Cure for Diptheria.

This scourge of the family continues to ravage many sections of our Commonwealth, and counts its victims by hundreds. We subjoin an extract of a letter from a gentleman in Maryland, relative to the cure of this alarming disease. The remedy recommended was successful in his own family, and may bring relief to others. The simplest remedies are often the most effective:

PUTRID SORE THROAT OR DIPTHERIA, AND ITS CURES .- The distinguishing mark of this malady from other diseases of the throat is the formation of a membrane, which increases gradually until the patient is strangled to death. To prevent the formation of this membrane is to arrest and cure the disease In the early stages of the complaint, which is accompanied by a soreness and swelling of the throat, let the patient use a simple solution of salt and water, as hot as the patient can bear, as a gargle, every fifteen minutes; at the same time moisten a piece of flannel with a solution of the same kind, made as warm as the patient can bear it (as before) and bind it around the throat, renewing it as often as the gargle is administered, and in the mean time sprinkle fine salt between the flannel and the neck; use inwardly some tonic or stimulant, either seperately, or, if prostration be great, use both together. The treatment, as may be seen, is extremely simple, and if used in the earlier stages of the Sold by all respectable Dealers. se, will effect a complete cure. I know this to be a certain cure, as my Mother and Sater-in-law both had it and cured themselves with this simple remedy. By ining this in your paper, you will oblige, WILLIAM A. COOK.

More Thanks.

Our thanks are due Mr. H. A. Campbell of Pleasant Gap, who presented us with a couple of fine rabbits. They, indeed, made an excellent dinner. Mr. Campbell is one of the few men who always remember the printer, and in return are ever remembered by the printer. He is not kind and obliging to printers alone but to all who fawor him with a call at his cheap Store at Pleasant Gap.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is growing tendency in this age to appropriate the hast expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incooporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cepalic will become except the second of come as common as Electrotype and many others whose distiction as foreign words has been wern away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

Still Pregressing.

The protracted meeting in the Methodist Episcopal Church at this place is progressing finely and with good effect. Night after night the House of God is crowded with people many of whom manifest much interest in the meeting and evince much feeling on the subject of religion.—

Sinners are flocking to the altar nightly and ly, happy, hopeful New Year. These, Winter, are thine own. No other season can lay claim to them—no other season can give them to us. And though thy hair be frosty and white, Old Winter, and thy face pinched and blue, thy heart is right and true and sincere, and thy hands are open, as thou treadst this good old earth. There is much to be enjoyed and to be thankful for during thy reign on this slandered World of ours—the strength of the subject of religion.—Sinners are flocking to the altar nightly and a number have already embraced religion. Every night the interest appears to deepen, and many are prophesying one of the greatest religious revivals ever witnessed in this country. We carnestly hope it may be so, for there is no place more needy in this respect than Bellefonte.

CONSTIPATION OR COSTIVENESS.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much ne-glected as Costiveness. Often originating in care-les-ness, or sedentary hablts; it is regarded as a slight disorder of toe little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precur sor and companion of many of the most fatal and danger-ous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases, such as Malignant Fevers Abeesses, Dysentery, Di trrchea, Dyspesia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom, Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the case is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insiduous approaches of diseases and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.
