand, and not have mocked Mr. Daniel's broken English. But what is his answer to that question? Astonishing. Why he says the young man is an impertinent scribbler. That we put down as argument No. 1. Now I understand him to mean that, the young man is trifling with 142 bis Excellency, now trifling, as it may appear to the Editor of the Watchman. He don't answer the question, but possibly he meant by the word impertment, that the young man was a medler, as it is very repug- Bucks, nant to his sensitive feelings, for the young man to defend himself from assaults made upon him and his friends with pens dipped deep in the pool of Blackguardism. The decisive battle has been fought—a nation has been redeemed from disunion and dishonor by the verdict of Tuesday last .-The issue was mede by our fees and accept-ed by our friends, and millions to-day greet the triumph as the unerring barbinger of our national disenthralment.

Let the friends of the right not be content with an ordinary victory—Abraham Lincoln can be called to the Presidency by a clear majority of the people of the United States, if all who shall rejoice at his coming will but cast their suffrages for him. To that majority Pennsylvania can and will contribute full fifty thousand.
