The Inauguration Trip.

At a meeting, on the 8:h of January, the Bellefonte Fencibles resolved to attend the Inauguration of Gov. Curtin. Accordingly, on Monday the 14th. the company composed of fifty five men, under the command of Capt. Mitchell, started for Harrisburg. During the day snow continued to fall, rendering the trip between this and Lewistown very disagreeable. We arrived at Lewistown about 6. o'clock, and quartered at the Lewistown House, where a most sumptuous supper was prepared for us. At 11 o'clock we took up our line of march for the Depot. After waiting for half an hour out cars were greeted by the welcome sound of the whistle, and when the train stopped we were ordered into our " special car." We found, upon entering, neither light nor fire. This, of course; was very agreeable after having ridden thirty miles or more through the storin and cold. We came to the conclusion if that was traveling in a "special car," we would, hereafter, pay our fare and ride comfortably. A pleasant and cheerful trip of about two hours brought us to Harrieburg. Here we thought to flad rest but were again doomed to disappointment .--We found every Hotel full-no rooms, so beds for the Fencibles. We stopped at the U. S Hotel, and were turned loose into the parlor, where we sought rest upon the floor. Morning soon dawned, and we were called to prepare for the pleasures of the day, which consisted in marching to and fro through the iov atreets of that great city.

At 9 o'clock the companies were ordered out and formed into procession on Market Street, and took up their line of march, halting at the residence of Gov. Packer, to take Gameron Infantry in the Field. up his Excellency, and at the Jones House. for Gov. Curtin, arriving at the Capitol at 12 c'clock. While the procession was in motion a salute of thirty-three guns was fired from Capitol Hill."

At 12 o'clock, the Governor elect, the retiring Governor, the Heads of the Depar ments, and members of the Senate and House, appeared on the platform erected for the occasion, in front of the Capitol. The Innuguration services were then conducted in the regular manner. The Governor then proceeded to deliver his Inaugural Address, which was listened to with marked attention. After the dalivery of the Address, the pro cession again formed and proceeded to Mar ket Square, where the military were review od by Gov. Curtin and then dismissed. Altogether the day was unusually lively.

At 3 o'clock on Wednesday morning. we took the cars for Lewistowo, where we atrived at day-light. We tarried there a short time and then started for home, where we arrived in the evening. Since the trip, many of those who went from this place have been very unwell, from the undue ex posure to which they were subjected.

A Song for the Times. The following song though written years ago, suits the times ab well that we give it a place in our columas :

The blood that flowed at Lexington, And crimsoned Lake Champlain, Streams still along the southern gulf Aud by the lakes of Maine; It flows in veins that swell alore Pacifie's golden said. And throbs in hearts that love And grieve by dark Atlantic's Strand. CHORUS. - Then who will dare? Then who will dare?

Then who will dare to sunder Then who will dare? Then who will dare? Re-echo it in thunder l From where Columbia laughs to greet

The smiling western wave, To where Potomac sighs beside The patriot hero's grave; The patriot nero's grave; And from the streaming everglades To furron's lordly flood, The glory of the nation's past Thril's thro' a kindred blood ! CHORUS.—Then who will dare ? &c.

It is a sacred legacy Ye never can divide, Nor take from village urchia, Nor the son of city pride; Nor the buater's white haired child, Who finds a fruitul home. Where nameless lakes are sparkling bright, Where lonely rivers roam ! CHORUS.-Then who will dare ? &c.

Green drew his sword at Eutaw's field

And bleeding Southern feet Trod bold across the Lolaware Amid the suow and sleet; And, to & upon the parchment Where the natal record shines, The burning page of Jeffarson Bears Frank'in's calmer lines. CHORUS.-Then who will dare? &c.

Say, can the South sell, out her share

In Bunker's hoary height? Or can the North give up her bones Of Yorktown's closing fight? Gr vorktown sciencing ugar? Can ye divide with equal hand A heritage of graves? Or read in twain the starty flag That o er them proadly waves? Chours.-Then who will dare? &c.

We are informed that the Cameron Infantry met at Bealsburg, on Saturday last, and took action on the present national excitement. They resolved to offer their services to the Govern ment, and when the vote was put, be it said to their credit, every man in the company voted to go and serve his country. This is a move in the right direction, and we will be disappointed if their example is not followed by every company in the County. The Cameron Infantry is a fighting, not a fancy company. Most of the men who now compose the "Infantry" were members of the "Penns Valley Cadets," when we had command of that company, and they are as brave a set of fellows as ever carried a musket. Capt. Mc-Farland is full of pluck, and should the "Infantry" be accepted, they will do their full share of the fighting.

Boliofonte Foncibles. The Lock Haven

Watchman, of last week, contains a scurrilous article on the Fencibles-it is a tissue of falseboods from beginning to end. The biggest coward in the company has more courage than Dunham. The Fencibles are ready and every man will march in defence of his country, should his services be needed. Mr. Danham, you have acted the blackguard by reflecting upon the courage of our fellow citizens. To say the least of it, your attack is ill-natured, unjustifiable, and untrue. OFFE GSL/MO

The teacher's tried to look grave, and said s-s-h-h !" with a warning finger lifted ; but it was no use ; they gave it up, and joined in the song and the general amusement. It was not exactly a Sunday School song, but seemed to do the boys a " beap o' good." -Said a grinning little darkey, rolling the whites of his eyes up to the city missionary, Jane "We couldn't help it, Massa. If dey didn't want us to sing Dixie, de band no business to play such jolly tunes !"

A Warning to Euchre Players.

A young man in Ruchester, who is very fund of euchre, and also very fond of the daughter of a pi lar of one of the churches, was taking tea at the house of his adored a short time since, and had some fruit cake offered him. Being somewhat confused on account of his situation, as the cake was held out to him, he eried out, "I pase." The father hearing him, and having played some in his younger days, was horror struck at his infatuation for the game, and thought he would teach bim a lesson. He spoke bluntly-"You pass, do you ? then I order you up-and there's the door ; I shall make a march !"
