FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD. And for the specty cure of the following compulates: Scrofnla and Scrofnlaus Affections, such as Tumors, Vicers, Seres, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Bolls, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

Schirrus, Caucer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Carles and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. Scue of them may be found in our American Almanae, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them. Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilep-sy, Melancholy, Neuralgia sy, Melancholy, Neurrigia.

Many remarkable curves of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the necessities of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them sli that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Coughs, Colds, Influence, Morreness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a renedy so universally known to surpses any other for the cure of threat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtue. Its unrivalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Few are the communities, or even families, mong them who have not some personal experience of its effects—some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the threat and lungs. As all know the dreadful fitality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to as are them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have so strongly upon the conducace of mankind.
