Our Protracted Meeting.

Our indefatigable little minister, Mr. Sherlock, is laboring nightly on the hill, and unless we are much mistaken in the signs of the times, his labors are about to be rewarded with success. The meeting is largely attended every night—the people listen very attentively, and go away to talk and think about religion. A general feeling of solicitude for their future welfare seems to have taken possefsion of very many, and everything indicates that a great revival is about to take place in Bellefonte. Mr. Sherlock is a man of wonderful energy. His meeting at the Springs was eminently successful, and having closed it, without allowing himself time for rest, he commenced his effort in this place.

On last Sunday evening after the conclusion of the regular services, Rev. John Tonner of this place, made a most touching allusion to the untimely death of the accomplished young wife of our fellow townsman, John Baxtresser, and forcibly reminded his hearers of the uncertainty of life. We cannot, at this late hour, report him correctly, but at the time, his remarks made such an impression upon us that we remembered the exact language for many hours afterwards, and regret we did not then commit them to writing.

He spoke, as near as we can remember, as follows: "My friends, how uncertain—how very uncertain is life—in a moment we are launched from time into eternity. A few months ago, the young lady who has just died in our midst, bade farewell to her friends at the Depot of the Railroad, a youthful, gay, and happy bride. Now she goes back to meet those friends—a lifeless body. How little did they think, when they last gathered around her, wishing her joy and long life, that she would so soon be returned to them stiff in the cold embrace of death. Yet it is so—thus in life we are in the midst of death, and in a moment when we think not the dice falls and we close our eyes upon the world. Oh! what a warning for us always to be ready.

"I have often seen the passengers, when the Cars were about leaving Philadelphia westward, preparing to retire for the night—leaving their lives, their property, and their hopes, in the hands of the Engineer, Conductor, and a few brakesmen. An obstacle upon the track, a broken rail, would dash down the train, and in a moment half its human freight would be hurried into eternity. In that connection, my friends, I have thought of this congregation—we are all passengers in the great Car of life and fast hurrying towards life's end. Are we prepared for accidents? Let every one ask his heart that question, and if it answers that he is not may God help him to prepare."

During the delivery of these remarks the house was deathly still, every eye was fixed upon the speaker, and the tones of his voice, the earnestness of his manner, and the direct application of his language, made a profound impression upon the hearts of all who heard him.

Correspondence from Pine Grove.

Pine Grove, is, perhaps, one of the most pleasant villages in the county. It numbers over two hundred inhabitants, and in it are located three very neat churches, Lutheran, Presbyterian and Methodist, the latter of which not quite completed, a good Academy in successful operation, under the supervision of Prof J. F. Thomas. Four Ministers of the gospel reside in the town, Rev's. Mozer and Fletcher Lutheran, Rev. Moor, Presbyterian, and Rev. Crosthwaite, Methodist. Peace and harmony prevails among the different christian denominations. The ministers living together, not only as neighbors, but apparently on terms of friendship. It was the good fortune of your correspondent, on the evening of the 6th inst., to see the above named ministers and their ladies, together with a large company of friends and neighbors, assembled at the house of Captain J. Dunlap, who is (as you all very well known) one of the cleverest men living. The occasion of this meeting was to witness the marriage of the Captain's eldest daughter, Miss Susan J., to Mr. Jonathan Hess, a fine looking and very respectable young man of this neighborhood. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. Moser, after which we surrounded the Captain's table, a description of which I will not attempt. Suffice it to say, it was loaded with an abundance of every thing good, and taking all things together, from the fair bride down to the most tiny cake, there seemed to be but one opinion, that it was one of the nicest weddings we ever attended. A GUEST.

Boys.

We have a large number of boys in this place, and very bad boys are some of them, ranging from the ages of five to eighteen years of age, who are permitted to run our streets night and day, without restraint, boys with parents and without parents, well dressed boys and ragged boys, boys whose parents cannot control them and boys whose parents will not control them, all banded together and working in delightful concert in all kinds of mischief and rowdyism, to the destruction of their own morals and the annoyance of the citizens. This habit of allowing boys to spend their leisure time, both night and day upon the streets, is one that is only productive of evil results. Under the cover of night they acquire many evil and pernicious habits, vulgar and profane language, obscene practices, criminal habits, and a lawless and riotous bearing. We have noticed, lately, much bad behavior on the part of some of our boys. We have heard cursing, seen fighting, seen boys that are old enough to know better, indulge in practices that would better characterize heathen children, than those of christian parents. How are we going to better it? that's the question. Let parents and guardians ask themselves this important question.

Our Humble Acknowledgment's.

