We do not wish to it is bonorable and to us pleasant; we expect to labor so long as we live. But we merely wish to show that we do work and because we work we need rest occasionally. This is one reason why we only publish fifty numbers in a year. Another reason is shat we need time to repair the office, for a printing office like everything else will get out of repairs. Again, we think that fifty numbers of a newspaper is a fair equivolent for the price of subscription. There are other reasons for pursuing this course but these are sufficient to satisfy any reasonable man. Away, then, with a man who would stop a paper for such a reason as this we would be sorry to keep his name upon our books, for if there is any thing upon earth which we despise it is a penurious, miserly which amounts to a sixpence. From the earliest period of our boyhood we entertain-proper time we came to this town to learn the trade. We have worked at the business

The Pretracted Meeting. The Methodist pro tracted meeting in this place, has been progressing for five weeks, and the efforts have been crowned with good results. The meeting is growing in interest every night and the altar is crowded on all occasions with anxious penitents. On last Sunday evening Rev. John Topper preached one of the most able and e'oquent sermons ever delivered in breathless silence and deep interest to the sermon for almost an hour. After the selmon Rev. Sherlock delivered a most stirring exhortation, which had much effect upon the congregation. Mr. Sherlock has, since the opening of this meeting, labored with untiling energy and manifested a zoal which we never saw equalled. Not only at night does he labor for the cause of Christ, but from the rising of the sun until the setting of the same be is engaged in all quarters of our town, in influencing sinners to repent, and exhorting his church to dilligence and

That Thos. J. Taylor, the great picsure man, has located in Milesburg. He has lately got up a New Car, both large and beautiful, where he is always ready and able to take the most beautiful pictures of all kinds. We have seen many of his pictures, and pronounce tuem very good. The other day he showed us a photograph of a young lady, in Milesburg, which was so life-like and perfect, that we imagined it was a lady instead of a picture, and made a convulsive offort to kiss her red, rosy, pouting, pretty lips. We suspect had it been a live lady she would have presented the heart of her hand to our mouth with a hearty good will, saying, " take that you mky brat." If you don't believe just every thing we say, just believe a part and go see for yourselves .-Knowing that the times are hard. Mr. Tavlor has made his prices to suit them. Again we say, call and see for yourselves. Cheap and beautiful pictures cannot fail to please

An Oily Story.
The biggest oil story yet out is told of a well near Tidioute. On Friday of last week, "while workmen were steadily boring at the depth of about one hundred feet, with scarcely a show of oil, the drill of a sudden opened the jugular vein, and the oil began to rise. It struck an Irishman in the face and knocked bim over, passed up shrough the top of the derrick, and equirted a four inch stream clean over the tops of the trees. Several large pits around the well were speedily filled, then a flat boat was got, which was also filled, and then it poured into the river raising it up to high water mark, so that the boats and lumber rafts unexpecsedly started for market. On Sunday it was still spouting." Tidioute is a great country.
