The Professor furthermore informs the citizens

His razors are both keen and sharp,
He'll shave your face without a smart;
His sponges are soft and his towels are clean,
And at his chair he's always seen;
Not only so—if that won't do,
He'll brush your hat and coat, both old and
He'll do the thing all up to smash,
And when he is done he looks for cash.
A friend to him would not ask for trust—
In with your hand and down with the dust.
The times are hard and he is poor,
He asks his nds not to pass his door,
For if their hair should need a trimming,
Not them drop in—they'll find him willing—
Never rough but always ready
To shave for fip and cut hair for a levy

"Vanity Fair" says that the present epidemic sore throats is owing to Leap Year giving us ch a Forward Spring. We would ask whether Backward Fall is not as equally injurious to the salth? health?
If a "Cutter" that brings in a revenue like "Powers," the celebrated pantaloon cutter, at Mr. Charles Stokes' Clothing Store could not be properly called a receive cutter?
Would it not be proper for a gentleman who had purchased a coat at the "One Price" Clothing Store of Mr. Charles Stokes, to speak of it as his one price less coat.