The merchants of Bellefonte are all (especially those who advertise in the Democrat) a pretty clever set of men. They have repeatedly placed us under obligations to them. When our patrons are slow about paying up the "old score," in consequense of the tightness of the times, we can always manage to get a little on tick from our gentlemanly merchants. But, Wilson & Bro's has placed us under renewed obligations by presenting the associate Editor with one of 'Oakfords best Hats.' The Wilson Brothers are doing a good business and deserve to be abundantly sustained.

And then again, (and we are so well pleased that we can scarcely stop to tell our story) our 'friend' John Tonner, just set the whole shanty in an uproar of joyful glee, by presenting the aforesaid associate with a first rate coat--a magnificent coat—a bran new coat. And how well it fits! We hope, however that our merchant friends will not forget there are other editors, and boys connected with this office, who would like to experience the peculiar sensation that thrills ones breast, just after having received a handsome present. Boys you know are boys and they can't help it. But we cannot for the life of us see why all the honors and presents should be lavished upon the associate Editor. Well never mind we will all be old Editors after a while, and then stand from under. If we don't,—well if we forget, then, to remember our friends, on the early reminiscences of our boyhood days, 'Let our right hand forget her cunning, and our tongue cleave to the roof of our mouth."

The firm of Tonner & Steel is one of the strongest in our town. The store is well filled with a variety of choice winter goods, and the clerks Messrs. Steel & Hollahan are always at their post, accomodating obliging and genteel. Long may the Proprietors Wave, and may the shadows of the clerks never grow less. See Advertisement in another column.

Protracted Meeting.

On last Thursday evening Rev. Thos. Sherlock, Pastor of the M. E. Church, in this town commenced a protracted meeting. That there is need of a religious revival in this place, certainly no one who is acquainted in these parts will deny. The devil keeps his churches open here, both night and day and his meetings are continually progressing. That the members of his denomination are aided by the power of the spirit may be seen by the peculiarly happy manner in which they behave while surrounding his altar. That his converts are many, may be known by the state of morality in our village and the large number who bow at his shrine. That they are devoted may be seen by their very regular attendance upon service, and the liberal manner in which they contribute on collection occasions, towards the keeping up of their places of worship and the support of their principles. That the arguments of their ministers and the example of the members are powerfully convincing may be known by the fact that many who once were strong in the christian faith, and faithful in the performance of christian duties are now to be found attending regularly upon the service of Satan and giving their contributions to the support of his cause.

If then, the powers of the evil one have so strong a hold upon the people, and exert so great an influence upon society, it is certainly right and indeed necessary, that the ministers of the Gospel of Christ, and the members of all Christian denominations in our town, should use their utmost endeavors to overthrow the strongholds of Satan and to advance the cause of christianity.

General Jail Delivery.

On last Tuesday morning about 2 o'clock, Louis Sherman and three other prisoners broke jail and left for parts unknown. Sherman was confined in a back cell, from which he made his way by burning out the steeple by which the door was fastened. He then opened the door of the front cell by means of a wooden key which he had made for the occasion, being now in the front cell he commenced digging through the wall with a mattock and an axe which he had brought into the cell and secreted some time before. We are told by one of the prisoners who was in the cell at the time, that he occupied two hours in digging through the wall. After having made a hole sufficiently large to pass through they let themselves down by means of a bed cord. Thus escaped Sherman, Rudy, 'Corn Doctor" and Coon. Good jail, that.

For the Ladies.

A "fashion" writer in a New York paper says, "the winter bonnets promise to be as plain as a Shaker meeting-house; feathers and flowers will be seen as rarely as birds on the prairie. Dark velvet depressed over the forehead, with almost straight sides, plain crown, and decoration of rich, real lace, only will be recognized as ton by the initiated." The same writer says of the winter goods that will be worn: "Flash has had its day. The rainbow plaids, with squares as large as small windows, are consigned to oblivion, and ladies are no longer to be seen walking the streets enclosed in chequer work. The railroad stripes are numbered with the things that were."

Good Advice.

Girls, let us tell you a stubborn truth. No young woman ever looks so well, to a sensible man, as when dressed in a plain, neat, modest attire, without a single ornament about her person. She looks then as though she had worth in herself, and needed no artificial rigging to enhance her value. If a young woman would spend as much time in cultivating her mind, training her temper, and cherishing kindness, meekness, mercy, and other good qualities, as most of them do in extra dress and ornaments, to increase their personal charms, she would, at a glance, be known among a thousand—her character would be read in her countenance. That's so.

Lumber.

An improvement, long needed, has just been started by Jac. V. Thomas, at the saw mill on Cheap Side. He is engaged in sawing lumber, so any person who wishes a good article can get it by calling at the mill.—This will make a very decided difference to farmers and others wanting sawed lumber, as they can now get it at any time, and take it home as back loading when they bring their grain and other produce to market thereby saving both time and expense. But heretofore they have had to go to the lumber regions to make their bargains, and then there was always an uncertainty about getting it delivered in time, unless they went to the mills for it themselves.

