PROFESSOR BROWN.

THE celebrated Knight of the Razor, is still ahead in his profession in Barbering and Hair dressing, and restoring hair to the scalp.—

He has discovered one of the wonders of the world the great hair restorative. Persons having lost their hair, or are in danger of losing it, are invied to call en Prof. Brown and have it restored. The Professor furthermore informs the citizens of Bellefonte and strangers who may tarry here u til their beards grow long, that he is unsurpassed in his line of business, as is admitted by alt upon whom he has operated, both here and elsewhere.

His razors are both keen and sharp,

His razors are both keen and sharp, He'll shave your face without a smart;
His sponges are soft and his towels are closs,
And at his chair he's always seen;
Not only so—if that won't do,
He'll brush your hat and coat, both old and
He'll do the thing all up to smash,
And when he is done he looks for cash.
A friend to him would not ask for trust—
In with your hand and down with the dust.
The times are hard and he is poor,
He sk his nds net to pass his door,
For if their hair should need a trimming,
Net them drop in—they'll find him willing—
Never rough but always ready
To shave for fip and cut hair for a levy.