A few months ago we did not suppose that Bellefonte was in the lumber regions, but seeing the saw logs coming in on the cars of the Rail Road and unloading them direct on to the saw mill, really makes us believe so, as all the lumber near the Rail Road is as easily got here as to the saw mills built in the midst of it.

A nice Point in Law.

Some weeks ago, says the Patriot and Union, a man named Cathcart was tried and convicted in the Clearfield Court for the murder of his wife, and sentenced to be hung. On Tuesday, H. Bucher Swope, Esq, one of Cathcart's attorney's, arrived in this city, and obtained from Gen. Miller, Prothonotary, a writ to take the case to the Supreme Court, where it is Mr. Swope's intention to test the right of a Governor to sign and issue a death warrant.—The courts below will probably wait with anxiety to see what arguments will be introduced, and their merits for ingenuity. If Mr. Swope convinces the Supreme Court that the Governor has no right to issue the little document which sends men to the other side of Jordan, he will have achieved a much greater name and reputation than any man in the legal profession.

A Novel Wedding.

On Wednesday last, says the Tyrone Star, Wm. Burley, Esq., of that city, riveted a couple in the holy bonds of matrimony, under singular circumstances.—He received word that they would be on the accommodation train, going west, with the request that he would wait at the station. Upon the arrival of the train, the worthy Justice entered the car in which the happy couple were, and to the utter astonishment of the passengers, immediately proceeded with the marriage ceremony. The good-natured and accommodating conductor, Capt. Cremer, kindly waited until the last word was spoken, and then with an "all right—go ahead," and a snort from the fiery horse, started the newly married pair on their journey through life.

MARRIED.

On the 6th inst., by the Rev. D. Mosser, Mr. Jonathan Hess, to Miss Susan J., eldest daughter of Capt. Jas. Dunlap, all of Pinegrove, this county.

With the above notice we received a most excellent cake. Peace and happiness will most assuredly accompany this couple thro' life, for such is always the case with those who remember the Printer.

DIED.

In this place, on Sunday, 9th inst, Mary C. Baxstresser, wife of John Baxstresser, and daughter of Kirk Few, Esq., aged 18 years.

LINDSEY'S IMPROVED

Blood Searcher

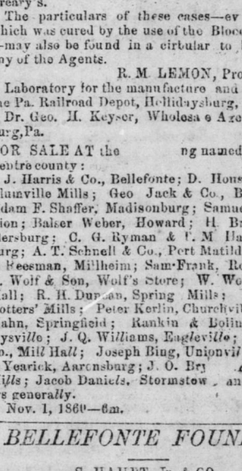
A STANDARD MEDICINE

For the speedy, radical, and effectual cure of ALL DISEASES arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

THIS medicine has wrought the most miraculous cures in the following cases of

Scrofula,	Cancerous Formation,
Cutaneous Diseases,	Erysipelas, Boils,
Pimples on the face,	Sore Eyes,
Old, Stubborn Ulcers,	Scald Head,
Tetter Affections,	Rheumatic Disorders,
Dyspepsia,	Costiveness,
Jaundice,	Salt Rheum,
Mercurial Diseases,	General Debility,
Liver Complaint,	Loss of Appetite,
Low Spirits,	Foul Stomach.

Female Complaints, and all Diseases having their origin in an impurity of Blood.



The above is a portrait of David McCreary of Napier township, who, on the 31st day of Aug., 1858, made affidavit before Justice Gordy that he was treated for the cure of Cancer by three physicians of Bedford county, and by Dr. Newton of the Electric College in Cincinnatti, for a period of nearly eight months, notwithstanding which, his lip, nose and a portion of his left cheek were entirely eaten away! He had given up all hope, when he heard of the "Blood Searcher" and was induced to try it. Four bottles cured him, and although sadly disfigured, there is no question but what this invaluable medicine saved his life. The full particulars of this case may be seen in a circular, which can be had of any of the Agents.

We also refer to the case of Nancy Bleakney, of Eldertown, Armstrong county Pa., cured of Scrofula after being unable to get out of bed for three years.

To the case of a lady in Ansonsville, Clearfield county, who was also afflicted with Scrofula in its worse form.

To the case of George Meisel, residing in Carltown, Cambria county Pa., who was so badly afflicted with Cancer that it eat his entire nose off, and his case was worse, if possible, than McCreary's.

The particulars of these cases—every one of which was cured by the use of the Blood Searcher—may also be found in a circular to be had of any of the Agents.
